

"Emphatically at the head."

Cleveland's Baking Powder

"Pure" and "Sure."
The strength comes from cream of tartar and soda only, no ammonia, no alum. It does the most work and the best work, and, best of all, it is perfectly wholesome.

Norman & Moore
FIRE INSURANCE,
120 Wyoming Ave.

LACKAWANNA
—THE—
LAUNDRY.

WILLIAMS
AND
CARPETS

M'ANULTY
27 WYOMING AVENUE.

$5 REWARD!
So many complaints of irregular delivery have reached us, which we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught stealing The Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES.

Night and day school teachers and employees were paid yesterday.

Will Carlton, the well known lecturer, will be at the Frothingham April 9.

On a charge of being drunk and abusing his wife Michael Blewitt, a man well known about town, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 in yesterday's police court.

"Thirteenth Ward's" communication will be printed if permission shall be given to use the writer's real name. The Tribune requires this of all its correspondents.

Ground was broken in Richmond Park for a beautiful residence to be erected for H. A. Dimlich, manager of the grocery department of the Providence Ready Pay Co.

In the estate of Casper Schaf, late of Pittston avenue, letters of administration were yesterday granted by Register of Will Hopkins to Henry Schaf, a son of the decedent.

Upchurch lodge, No. 222, Ancient Order United Workmen, will hold a smoker Monday evening, March 18, at their hall, 421 Lackawanna avenue. All members are requested to be present.

"The Doctrine of Restitution and the Liquor Traffic" will be the evening subject of Rev. Dr. James McLeod's discourse at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow morning service at 10.30, evening at 7.30.

The bond of Martin O'Connor as treasurer of St. Peter's Young Men's society, of this city, was filed in the sum of $2,000 in court yesterday. John E. Roche and Miles F. Clark became his sureties.

At the Howard Place African Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow, Rev. C. A. McGee, pastor, will preach at 10.30 a. m. and 8 p. m. "The Negro Problem from a Negro Standpoint" will be the evening subject.

Persons holding tickets for the initial performance of M. J. Gilbride's "City Government" at the Academy of Music on Monday evening, may exchange the same for the regular theater tickets at the Academy box office.

At the Young Women's Christian association a health talk will be given by Dr. W. W. Ives on the popular subject, "Care and Development of Girls." Tuesday evening, March 19, at 8 o'clock. Admission free to members; non-members, 10 cents.

John G. Nicholson, of the Twenty-first ward, collector of delinquent school tax for the year 1894, filed his bond yesterday in the sum of $86.58 in favor of the Scranton school district. William Fox and Jewelina Jenkins qualified as his bondsmen.

The Young Women's Christian association ask all members of the association to come and help in the Gospel meeting Sunday at 3.45 p. m. Special music has been provided and Mrs. Deicie Gates-Browning will lead. All young women, especially strangers in the city, are invited.

At the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow, Rev. Dr. W. H. Peacor, the pastor, will preach in the morning on "The Typical Conversion," and in the evening on "The Fashioning Power of a Noble Purpose." Sunday school at 2 o'clock; Epworth league at 6.30 p. m.

Margaret Barry was released from the county jail yesterday by order of court made owing to her illness. She was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for keeping a tippling house at Archbald and upon her recovery, will be obliged to serve the remainder of her term.

Judgment notes amounting to $1,785 held by the Olyphant bank against several individuals of Olyphant were turned over by ex-cashier M. J. Stone yesterday to assignee John P. Kelly to be used as assets. Mr. Kelly immediately renewed judgment upon them in the office of Prothonotary Pryor.

James Dempsey, of the Seventh ward, is out with a challenge to wrestle any 350-pound man, give or take five pounds, at the boxing tournament of the National Athletic club in Music hall, March 22. M. J. Messitt, the champion heavy weight of northern New York, is one of the recent entries.

An evening of music and song will be given by Conrad's orchestra, assisted by Mrs. Charles Metzger, Miss Lydia Garagan, Mrs. C. C. Conrad and Mrs. J. F. Whittemore in the parlors of the Green Ridge Freshet house at Archbald on Friday evening of next week for the benefit of the Sabbath school connected with that church. C. F. Whittemore, the chorister, will be in charge of the programme.

