BUCKNELL NOTES.

Owing to the increased attendance a new teacher will be added to the Academy next year.
Dr. H. L. Wayland gave some very interesting lectures in Bucknell hall on Tuesday. His three lectures given during the day were upon the subject of ecology. In the evening a large audience listened to his famous lecture, "Dr. Debes in the Antipodes."
The annual exhibition in gymnastics will be given in the Yustin gymnasium on Saturday, March 16. The first game of basketball will be played with a team from Danville.

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

STROUDSBURG.

Mrs. N. T. Miller, the wife of a prominent physician of Stroudsburg, was given a surprise by her lady friends of the neighborhood, who invaded the house. The ladies brought lunch with them and soon had an abundant spread for the large party present. The following were included in the party:
Mrs. Thomas F. Kane, Mrs. James Boone, Mrs. William Reimer, Mrs.
Arthur Staples, Mrs. Wilson Fisher, Mrs. Edward Baltz, Mrs. Arlington De Young, Mrs. Peter Kunkle, Mrs. Charles Albert, Mrs. Samuel Lee, Mrs. Reeve Bush, Mrs. Henry Drake, Mrs. Amzi Hoffman, Mrs. Lewis Myers, Mrs.
George Baltz, Mrs. Simon Meisell, Mrs. Jacob Kintz, Mrs. Charles Turn, Mrs. William Ramsey, Mrs. William Decker, and the Misses Allie Edinger, Lucy Smith, Laura Staples, Lizzie Lee and Katie Bossard.

Eugene Kinsley, of McMichael's, was arrested and lodged in the county jail by Tax Collector J. F. Rinker, of Jackson, for the non-payment of taxes amounting to $174. The young man is 22 years old and has been out of work for the past six months, but as there are a number of other delinquents this will serve as an example to others.

The Afro-American Record, a new journal edited by J. L. S. Huff, a colored man well known in the two boroughs, will be issued and before the public in a few days. The sheet will be published in this borough.

The photographic gallery and other effects of Louis Downsop, the late general secretary of the Young Men's Christian association of this borough, has been leveled on and sold by Constable Myers for the benefit of his creditors.

Thomas Hohenshilt, of Cherry Valley, has moved to this place, occupying a residence on Washington street.

Mrs. Vincent Loder is visiting friends and relatives in Philadelphia.

J. L. Thomas, of the Metropolitan Life insurance company, will shortly move from his residence on Green street to the residence occupied by George Hughes, of the Stroudsburg Times. Mr. Hughes will occupy Dr.
Nathan Miller's commodious residence on Pocono street.

Social clubs are in vogue and another has been started in East Stroudsburg called the "Crescent Social club" with colors, purple and white. The following members compose the club: The Misses Belle Hill, Myrtle Yetter, Irene Kistler, Mamie Dunn, Ella Mutchler, Rosa Burnett, Florence Burr, Emma Michaels, Louise Hoffman, Adia Du-mar, Clara Bush, Millie Edinger and Messrs. Thomas Dunn, Roe Shotwell, Jacob Hill, Charles Mutchler, Norman Herrington, William Gish, W. Kintz and George Robinson.

A lodge of the Red Men will be started in East Stroudsburg in the near future. Over sixty names have been placed on roll and a charter has been applied for.

Mrs. Horace Bush is visiting friends in Philadelphia for a few days.

Manager Shotwell, of the Academy of Music, has made several important additions to his place, including a new drop curtain with a number of advertisers from both boroughs thereon, surrounding a wood and water scene. It is very original and tasty and was greatly admired on Thursday evening, when presented to the gaze of the large audience present at the play entitled "Lead Astray," by the Clair Pattee company. Electric lights have also been added and other improvements, which make the interior look like a new place.

A concert will be given in the Academy of Music in a short time, one of the directors of the Normal, assisted by the Normal Choral society and orchestra.

Mr. Bachman, of the Normal, is out again after a severe struggle with the grip.

