Presbytery Votes Down Resolutions Censuring Dr. Parkhurst.

DR. MULLALLY VERY INDIGNANT

Other Members of the Association, However, Are Disposed to Make Light of the Reformer's Criticisms and Vote for Peace and Harmony.

New York, March 11.—According to programme the resolutions reflecting upon the conduct of Dr. Charles Parkhurst in the matter of his criticism of the New York Presbytery's action with regard to the sale of the church "Sea and Land," were offered this afternoon at the monthly meeting of that body in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church. Dr. Parkhurst was absent, having left the city for a two weeks' rest, but his friends were there in force.

THEY ARE VERY MODEST.

Luzerne County Commissioners Want to Collect $90,000 from Lackawanna. Say the Debt is Due Since 1879.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Wilkes-Barre, March 11.—The commissioners of Luzerne county will make an effort to collect a debt of $90,000, which claim has been due them by Lackawanna county since 1879. With the accrued interest they contend that Lackawanna is now in their debt to the amount of about $90,000.

NO MORE WORTH GOWNS.

The Famous Parisian Dressmaker Has Passed Away.

Paris, March 11.—Worth, the famous dressmaker, is dead. Charles Frederick Worth, the most celebrated of all Parisian dressmakers, was singularly enough, a native of England, but the only queen in all Europe who never ordered a toilette from him is the one of whom he was born a subject.

BIG ROW AT INDIANAPOLIS

The Indiana Legislature Ends in a Riot.

GOVERNOR'S PLANS DEFEATED

The Magistrate Holds Bills Until the Last Hour in Order to Prevent the Passage Over a Veto—General Row Follows.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 12.—The Indiana legislature ended in a riot tonight. The governor is allowed by the constitution to hold a bill three working days before vetoing or approving it. One of the political bills, ousting the custodian of the state house, reached him at 11:54 Thursday night. It became known about that time he would send in his veto at 11:54 tonight, hoping that inasmuch as the session expired at midnight there would not be time to pass the bill over his veto.

The officers of the house were prepared to rush a roll call through in quick order and get the bill over to the senate by 11:54. The governor's secretary usually comes in at the south door of the house and he was expected there tonight. A few Republican members had put up a scheme to keep him out until after 12 o'clock so that the veto would be ineffective. The doors were locked and the elevator captured.

BOOTH WAS HYPNOTIZED.

Brother of the Late Actor Makes a Queer Charge Against Lawyers.

New York, March 11.—In a suit brought in the city court to recover the sum of $407 from Lawyers Redfield, the plaintiff, Dr. Joseph G. Booth, a brother of the late Edwin Booth, testified that he had employed the defendants in November, 1892, for a fee of $100, to conduct a contest of the will of his wife, Cecilia. In May following they handed him a check for $125 as the proceeds of the contest. Later he learned that they had received $2,327 and demanded the balance, except the fee of $100. He said in his testimony that Amos A. Redfield had exercised a hypnotic influence over him to get the money. The defendants denied everything and got the verdict.

GOVERNORS QUARREL.

Messrs. Matthews and Nye Raise a Rumpus in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 11.—A bitter quarrel occurred between Lieutenant Governor Nye and Governor Matthews today. This is the last day of the legislature, and the lieutenant governor took advantage of his constitutional right to pass on bills on the last day. Governor Matthews, in reply, started out to hunt for Nye. He found him in the speaker's room and demanded that he permit the passage of the prize fighting bill.

BEWITCHED BRIDE DYING.

Accuses Her Husband, Who Is 65 Years Old, of Being a Wizard.

Brazil, Ind., March 11.—Eliza Stapleton, the 16-year-old bride who created a sensation in police court by testifying that her husband, aged 65, is a wizard and had placed her completely under his control and could at will throw her into spasms of insanity, has been released from his control. She refused to see him and insists upon her friends sending for a witch doctor to remove the fury sent upon her by her husband.

NEW COURT OF APPEALS.