Attorneys I. H. Burns and M. J. Donahoe will represent defendant in the injunction hearing in the case of the city against E. H. Jordan, which will be argued in court today. At the instance of City Solicitor Torrey Judge Gunster granted a preliminary injunction restraining Jordan from proceeding further with the construction of a livery stable on Cherry street on the ground that the defendant was making use of the 10-foot privilege. The writ will strike off the preliminary injunction will be argued today.

The Tribune acknowledges the receipt of "The Brownies' Revelry," a musical gem of which Miss Nellie R. Beamish, of this city, is the composer. The composition is dedicated to the little ones everywhere and is written for the piano. It is not the first realization of Miss Beamish's musical talent; she has already composed other numbers that have received high praise. Hamilton S. Gordon, of 128 Fifth avenue, New York, is the publisher.

ODD FELLOWS MEET.

They Make Arrangements to Attend Dedication in Philadelphia.

The Odd Fellows of Scranton and vicinity, or, more properly speaking, of the Second district of Lackawanna county, have for some time been actively preparing to attend the dedication of the Odd Fellows temple in Philadelphia, Tuesday, May 21.

The event will be witnessed by representatives from all the districts in Pennsylvania and by many from adjoining states, and some of the highest and best known officers of the order in the United States will participate in the event. Aside from the dedication of the building, which is the largest fraternal structure in the world, interest is added in view of the session of the grand lodge from Monday until Friday.

Grand Sire J. W. Stebbins, of Buffalo, will pass through Scranton on Monday of the coming week and will be in the city one hour. From the New York state line he will be escorted through Pennsylvania to Philadelphia by Canton, No. 4, Patriarchs Militant, of this city.

Although representations of the district lodge were held several meetings, no details for the trip have been definitely decided, beyond the fact that nearly all the lodges will go in one body and by special train. At a meeting held last night in Odd Fellows hall, on Wyoming avenue, the following delegates were present: J. W. Stebbins, G. C. Rorer and J. A. Bidleman, of this city; North End; W. Gaylord Thomas, Slocum lodge, West Side; T. J. Snowden, Green Ridge lodge; D. J. Davis and Obed Jenkins, Silurian lodge, West Side; Louis Wetzel and G. E. Millett, Robert Burns lodge; E. T. Davis, F. L. Sturdevant and E. L. Sturges, Lackawanna lodge; Charles J. Stone and Charles Simrell, James Connell lodge, South Side; J. Elderkin, Golden Chain lodge, Priceburg.

W. Gaylord Thomas is a candidate for grand ward.

MEETING OF GRAND LODGE.

Will Be Held in Wilkes-Barre Next Tuesday.

Next Tuesday the grand lodge of Loyal Knights of America will convene at Wilkes-Barre in this city. It is expected that the attendance will be very large, as important matters are to be discussed. The convention will be attended by many societies from adjoining counties.

Many amendments to the laws are pending and will be discussed at this session, but their adoption will be held over until the annual session, to be held in Plymouth next September. Among other business a general funeral benefit plan will receive consideration. The plan is a good one, placing the weak lodges on an equal footing with the stronger ones in regard to the payment of funeral benefits. A change of the ritualistic work is also expected to come up, and officers will be nominated for the coming term.—Wilkes-Barre News-Dealer.

MRS. BENJAMIN'S LECTURE.

Will Deliver an Address Under Auspices of W. C. T. U.

Mrs. A. S. Benjamin, of Portland, Mich., will deliver an address under the auspices of the Central Women's Christian Temperance union, in the lecture room of the Elm Park church, on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Benjamin succeeded Mrs. Mary L. Lathrop as president of the Women's Christian Temperance union of Michigan, and as a national officer of many years' experience is well versed in the work of temperance reform. An invitation is extended to the general public to attend. In the evening Mrs. Benjamin will lecture at the Green Ridge Presbyterian church.

WORK ON NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

The Walls Are Constructed as High as the Second Story.

Scranton's magnificent new fire proof high school building is beginning to take on an appearance of development. The side walls are now built up as high as the beginning of the third story.

Workmen are busy putting in the steel trusses which will overarch the auditorium in the center of the second story and serve as support to the ceiling.

The outline of the building such as it is at present convey an immediate impression that when finished the structure will be a credit not only to Scranton but to the northeastern part of the state, and will take front rank among splendid specimens of architecture.

The Scranton Business College.

