Councilman Henry Knowles was se-Hously hurt in a wreck at Lehighton this morning at 8 o'clock. His train was laying on a siding when another train, headed by Engine 460, collided with the rear end of the train on the siding. The crew all escaped with the exception of Knowles, who received a severe scalp wound. The cut is six inches long and it required twelve stitches to close the wound. He also has severe bruises about the back and shoulders. Miscellaneous Items.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

Naw York, March 11.-American sugar still maintains the leading posi-tion in the stock market. Today the stock was traded in to the extent of 85, 000 shares, and the final sale at 102% or within 4 of the best price attained. The bulls were active throughout the day, and the somewhat liberal offerings of operators, who evidently believed that the movement was merely a campaign against the shorts, were quickly absorbed. Sugar opened at 9914; rose to 102%, and closed at 102%, a net gain for the day of 3%. Refined sugar was put up a sixteenth more. The new orders that were expected to be given out have been placed, prices have remained stationary and the outlook for the future is just as unsettled as before.

The Lehigh Valley's new tariff to Junction points is it cents per ton from the Lonigh and Schuyikill regions and $1.55 per ton from the Wyoming region, on prepared sizes of coal. This is the proportion of the old through rates received by the Lehigh Valley. The New York, Lake Eric and Western Railrond company has notified the Reading and the Lehigh Valley Railrond company has notified the Reading and the Lehigh Valley Railrond company has notified to charge an arbitrary rate on all coul that is sent to points in its territory.

The sub-committee of three anthracites ales agents has completed its report of statistics of facilities of coal roads for producing and distributing anthracites. The general committee will meet in New York tomorrow and it is expected that a meeting of the precidents of the various company, which is back of the project to build the electric roadl from Allentown to Reading, will eventually become the owner of all the trolley lines between Easton and Harrisburg, and will connect them into one enormous system. Such a scheme would involve millions of dollars.

The Lehigh Valley's finances are admittedly in better shape than they have been in for some time. The floating debt of the company, which at the beginning of the year 1894 was $1,870,000, hard, between that time and the bolding of the annual meeting, and $500,000 since that time.