A Guess as to Who Would Win the Prizes.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 11.—It is believed here that the new court of appeals bill will be passed by the legislature. The bill as reported provides for five judges to serve fifteen years, except the first elected, who shall decide by lot that the term of one shall expire every three years, the said court to sit in Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburg.

DOG'S BITE WAS FATAL.

Reading, Pa., March 11.—The bite of a dog has killed Mrs. Susan Dautch. Five weeks ago a setter pup was found on the street nearly frozen to death. It was taken to the Dautch home and cared for, but it soon bit Mrs. Dautch. For several days the woman has suffered horribly with hydrophobia. The sight of water makes her go into convulsions.

OUR LEGISLATORS AT WORK

Bills Considered in Senate and House of Representatives.

APPROPRIATIONS ARE ASKED

Measure Introduced to Provide an Annuity of $300 for Louis Aucker, of the National Guard, Who Received Injuries While at Mt. Gretna.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 11.—The senate met at 9 o'clock. The following bills were introduced: By Mr. Creamer, providing for the collection of the amount due the commonwealth for purchase money, interest and fees due on unpatented lands; by Mr. Stiles, requiring incorporated clubs to take out liquor licenses; by Mr. Keefe, amending the act to permit the taking, use and occupancy of certain public burial places so as to permit the taking of one acre instead of one-half acre for such purposes; by Mr. Vaughan, creating the office of fire marshal in cities of the second class.

EARLY MORNING BLAZE.

House of Daniel Bartholomew, of Madison Avenue, Badly Scorched.

An alarm of fire was sounded from box 28 at 2 o'clock this morning. The blaze was located in the house of Daniel Bartholomew, at 830 Madison avenue. Mr. Bartholomew is a traveling man and is away from home. His wife and daughter were asleep in a bedroom upstairs and were aroused by the fierce barking of the dog, a large mastiff. This warned they quickly arose and shouted for help. Neighbors responded and the garden hose was brought into play, but without success; and it was not until the Phoenix company arrived that the fire was got under control.

WILL JAIL DELINQUENTS.

Bethlehem Tax Receiver Has Undertaken a Late Contract.

Bethlehem, Pa., March 11.—The population of the South Side is giving Tax Receiver Reynolds no end of trouble. Today he started to make example of delinquents and the first to suffer was Preston Shaffer. He owed $20 tax; he was taken to jail and will be kept there until the tax is paid. The collector has over 600 names of delinquents on his list, and if he continues his plans the county jail will not be large enough to hold all he proposes to arrest.

JUSTICE WINKED HER EYE.

Remarkable Discrepancy in Sentences Given by Judges.

Norristown, Pa., March 11.—An astounding discrepancy in the sentences imposed upon criminals is furnished by a case here, and one in Perry county. Walter Driver, a poor colored man of Conshohocken, was Saturday convicted in court for stealing several chickens. The value for the stolen property was probably not over $10. He was sent to penitentiary for four years. In striking contrast to this harsh sentence was that imposed during the past week by Judge Bell at New Bloomfield. Ex-Bankers Sponser and Junkin were convicted, their bank having collapsed. It was insolvent for 18 years, but they still received the deposits of hundreds of people. The creditors of the bank lost $112,000 in this rotten institution, but Sponser and Junkin, the ex-officials, each goes to the penitentiary for one year.

GROVER KILLED A GOOSE.

The President Also Viewed the Moon's Eclipse.

Cape Henry, Va., March 11.—The light-house steamer Violet, on which Mr. Cleveland, Dr. Reilly and two of the high-ranking board officials have been cruising in Pamlico and other sounds in eastern North Carolina since March 6, is anchored abreast of Cape Hatteras. On account of bad weather since his departure, the president has had only one day's hunting yet. That was last Friday, when he killed sixteen Brent and one large goose. President Cleveland was upon deck last night watching the moon's eclipse. The sky was obscured by clouds and shadow so that the passage of the shadow was difficult to follow, but to compensate for this there was a brilliant lunar halo.