Many new students have entered this month. Many more will come in April.

Five more tables were placed in the Business department last Tuesday.

The indications now are that the proprietors will be obliged to continue the session through the summer months.

Another prominent business house supplied with office help this week. An application for a bookkeeper came last evening.

There are more students in the shorthand department of this college than are enrolled in one of the oldest shorthand schools in the country.

Mr. L. L. Williams of Williams & Rogers, publishers of business college text books and proprietors of the Rochester Business university, paid the college a visit this week. He considers the success of this school phenomenal.

The finest line of wines, cigars, malt and other liquors in the city is at Lohmann's, Spruce street. E. Robinson's, Milwaukee and Felgenpauer's beers on draught.

SCIENCE OF MANLY ART

Two Fine Exhibitions Given at Excelsior Club Room.

GIVEN BEFORE INVITED GUESTS

John Tighe and Antony Gordon, Who Will Enter the National Tournament Next Week, Showed Their Skill—Both Are in the Pink of Condition.

In response to an invitation extended by Secretary John J. Collins, of the Excelsior Athletic club, about fifty gentlemen were present at the rooms of the club in Boston Store hall last night and were treated to two remarkable exhibitions of the art of self defense. The club decided to invite its friends and present an object lesson in boxing, in which John Tighe and Antony Gordon took part. These two belong to a 135 and 125-pound classes respectively, and in all the tournaments the club has held in this city they have never been beaten.

They have trained assiduously for three months past and are in the pink of condition to enter the national tournament of the Amateur Athletic union of the United States, which will be held next week at Allegheny City, near Pittsburgh. It was to show the public that Tighe and Gordon are in proper condition that the exhibition was given. At 8.20 Gordon gave an exhibition of punching the leather which drew applause from the spectators. After warming up he laced himself for a 3-round "go" of two minutes each with Captain P. J. Durkin, the instructor of the club. Thomas McGouldrick was timekeeper.

TO APPEAR AT COURT.

Division Among the Members of St. Joseph's—An Catholic Church.

William Yusk, of West Lackawanna Avenue, and Dominick Strages, of Hyde Park, were yesterday arraigned before Alderman Wright, the former with embezzlement, and the latter for declining to deliver up possession of certain books, the property of St. Joseph's Lithuanian Catholic church. The alderman's office was crowded with Polishers, members of the church.

Attorney J. J. Murray appeared for the prosecutor, William Antonowicz, who swore that he was the president of the society and that Yusk, as treasurer, and Strages as secretary, had been removed from their respective offices and others appointed in their stead. When the priest and himself requested that they hand over the money and books they declined to do so, hence as president of the society, he caused their arrest.

For the defense Attorney Charles Dawson stated that Yusk and Strages were willing to surrender all church property in their possession, but that they had not been approached by the proper person. His clients were elected on Jan. 1 for a term of six months each, and he argued that they had a right to continue in their offices for that period. If, however, the people did not require their services they were willing to give up the money and books to the rightful owners. Alderman Wright thought that it was a proper case to send before the grand jury and held both defendants in jail of $300. Emil Schmidt, of Rebecca avenue, qualifying as their bondsmen.

THE BALDWIN'S METHODS.

Lawrence Did Not Give a Satisfactory Explanation of Them.

Lawrence, the exposé of the methods employed by spiritualistic mediums, entertained a large audience at the Academy of Music last night.

He explained the manner in which water is changed into wine, how the spirit pipes are operated, tables made to float in the air, and after doing all the tricks usually performed in spiritualistic cabinets, he showed the manner in which the spirit is done.

Then he gave what he alleges is a complete exposure of the methods employed by the Baldwins. He said that agents who come to the city in advance serve some of the information for the Baldwins and that confederates in the audience do the rest. The deaf and dumb alphabet is used to telegraph information to the Baldwins from the auditorium to the stage. Lawrence may have the right idea with regard to a portion of the system employed by the Baldwins, but it is evident that he has not got the germ of it. His exposure was not at all satisfactory to his audience last night.

Edward Barnardo, a phenomenal young man, pianist and Mlle. Electra, who seems a veritable electrical dynamo, also assisted in the evening's entertainment.

HIS DECISION RESERVED.

Hearing in Lunch Wagon Case Before Alderman Donovan.

