Our city assessors, H. D. Internal Revenue Collector Herring was to have visited the city yesterday, but found himself unable to leave his home in Bloomsburg on account of an attack of the grip. Had he been in the city he would have received calls from many of the local Democratic statesmen. There is an earnest desire among the local leaders to know what course he proposes to pursue in relation to the unpleasantness etween Colonel Fitzsimmons and Deputy Collector Craig.

"I will give the people of this city a pla will surprise them on Monday when the 'City Government' is placed on the Academy of Music stage," said M. J. Glibride yesterday, "I know that people are skeptical and will not believe there is merit in the work of a home playwrite until it is demonstrated, but I feel that I can convince them. My play has been reviewed by competent dramatic critics and viewed by competent dramatic critics and they assure me that it has the elements of success. Acting on their advice I concluded to stage it. It will cost me over $3,000 to raise the curtain for the first performance of the 'City Govern-ment' and had I not confidence in its powers as an attraction I would certainly not have put that amount of money into

County Detective Thomas Leyshon is proving himself a most energetic and faithful official and is making it very in-teresting for those who are violating the law with impunity by selling liquor without a license. By vigorously continuing the work he has begun Mr. Leyshon will rid the county of many of the "holes-inthe-wail." The proprietors of these es-tablishments have no desire to spend three months in the county jail and if they are convinced that there is a determined, systematic attack all along the line against such violation of the law, a large percentage of the 800 unlicensed liquo dealers of the county will soon go out of business and adopt some more honorable means of gaining a livelihood, thereby be-coming a benefit rather than a curse to the community in which they reside

An Unfair Report. Editor of The Tribune

Sir: Inasmuch as the article in yester-day's issue of The Tribune referring to the work of Evangelist Schiverea in Home stead was evidently written under a misapprehension of the facts in the case permit me a wed of explanation. It was stated that as the collections were large Mr. Schiverea must have taken arge sum of money from Homestead in cturn for his services. Mr. Schiverea's work in Pennsylvania is done under direction of the Evangelist association of the state, who are responsible for all the arrangements for m ings, etc., who receive and account for all moneys raised by collection or subscrip-tion and who pay a stated sum to Mr. Schiverea and the other evangelists con-stantly at work under their direction. The association referred to is an organization of promfinent Christian business men representing every section of the state. And the treasurer and secretary of the committee is Charles L. Mr. C. W. Campbell—Dear Sir: I have given my boy, Freddia, 7 years old, some of Dr. Campbell's Magic Worm Sugar and Tea, and to my surprise this afternoon about 2 o'clock he passed a tapeworm measuring about 85 feet in length, head and all. I have it in a bottle and any person wishing to see it can do so by calling at my store. I had tried numerous other remedies recommended for taking tapeworms, but all failed. In my estimation Dr. Campbell's is the greatest worm remedy in existence.

Yours very respectfully.