Bert Davis has returned from Binghamton, where he has been attending a business college, on account of a re-lapse of the grip. Mr. Davis was home for several weeks and had returned only a few days ago and had been at college only one day when he was compelled to return to his home.

The Clover Leaf Social club will hold a neekie social on Tuesday evening next at the residence of Miss Florence Savacool, on Green street. All members are requested to be present.

Grant Lantz, the well known creameryman, has purchased a fine team of black ponies from E. J. Swartz, the liquor merchant.

Captain R. L. Singleton, of the Salvation Army, of Scranton, was in town this week trying to organize a corps in this place.

Charles Penner, a fireman on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, was quickly mangled on Wednesday at Miss Lizzie Smith, of Moccasin Home. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Veenschoten at the Presbyterian parsonage in East Stroudsburg.

Morton Decker has returned from a trip to New York city on business.

E. W. Savacool is confined to his home with a severe attack of sickness.

CARBONDALE.

At 10 o'clock Friday night Frederick Pearce died at his home on Dickson Hill after a several months of suffering. Deceased was 31 years of age.
Funeral will be held this morning (Monday). Services will be conducted at 10 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Honesdale on the 11 a. m. train for Interment.

Miss Blanche Kelley, of Binghamton, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gillies.

Mrs. William A. Kelley, of Onondaga, N. Y., is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. A. S. Lowrey will leave this afternoon for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wilcox, of Nineveh, N. Y.

Mrs. A. J. Riebine, of Honesdale, was a Carbondale visitor Saturday.

It is said that the proposed Novelty works is an assured enterprise for Carbondale.

George Evans, of Wayne street, called on friends in Scranton on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William McMullin, of Delhi, N. Y., are visiting in this city.

On Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock occurred the funeral of the late Mrs.
E. E. Hendrick. Services were conducted at the residence on Lincoln avenue. Among the out-of-town mourners were Miss Eva Grow, of Waterford, Mich.; DeWitt Wheeler, of Dryden, N.

Y.; and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Blood, of Toskoka, Kan. Others from out of town in attendance were Mr. and Mrs.
Nathaniel Hallstead, of Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Rivenburg and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Vetterly, of Clifford; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Tracy, of Richmond Hill Farm; Mrs. G. L. Dickson, J. C. Penman, Professor E. E. Southworth, of Scranton. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Rev.
Jepson took for his text, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth, yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." Rev. xlv.
12. Music was rendered by a quartette composed of Mrs. Stillman Haddock, Miss May Biss, Messrs. W. D. Evans and B. R. Hall. The selections rendered were "Rock of Ages" and "Good Night." Interment was made in Maplewood cemetery at 4 o'clock.

TUNKHANNOCK.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah S. Wood, aged 54 years, will occur at the home of her brother, George, about a half mile west of town, today. Her home is in Philadelphia, and she had been troubled with nervous disorder for a long time. She came here, after being given up by the city doctors, in the hope that the change would be beneficial, but only lived three or four months. Rev. George Hine, of the Baptist church, will officiate at the funeral services.

L. Whitecock, the Eatonville, merchant, is still confined to the house with rheumatism.

Yesterday was the thirtieth anniversary of the great flood of 1865, when all the lower portion of town was in the swim.

Day Hunter, of Lemon, is down in North Carolina, engaged in landscape photography.

The board of health and school board held a joint meeting at R. E. Billings's office Saturday night, at which Drs.
Bibleman and Hill were invited to be present, to consider the advisability of closing the school on account of diphtheria. There is but little of the disease around perhaps not a single case of actual diphtheria at present—but several children are suffering with sore throat, and it is deemed necessary to take every precaution.

The new township amputated from Monroe is to be called Noxen, and the little village of Noxen, up on Bowman's creek, will doubtless be the "county seat." Monroe has long been considered as a sort of pivotal township in county elections, and people were wont to remark "as goes Monroe, so goes the county." It will no longer enjoy that distinction.