Before Alderman Donovan yesterday afternoon a hearing was held in the case against Aaron Goldberg and J. Burros, proprietors of the night lunch wagons, who are charged with violating a city ordinance by allowing their wagons to obstruct Lackawanna avenue.

P. J. Farrell was the complainant. Attorney O'Brien represented the accused, offered in evidence a license from the city treasurer and a permit from the street commissioner allowing Goldberg and Burros to conduct business in lunch wagons. Mr. O'Brien held that the city ordinance on which the complaint was founded does not apply to lunch wagons.

Alderman Donovan reserved his decision until Tuesday afternoon, pending which he allowed the defendants to go on their own recognizance.

DR. GIBBONS.

Of New York City, will be in his Scranton office, 47 Wyoming avenue, every Monday from 8 in the morning until 9 in the evening.

Cut glass, bric-a-brac and silverware at less than cost to reduce stock before removal to 23 Spruce street April 1.

C. W. FREEMAN.

For plumbing and electric bells telephone 224 to W. G. Doud & Co., 509 Lacka. ave.

STIRRED THINGS UP.

Runaway on Lackawanna Avenue Causes Considerable Damage.

A team of horses attached to a heavy wagon, owned by Henry Battin & Co., were frightened near the Lackawanna freight house yesterday afternoon and bolted across the yard into Lackawanna avenue, and came into collision with a buggy near the Railroad association office. The buggy, however, fared better than the mail box at the corner of Franklin avenue, which was smashed and the letters scattered broadcast over the street.

Continuing their gallop the team ran over the sidewalk near Samter Bros., forcing the heavy stepping-stone from the sidewalk. Here they collided with another buggy, the driver fortunately escaping in time to avoid a serious accident. Near the Coyne House, the team came in contact with a telegraph pole, which put an end to their lively run.

FISS JUBILEE SINGERS.

Will Give a Benefit for Y. M. C. A. Finishing and Furnishing Fund.

Those who purchase tickets for the concert to be given tonight in Young Men's Christian association hall by the Fiske Jubilee singers will not only be afforded a rich treat in hearing melody such as only voices from the sunny south can render, but they will have the consciousness that they are adding to a fund which is being raised for a noble purpose, viz, that of finishing and refurbishing the Young Men's Christian association building.

All indications point to a rush of men at educational and gymnasium classes as soon as next season opens, and the fact that the membership of the association is now 1171 against 750 last March, shows that the present equipment is utterly inadequate to the demands made upon it.

MRS. HENDRICK'S FUNERAL.

Interment Will Be Made Today at Carbondale.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. E. R. Hendrick, of Carbondale, will be held this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock at the residence on Lincoln avenue, and will be conducted by Rev. T. E. Jepson, pastor of the Berean Baptist church, in that city.

Interment will take place in Maplewood cemetery at 4 o'clock, and will be private. The following gentlemen will act as honorary pall-bearers: Bryce R. Blair, C. E. Rettew, S. S. Jones, William Bowers, Thomas Orchard, Nicholas Moon, Pierce Butler, P. S. Joslin. The acting pall-bearers will be lifelong employees of the Hendrick store, as follows: Lee Vail, James Whitfield, Henry Krantz, DeRoy M. Schoonover, Walter Lehmetz and Frank Orchard.

LUCKY HUGH HOWELL.

He Made a Substantial Impression on Mrs. McFera, of Omaha.

A search is being made by John H. McFera, of Omaha, Neb., for a Hugh Howell, supposed to be living in this

POVERTY AND ITS RELIEF

Poor Directors Considered a Large Number of Cases Yesterday.

A MIXTURE OF OCCUPANTS

Director Gibbons Reports a Revolting Case from the South Side—Sad Case of Miss Mary L. Wesser—Superintendent Beemer Thanked.

A regular meeting of the poor board was held yesterday afternoon and a number of cases of destitution relieved. The father of Mary Louisa Wesser, of Kouring Brook, appeared before the board and requested that his daughter, who is insane, be sent to the Hillside Home. He offered to pay $4 per week toward her maintenance. Miss Wesser appeared to be about 20 years of age and was a well built and healthy looking girl, and it was reported that her insanity had developed after an attack of measles two months ago.

Director Gibbons referred to the dilatory manner in which the outstanding amounts due to the board were being collected, and requested the secretary to consult with Attorney Scrago to insure a more expeditious method of gathering in the arrears. In one case, alone, the amount was $400.

