GENERAL SPORTING GOSSIP.

The Yale navy has been obliged to order extra new shells for practice this spring. They will be heavier than usual, and will arrive about March 20. Shells for the freshmen have also been ordered.

Tracy and Creedon, who are backed by Cole el Hopkins, will meet in the ring the "Parson" Davies pair, Ryan and Choynski, in Chicago, probably at Tatter-salls' about March 20. The necessary permit to have the performance has been ob-tained from the municipal authorities.

Lindsay, of Omaha, Neb., was Thursday found guilty of manslaughter in the kill-ing of Fletcher Robbins, who died shortly after their match in Plattsmouth, Neb., last summer. Lindsay will appeal the use to the supreme court. In the verdict the prisoner was commended to the len-lency of the court.

Jimmy Kennard, the pugliist, known as the "St. Paul Kid," has been ordered by Judge Seaver, of Buffalo, to get out of Eris county. The judge required him to give a band on his own recognizance that he would leave the county and refrain from engaging in fistic encounters within its limits for one year. For the past two years a mile relay race has been run between the University of Pennsylvania and Princeton. The trophy Pennsylvania and Princeton. The trophy striven for was a cup, which the college winning the race two years in succession was to possess. Princeton won the first year, and Pennsylvania last year. The Pennsylvania athletic authorities have received a latter from D. R. James, jr., captain of Princeton's race track team, notifying them that Princeton would not race this year, and would lose the cup by default.

Byron McClelland, owner of the sensational 3-year-old of last year, Henry of Navarre, says that the stories going the rounds about his retiring the coit from the turf this spring are unwarranted. He said: "If Navarre trains all right he will be started in many leading events in the west. He is already entered in a number of races, and unless he should go wrong in his work he will be started in them."

Comparatively Few Applications for Licenses from This Part of City.

FELL INTO THE ROARING BROOK

Daniel Dimler Missed His Footing on the Bridge Near the Old Mill-Old Folk's Concert at Cedar Avenue Church. Personal Mention.

Taking the number of applications for license as a standpoint to judge from, then the South Side is the most emperate portion of the city. There are twelve persons applying for a hotel license and half that number for a restaurant license in the Eleventh ward. The Twelfth ward, of course, ias a reputation to sustain, and there are no applications for permission to sell liquor within its confines. In the Nineteenth ward one hotel and one restaurant license are applied for. In the Twentieth ward three petitions for hotel licenses are presented to the court. The total number of places where liquor will be sold on the South Side. assuming that none of the applications will be refused, is twenty-three. There is a population approximating 25,000 persons south of the Roaring Brook. The average number of inhabitants for every saloon, it will be seen, is a little more than 1,000.

Old Folk's Concert. Tuesday evening, March 26, is the date on which the Old Folk's concert will be given at the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Under the guidance of the active members of the King's Daughters and Ladies' Aid societies, the array of talent invited to participate assures a very fine musical programme. Next Sunday afternoon Sunday school officers will be elected.

Signs of the Times.

Not a single arrest has been made on he South Side by the police within the past four weeks; and in the four weeks pefore, but four arrests were made This is the most remarkable record since the lockup was established on Alder street. Lieutenant Zang ascribes as the cause of so much peacefulness and the disposition of the people to remain law-abiding, the sluggish condi-tion of trade among the industries on this side of the brook. This somewhat gives the lie to the old proverb that, 'Idleness induces crime.'

Daniel Dimler's But for the timely a imployes at the old roll Daniel Dimler, residing at 434 would have been drowned the Roaring Brook yesterday afternoon a little before 2 o'clock. Dimler is a cripple, one of his legs having been amputated not long ago. He walked with a crutch and was crossing the bridge above the old mill. He stumbled and lost his balance, toppling over into the water, which is rather deep. The workmen saw his plight and plunged in after him. He was rescued and the patrol wagon was sent for. After being taken to the central police station his clothes were dried and stimulants were administered to him.

cemetery. Thursday evening there will be a special meeting of Division No. 14, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of Erin, at Battle's hall for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the parade at Carbondale next Monday.

Mr. C. W. Camphell—Dear Sir: I have given my boy, Freddie, 7 years old, some of Dr. Campbell's Magic Worm Sugar and Tea, and to my surprise this afternoon about 2 o'clock he passed a tapeworm measuring about 35 feet in length, head and all. I have it in a bottle and sny perme wishing to see it can do so by calling at my store. I had tried numerous other remedies recommended for taking tapeworms, but all failed. In my estimation Dr. Campbell's is the greatest worm remedy in existence.

Yours very respectfully,

TO OUR PATRONS:

Washburn-Crosby Co. wish to assure their many patrons that they will this year hold to their usual custom of milling STRICTLY OLD WHEAT until the new crop is fully cured. New wheat is now upon the market, and owing to the excessively dry weather many millers are of the opinion that it is already cured, and in proper condition for milling. Washburn-Crosby Co. will take no risks, and will allow the new wheat fully three months to mature before grinding.

This careful attention to every detail of milling has placed Washburn-Crosby Co.'s flour far above other
