last night's meeting of the board of control, when George B. Carson, the new president, announced the committees and chairmanships for 1895. Mr. Carson was chosen president only by the narrow margin of one vote, so it was anticipated that those who had opposed him would be denied places on the choice committees. In hls appointments the only member given a chairmanship and who had supported Mr. Schriefer for the presidency, was Mr. Langstaff, and he was given the doubtful honor of heading the auditing committee.

It is a noticeable fact that some of the desirable and important committees contain the names of the Schriefer Pittston Avenue-Personal and Other- men, who, during 1895, will officiate on the laborious and obscure committees or will not officiate at all. The list follows:

Mr. C. W. Campbell—Dear Sir: I have given my boy, Freddie, 7 years old, some of Dr. Campbell's Magic Worm Sugar and Tea, and to my surprise this afternoon about 2 o'clock he passed a tapeworm measuring about 35 feet in length, head and all. I have it in a bottle and any person wishing to see it can do so by calling at my store. I had tried numerous other remedies recommended for taking tapeworms, but all failed. In my estimation Dr. Campbell's is the greatest worm remedy in existence.