Among the cases brought before the board Mrs. Gannon, of Palm street, and Mrs. Dalley, of Seventh street, were offered a place each at the Hillside Home. Mrs. Antonia Sarchia, of 222 Fifth avenue, who has a crippled husband and six children, was found to be chargeable to the Peckville district, and instructions were given to remove the family to that district.

The Chickens Must Go.

Mrs. Juliana Sturka appeared before the board, and as she could not speak English, Director Gibbons gallantly acted as her spokesman. He explained that she lived on Motke avenue, and that nine chickens and one rooster occupied the rooms in the upper part of the house, while Mrs. Sturka, her mother, a weak minded sister and three children lived in the basement. Her husband had become tired of the company and had gone west. The family, he declared, were not fit to take care of themselves, and it was "the worst case of fifth he had seen in his travels." The board considered the matter for some time and decided that, subject to the chickens being removed, Director Gibbons give such relief as he might consider desirable.

W. H. Marsh, of 205 East Market street, asked for relief, but upon examination by Director Murphy it transpired that he had been associated with a disreputable house at Dunmore. When his application was read the board made use of abusive language toward the members, and intimated that he would request the mayor to compel them to grant him relief. Mrs. Bridget Batten, of Crown avenue, a widow with six children, was granted $4 per month for three months.

TO APPEAR AT COURT.

Division Among the Members of St. Joseph's—An Catholic Church.

William Yusk, of West Lackawanna Avenue, and Dominick Strages, of Hyde Park, were yesterday arraigned before Alderman Wright, the former with embezzlement, and the latter for declining to deliver up possession of certain books, the property of St. Joseph's Lithuanian Catholic church. The alderman's office was crowded with Polishers, members of the church.

Attorney J. J. Murray appeared for the prosecutor, William Antonowicz, who swore that he was the president of the society and that Yusk, as treasurer, and Strages as secretary, had been removed from their respective offices and others appointed in their stead. When the priest and himself requested that they hand over the money and books they declined to do so, hence as president of the society, he caused their arrest.

For the defense Attorney Charles Dawson stated that Yusk and Strages were willing to surrender all church property in their possession, but that they had not been approached by the proper person. His clients were elected on Jan. 1 for a term of six months each, and he argued that they had a right to continue in their offices for that period. If, however, the people did not require their services they were willing to give up the money and books to the rightful owners. Alderman Wright thought that it was a proper case to send before the grand jury and held both defendants in jail of $300. Emil Schmidt, of Rebecca avenue, qualifying as their bondsmen.

THE BALDWIN'S METHODS.

Lawrence Did Not Give a Satisfactory Explanation of Them.

Lawrence, the exposé of the methods employed by spiritualistic mediums, entertained a large audience at the Academy of Music last night.

He explained the manner in which water is changed into wine, how the spirit pipes are operated, tables made to float in the air, and after doing all the tricks usually performed in spiritualistic cabinets, he showed the manner in which the spirit is done.

Then he gave what he alleges is a complete exposure of the methods employed by the Baldwins. He said that agents who come to the city in advance serve some of the information for the Baldwins and that confederates in the audience do the rest. The deaf and dumb alphabet is used to telegraph information to the Baldwins from the auditorium to the stage. Lawrence may have the right idea with regard to a portion of the system employed by the Baldwins, but it is evident that he has not got the germ of it. His exposure was not at all satisfactory to his audience last night.

Edward Barnardo, a phenomenal young man, pianist and Mlle. Electra, who seems a veritable electrical dynamo, also assisted in the evening's entertainment.

HIS DECISION RESERVED.

Hearing in Lunch Wagon Case Before Alderman Donovan.

Before Alderman Donovan yesterday afternoon a hearing was held in the case against Aaron Goldberg and J. Burros, proprietors of the night lunch wagons, who are charged with violating a city ordinance by allowing their wagons to obstruct Lackawanna avenue.

P. J. Farrell was the complainant. Attorney O'Brien represented the accused, offered in evidence a license from the city treasurer and a permit from the street commissioner allowing Goldberg and Burros to conduct business in lunch wagons. Mr. O'Brien held that the city ordinance on which the complaint was founded does not apply to lunch wagons.

