After the meeting opened W. S. Miland financial condition of the club for the year, which was followed by the annual report of the retiring president, at gentleman said:

"We are not unmindful that the hismemoration of Republican triumphs man-at-large, of the grand old Republican war horse, Galusha A. Grow, and under the auspices of this club was conducted, upon his triumphant election, one of the grandest and most successful receptions ever tendered in this city to any one.

Honors for the Club.

"The club can also note with pleasure that from its members have been iselected a lieutemant governor of Pennsylvania, the president of the Republican league of clubs of Pennsylvania, a member of congress, a state senator, a member of the legislature, with the prospect of a representation upon Governor Hasting's staff of two of our prominent members. Time will not ermit us to mention in detail all the nembers of the club who have been nonored by election or appointment to positions of influence and trust. "It can be said in a word that they have been sufficient in number to warrant the statement that this club has been recognized as a strong factor n moulding the success of the Repub-lean party in this city and county, all he elective general officers of the ounty except two, and all the elecive general officers of the city, includig the alderman of the central wards eing members of the club.