A new ferry boat is to be constructed at Falls in place of the one carried off by the ice.

B. W. Farnham, a former resident here, has rented his farm, near Hop-bottom, and gone to South Montrose, where he will be employed by Dr. E.
P. Butterfield. He and his family were here over Sunday.

The two carrier pigeons which Bag-gagemaster G. M. Beckman had confined here, and which belonged to Cori-Colvin, a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western engineer, at 425 Deacon street, Scranton, were released at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. One bore a message from the New Age office, as follows: "The New Age sends greeting by these winged messengers, and would be pleased to hear of their safe arrival, stating time." The other message was from Mrs. Heckman, and simply said, "Left Tunkhannock at 10—Kate."

After being released, the birds circled about for nearly fifteen minutes and then disappeared.

An award in the arbitration case of R. L. Whiteman vs. H. D. DeLong was filed on Saturday and was in favor of the plaintiff, W. E. Carpenter, C. A.
Little and T. B. Grenville were the arbiters.

The Methodist came out in a new dress Saturday and with profuse illustrations.

Arthur Squire, of Scranton, is spending the week with her mother-in-law, Mrs. G. R. Cornell.

The pilot of this department desires to thank Hon. E. J. Jordan for generous packages of seeds of various kinds.
Now, if he will send along a spade, hoe, rattle, patch of ground and some fertilizer we think we might enjoy some ground truth before the season is over.

Rev. S. W. Weiss filled the Presbyterian pulpit yesterday.

Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Pascoe, of Men-haden, were guest at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage Saturday.

Byron Kelley has purchased the Pearl house on Centre street, square, now occupied by Hon. George W. Cooke.

Why continue to pass your nights in scratching and your days in misery?
Don't's Ointment affords instant relief, and permanently cures even the worst cases of Itching Piles. It never fails.

HONESDALE.

The body of Mrs. Catherine Frey, formerly Catherine Kaufman, of Honesdale, who died in Philadelphia Friday of pneumonia, was brought to Honesdale Saturday morning at 10:30.
Interment was made in the German Catholic cemetery. Rev. William H.
Dassel having charge of the services.

J. H. Fisher, of Scranton, and N. R.
Swingle, of Dunmore, were at the Allen house Saturday.

Rev. E. H. Eckel, of West Pittston, preached in Grace church Friday evening.

The funeral of the late Thomas Welch will be held from his home on Dyberry avenue, Monday at 4 p. m.

The local jubilee singers entertained a large number of people at the Presbyterian chapel Friday night. The audience were greatly delighted with the high class of singing of these celebrated musicians. Three of the original troupe are still with the company. They left Honesdale for Scranton Saturday morning.

DUNMORE.

The funeral of Miss Mary A. Bingham will be held at Mawley today.
The funeral party will leave on the 3:45 train on the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad.

Dunmore friends of our former pastor, Rev. William Edgar, are sorry to learn that his daughter, Emily, is suffering from diphtheria, which is very prevalent in Carbondale.

Mrs. Melton, of Pittston, spent last week visiting Dunmore friends.

Mrs. F. E. Merriman is ill at her home on Elm street.

Miss Susan Lowery, who has been visiting friends in town for the past month, has returned home, to Eldkade.

Mrs. Lynch has returned to her home in Albany, N. Y., after spending several weeks visiting friends in town.

The three Ancient Order of Hibernian divisions of this town will be represented in the St. Patrick's Day parade in Carbondale today.

John Murphy, of Olyphant, is circulating among Dunmore friends.

Michael Ruane, of Pine street, is dangerously ill.

The music social held at the home of Dan Powell last Friday evening was one of the merriest and most interesting socials held for a long time. Over 100 were in attendance and only ten of those present kept mum until 10:30, the appointed hour when all could speak.

An interesting programme was reserved, after which light refreshments were served. The proceeds netted over $20.