Alderman Donovan reserved his decision until Tuesday afternoon, pending which he allowed the defendants to go on their own recognizance.

DR. GIBBONS.

Of New York City, will be in his Scranton office, 47 Wyoming avenue, every Monday from 8 in the morning until 9 in the evening.

Cut glass, bric-a-brac and silverware at less than cost to reduce stock before removal to 23 Spruce street April 1.

C. W. FREEMAN.

For plumbing and electric bells telephone 224 to W. G. Doud & Co., 509 Lacka. ave.

STIRRED THINGS UP.

Runaway on Lackawanna Avenue Causes Considerable Damage.

A team of horses attached to a heavy wagon, owned by Henry Battin & Co., were frightened near the Lackawanna freight house yesterday afternoon and bolted across the yard into Lackawanna avenue, and came into collision with a buggy near the Railroad association office. The buggy, however, fared better than the mail box at the corner of Franklin avenue, which was smashed and the letters scattered broadcast over the street.

Continuing their gallop the team ran over the sidewalk near Samter Bros., forcing the heavy stepping-stone from the sidewalk. Here they collided with another buggy, the driver fortunately escaping in time to avoid a serious accident. Near the Coyne House, the team came in contact with a telegraph pole, which put an end to their lively run.

FISS JUBILEE SINGERS.

Will Give a Benefit for Y. M. C. A. Finishing and Furnishing Fund.

Those who purchase tickets for the concert to be given tonight in Young Men's Christian association hall by the Fiske Jubilee singers will not only be afforded a rich treat in hearing melody such as only voices from the sunny south can render, but they will have the consciousness that they are adding to a fund which is being raised for a noble purpose, viz, that of finishing and refurbishing the Young Men's Christian association building.

All indications point to a rush of men at educational and gymnasium classes as soon as next season opens, and the fact that the membership of the association is now 1171 against 750 last March, shows that the present equipment is utterly inadequate to the demands made upon it.

MRS. HENDRICK'S FUNERAL.

Interment Will Be Made Today at Carbondale.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. E. R. Hendrick, of Carbondale, will be held this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock at the residence on Lincoln avenue, and will be conducted by Rev. T. E. Jepson, pastor of the Berean Baptist church, in that city.

Interment will take place in Maplewood cemetery at 4 o'clock, and will be private. The following gentlemen will act as honorary pall-bearers: Bryce R. Blair, C. E. Rettew, S. S. Jones, William Bowers, Thomas Orchard, Nicholas Moon, Pierce Butler, P. S. Joslin. The acting pall-bearers will be lifelong employees of the Hendrick store, as follows: Lee Vail, James Whitfield, Henry Krantz, DeRoy M. Schoonover, Walter Lehmetz and Frank Orchard.

LUCKY HUGH HOWELL.

He Made a Substantial Impression on Mrs. McFera, of Omaha.

A search is being made by John H. McFera, of Omaha, Neb., for a Hugh Howell, supposed to be living in this

POVERTY AND ITS RELIEF

Poor Directors Considered a Large Number of Cases Yesterday.

A MIXTURE OF OCCUPANTS

Director Gibbons Reports a Revolting Case from the South Side—Sad Case of Miss Mary L. Wesser—Superintendent Beemer Thanked.

A regular meeting of the poor board was held yesterday afternoon and a number of cases of destitution relieved. The father of Mary Louisa Wesser, of Kouring Brook, appeared before the board and requested that his daughter, who is insane, be sent to the Hillside Home. He offered to pay $4 per week toward her maintenance. Miss Wesser appeared to be about 20 years of age and was a well built and healthy looking girl, and it was reported that her insanity had developed after an attack of measles two months ago.

Director Gibbons referred to the dilatory manner in which the outstanding amounts due to the board were being collected, and requested the secretary to consult with Attorney Scrago to insure a more expeditious method of gathering in the arrears. In one case, alone, the amount was $400.

Among the cases brought before the board Mrs. Gannon, of Palm street, and Mrs. Dalley, of Seventh street, were offered a place each at the Hillside Home. Mrs. Antonia Sarchia, of 222 Fifth avenue, who has a crippled husband and six children, was found to be chargeable to the Peckville district, and instructions were given to remove the family to that district.

The Chickens Must Go.

