of the Wyoming District Rally at Tunkhannock.

AN INTERESTING CONVENTION

Notwithstanding the Howling Tempests of March the Delegates Were Cheerful and Smiling as Roses of June. The Day's Programme.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, March 14.-A fine body of representative women of the Wyom-ing district railled to the Women's Home Missionary convention at the Methodist Epişcopal church today, de-spite a keen March wind which pierced like a stiletto. Their hearts were evi-dently in the noble cause they represent, and they were as cheerful and smiling as though the June roses were blooming instead of an icy blast coming down from the northwest that made noses red and cheeks blue. The programme was followed closely as laid down, and every feature of it was enjoyable. The greeting by Mrs. F. P. Avery and the response by Mrs. Knapp; the singing by Misses Sarah Atherton, Katie and Myrtle Vose was very favorably commented on, as also were the recitations by Misses Callie Kintner and Amanda Frey. Miss Cummings, superintendent of the industrial school at Wilkes-Barre, talked on "Deaconness' Work," and related something of her own personal experience, which was very interesting. Mrs. W. M. Hiller's paper on "Women in Home Missionary Work," Mrs. J. B. Sumner's on "Alaska," and Mrs. W. H. Penrce's "Our Work in the Conferwere all most excellent efforts, especially the latter, which received many compliments. But the crowning effort of the day was the paper by Mrs. Dr. Pearce, who has recently returned from a trip through the South. She spoke of the industrial homes for colored and poor white people, which have been established at Jacksonville, Fla. and in Texas. She said: "King Home is the only provision made by our church to furnish industrial and domestic training for the girls of the black belt' of Texas, which, within a radius of 100 miles of Marshall, contains 250,000 population. In Wiley University they are receiving intellectual ulture, while they sadly need the industrial. By association of the institutions they hope to secure the harmonious development of character which is essential to success in life. That the negro is to be the future educator of his race no unbiased mind will deny. She pictured the squarlor of the life of the colored family, and then said: 'Yet, sitting in darkness as they do, these colored mothers have a dim pro-phetic sense of light somewhere, and they send their children to our schools, hoping they may find what the mothers have not found." The society is also doing mission work in Alaska and among the Navaja Indians.

Adopted Mrs. Summer, Mrs. Pearce and Miss Cummings were committee on resolutions and presented the following. which were adopted: Resolved, That n order to more perfectly spread the knowledge of our work, we make a special effort to secure a larger circula-tion of our paper, Woman's Home Missions, which has been retained at the low price of 25 cents, with the Deaconness at Work added.

Resolved. That we tender to the lailes of Tunkhannock our thanks for the royal way in which they welcomed and entertained this convention, and to the pastor and his wife for their generous hospitality; to the young ladies who have so delightfully entertained and instructed us with their essays, songs and recitations. Resolved. That the district meetings are a great uplift to us in our work, and that we would suggest that we hold at least two meetings a year.

The officers elected were: President, Mrs. Dale; recording secretary, Mrs. Peck; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Sumner; treasurer, Mrs. Brooks.

Nine Months in Bed. Cured in 24 Hours. T. J. Blackmore, of Haller & Black-more, Pittsburg, Pa., says: "A short time since I procured a bottle of 'MYSTIC CURE.' It got me out of the house in twenty-four hours. I took to my bed with Rheumatism nine months ago and the 'MYSTIC CURE' is the only medicine that did me any good. I had five of the best physicians in the city, but I received very little relief from them. I know the 'MYSTIC CURE' to be what it is rep-resented and take pleasure in recommending it to other poor sufferers. Sold by Carl Lorenz, Druggist, 418 Lackawanna avenue, Scranton.