E. E. Tutthill, of Scranton, will remove to this town in a few weeks.

A. B. Oliver will occupy the Potter homestead, corner of Potter and Green Hill streets, the coming summer.

The Dominicans will commence a mission at St. Mary's church next Sunday, which will last for two weeks. The first week will be for the women, and the second for men. The Dominican fathers have never visited Dunmore before. They are eloquent speakers and will no doubt make a favorable impression here.

Burt Ayers, a former resident of this place, is visiting friends in town.

The prohibition club will meet this evening at Loyal Legion hall. A full attendance of members is desired.

The Indian village fair was largely attended Saturday evening, it being masked party night. The colored quartette from Scranton entertained the audience. Tonight will be moon dance night. Fine entertainment will be provided and a large number of fancy articles will be changed off. The committees in charge will spare no pains to make every evening interesting and assure all who attend more than the worth of their money charged for admission. Season tickets, 50 cents, good for a chance on 10 in gold.

Superintendent J. E. Williams is ill of grip at his home, in North Park.

The Loyal Legion will hold an entertainment at their hall Wednesday evening.

Loyal Legion hall was crowded Saturday evening. L. W. Dillon, the speaker of the evening, gave a very interesting address, his subject being "The Fruits of the Wine Cup from the Cradle to the Grave." He held his audience spell-bound with his eloquent description of the ruin wrought by drink.
Mr. Dillon is a very forcible and interesting speaker and is one of the Leg-ion's most earnest members.

LAFAYETTE COLLEGE.

The "Lafayette" for the ensuing year will be under the management of Edward L. Kennedy, editor-in-chief; Ellis H. Custard, assistant editor-in-chief, and Chauncey Labingier, business manager.

A press club was recently organized by these officers, president, E. P. H.
Pfaffelicher '95; secretary and treasurer, G. B. Milnor '97; executive committee, C. O. Troll, '96, A. L. Johnson, '96, and E. H. Custard, '96.

The base ball nine will open the season with the University of North Carolina, with games on April 1, 2, and 3, at Raleigh, Chapel Hill, and Greensboro. Three games will be played with Lehigh, April 27, May 4 and 5.

The Philadelphia Alumni held their annual banquet at the Continental on last Thursday. The college was represented by President E. D. Warfield, Treasurer S. L. Fisher, Professor W. B.
Owen and Professor Edward Hart. Cyrus E. Woods was toastmaster. The toast, "Lafayette of the Present," was responded to by Dr. Warfield. Professor Owen responded to the toast
"The Ladies."

Dr. Selden J. Coffin delivered a lecture on the "Life and Times of Sir Isaac Newton," before the Chautauqua League, at Bethlehem, N. J., last week.

The will of Howard W. Gilbert, of Waxmest, Chester county, this state, contains a bequest of $1,000 for this college.

The Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C., have issued a one hundred-page book containing the rules for reformed spelling, and a vocabulary of the words whose spelling will be changed. Dr. Francis A. Marsh, L. L. D., L. H. D., is the author.

The Juniors in both the literary societies will hold their preliminary oratorical contest the first week of the next term.

The Glee and Banjo clubs will make an extended tour of the state this spring vacation. The first concert will be at Wilkes-Barre on the 20th inst.

College will close March 20 for two weeks' vacation.

The college lost a good friend by the death of Rev. Harvey Shaw, '79. It was mainly through his efforts that his class presented the chapel bell to the college. For many years he was a missionary in Mexico, where he was seriously injured by bandits. At the time of his death he was pastor of a church in Bethany, Wayne county.

Rests the Tired Brain

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gives Nerve Strength and Bodily Health

Hood's Pills are "Much in Little."

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills for many years and consider them the best on the market. Hood's Sarsaparilla has given me health and strength from time to time when tired and and the worry of business. It has purified my blood, toned my nerves, and rested my tired brain by restoring sleep and invigorating my entire system. Hood's Vegetable Pills are much in little. I use no others. They invigorate the liver to healthy action, act gently on the bowels,

Hood's Sarsa-