Mrs. Juliana Sturka appeared before the board, and as she could not speak English, Director Gibbons gallantly acted as her spokesman. He explained that she lived on Motke avenue, and that nine chickens and one rooster occupied the rooms in the upper part of the house, while Mrs. Sturka, her mother, a weak minded sister and three children lived in the basement. Her husband had become tired of the company and had gone west. The family, he declared, were not fit to take care of themselves, and it was "the worst case of fifth he had seen in his travels." The board considered the matter for some time and decided that, subject to the chickens being removed, Director Gibbons give such relief as he might consider desirable.

W. H. Marsh, of 205 East Market street, asked for relief, but upon examination by Director Murphy it transpired that he had been associated with a disreputable house at Dunmore. When his application was read the board made use of abusive language toward the members, and intimated that he would request the mayor to compel them to grant him relief. Mrs. Bridget Batten, of Crown avenue, a widow with six children, was granted $4 per month for three months.

TO APPEAR AT COURT.

Division Among the Members of St. Joseph's—An Catholic Church.

William Yusk, of West Lackawanna Avenue, and Dominick Strages, of Hyde Park, were yesterday arraigned before Alderman Wright, the former with embezzlement, and the latter for declining to deliver up possession of certain books, the property of St. Joseph's Lithuanian Catholic church. The alderman's office was crowded with Polishers, members of the church.

Attorney J. J. Murray appeared for the prosecutor, William Antonowicz, who swore that he was the president of the society and that Yusk, as treasurer, and Strages as secretary, had been removed from their respective offices and others appointed in their stead. When the priest and himself requested that they hand over the money and books they declined to do so, hence as president of the society, he caused their arrest.

For the defense Attorney Charles Dawson stated that Yusk and Strages were willing to surrender all church property in their possession, but that they had not been approached by the proper person. His clients were elected on Jan. 1 for a term of six months each, and he argued that they had a right to continue in their offices for that period. If, however, the people did not require their services they were willing to give up the money and books to the rightful owners. Alderman Wright thought that it was a proper case to send before the grand jury and held both defendants in jail of $300. Emil Schmidt, of Rebecca avenue, qualifying as their bondsmen.

THE BALDWIN'S METHODS.

Lawrence Did Not Give a Satisfactory Explanation of Them.

Lawrence, the exposé of the methods employed by spiritualistic mediums, entertained a large audience at the Academy of Music last night.

He explained the manner in which water is changed into wine, how the spirit pipes are operated, tables made to float in the air, and after doing all the tricks usually performed in spiritualistic cabinets, he showed the manner in which the spirit is done.

Then he gave what he alleges is a complete exposure of the methods employed by the Baldwins. He said that agents who come to the city in advance serve some of the information for the Baldwins and that confederates in the audience do the rest. The deaf and dumb alphabet is used to telegraph information to the Baldwins from the auditorium to the stage. Lawrence may have the right idea with regard to a portion of the system employed by the Baldwins, but it is evident that he has not got the germ of it. His exposure was not at all satisfactory to his audience last night.

Edward Barnardo, a phenomenal young man, pianist and Mlle. Electra, who seems a veritable electrical dynamo, also assisted in the evening's entertainment.

HIS DECISION RESERVED.

Hearing in Lunch Wagon Case Before Alderman Donovan.

Before Alderman Donovan yesterday afternoon a hearing was held in the case against Aaron Goldberg and J. Burros, proprietors of the night lunch wagons, who are charged with violating a city ordinance by allowing their wagons to obstruct Lackawanna avenue.

P. J. Farrell was the complainant. Attorney O'Brien represented the accused, offered in evidence a license from the city treasurer and a permit from the street commissioner allowing Goldberg and Burros to conduct business in lunch wagons. Mr. O'Brien held that the city ordinance on which the complaint was founded does not apply to lunch wagons.

Alderman Donovan reserved his decision until Tuesday afternoon, pending which he allowed the defendants to go on their own recognizance.

DR. GIBBONS.

Of New York City, will be in his Scranton office, 47 Wyoming avenue, every Monday from 8 in the morning until 9 in the evening.

Cut glass, bric-a-brac and silverware at less than cost to reduce stock before removal to 23 Spruce street April 1.

C. W. FREEMAN.

For plumbing and electric bells telephone 224 to W. G. Doud & Co., 509 Lacka. ave.

STIRRED THINGS UP.

Runaway on Lackawanna Avenue Causes Considerable Damage.

A team of horses attached to a heavy wagon, owned by Henry Battin & Co., were frightened near the Lackawanna freight house yesterday afternoon and bolted across the yard into Lackawanna avenue, and came into collision with a buggy near the Railroad association office. The buggy, however, fared better than the mail box at the corner of Franklin avenue, which was smashed and the letters scattered broadcast over the street.

Continuing their gallop the team ran over the sidewalk near Samter Bros., forcing the heavy stepping-stone from the sidewalk. Here they collided with another buggy, the driver fortunately escaping in time to avoid a serious accident. Near the Coyne House, the team came in contact with a telegraph pole, which put an end to their lively run.

FISS JUBILEE SINGERS.

Will Give a Benefit for Y. M. C. A. Finishing and Furnishing Fund.

Those who purchase tickets for the concert to be given tonight in Young Men's Christian association hall by the Fiske Jubilee singers will not only be afforded a rich treat in hearing melody such as only voices from the sunny south can render, but they will have the consciousness that they are adding to a fund which is being raised for a noble purpose, viz, that of finishing and refurbishing the Young Men's Christian association building.

All indications point to a rush of men at educational and gymnasium classes as soon as next season opens, and the fact that the membership of the association is now 1171 against 750 last March, shows that the present equipment is utterly inadequate to the demands made upon it.

MRS. HENDRICK'S FUNERAL.

Interment Will Be Made Today at Carbondale.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. E. R. Hendrick, of Carbondale, will be held this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock at the residence on Lincoln avenue, and will be conducted by Rev. T. E. Jepson, pastor of the Berean Baptist church, in that city.

Interment will take place in Maplewood cemetery at 4 o'clock, and will be private. The following gentlemen will act as honorary pall-bearers: Bryce R. Blair, C. E. Rettew, S. S. Jones, William Bowers, Thomas Orchard, Nicholas Moon, Pierce Butler, P. S. Joslin. The acting pall-bearers will be lifelong employees of the Hendrick store, as follows: Lee Vail, James Whitfield, Henry Krantz, DeRoy M. Schoonover, Walter Lehmetz and Frank Orchard.

LUCKY HUGH HOWELL.

He Made a Substantial Impression on Mrs. McFera, of Omaha.

A search is being made by John H. McFera, of Omaha, Neb., for a Hugh Howell, supposed to be living in this production of the year. In New York its success was spontaneous and surpassed the expectations of even the most sanguine. Scrantonians are going to have a chance to see this brilliant attraction at the Frothingham on April 4, 5 and 6. The company will be brought here direct from New York City by a special Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train, and the production will be the same in every respect identical with the New York one.

NORTON ENTERED BAIL.

He Is Charged with Snatching a Pocket Book.

John Norton was arraigned before Alderman Wright yesterday charged with having snatched a pocket book containing a sum of money from a young lady at Carbondale a few days ago.

He entered bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance at court, Patrick Jordan becoming his bondsman.

Special Prices to close out our sheet music and small musical instruments. J. L. STILLE, 124 Wyoming avenue.

The Jolly Four Dancing Class will dance in Boston Store hall, 52 Lackawanna avenue, Saturday night, March 16. Admission 25 cents.

Are you paying too much for plumbing? Our telephone is 224. Try us. W. G. Doud & Co., 509 Lacka. ave.

THINK OF IT

You can get any of the following full size, large 5¢ AT WOOLWORTH'S

David Copperfield, Last of the Mohicans, Salmagundi, The Eye of Hercules, Peter's Soul, Through Green Glasses, The Essays of Eliza A. Lucky Young Woman, The Hunter, Only a Woman's Heart, A Woman's Vengeance, Married at Sea, A Crimson Stain, Fashionable Sins, Love's Young Dream, Two Generations, A Summer Campaign, The Danvers Jewels, Nine of Hearts, A Life's Debt, The Moment After, The Gambler, A Prodigal Daughter, The Arab Girl, Tempted Spirits, Fortunes, In Cupid's Toils, The Joys of Life, Miss or Mrs., The Way to the Heart, May and June, Theresa Raquin, Love's Martyr, The Earl's Error, Dog's Fortune, A Nemesis, Tour of the World in 80 Days, A Fast Existence, Miled, a society novel; Running