TALES OF TWO PHISTONS

Elopement of Miss Nichols and William Pay, Alias Brewster.

ST.PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATED

Fine Appearance Made by the Various Societies Upon Parade-Short Paragraphs Concerning Prominent

Residents of the Valley. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, March 18 .- St. Patrick's Day was celebrated in this city with the usual demonstrations. The golden orb had scarcely shown itself above the eastern hills before the patriotic sons of Erin began to assemble to participate in the early morning parade. The marshals were early engaged in arranging the position of the various organizaparade At least 1 500 man were in line as the parade moved from Broad street at 9 o'clock. The uniforms and carriage of the several organizations excited considerable favorable comment, especially that of officers of Division 3, Ancient Order of Hibernians, who were distinguished from the other divisions

Sensational Elopement.

George B. Dendle, of 25 Johnson street, appeared before Justice Ehret last evening and procured warrants for Nichols, and William F. Fay, alias Frank Brewster. The information stated that the above mentioned did feloni-ously steal and take away from the informant one watch and chain and also bank bills and gold to the amount of

The officers in whose hands the warrants were placed learned that the couple had driven to Wilkes-Barre last evening, from which point they had purchased tickets to New York city over the Lehigh Valley road, and had

In response to telegrams from the Wilkes-Barre police, officers at Bethle-hem boarded the train upon its arrival to his work at Ludwig's drug store afin that city and arrested the eloping couple. Officer Brown, of this city, went to Bethlehem on an early morning train and brought Miss Nichols and Fay back to Pittston this afternoon,

Fay, or Brewster, and Miss Nichols were given a hearing before Justice Ehret upon their arrival in the city. Fay was held to bail in the sum of $800 for an appearance at April court, in default of which he was placed in the city lockup for safe keeping until tomorrow morning, when he will be taken to the county jail, unless a bondsman appears. Miss Nichols was held in the sum of $200, her uncle, Mr. Dendle, the prosecutor, becoming her security.

Fay, or Brewster, came to this city from Dunmore about seven months ago. He has stayed at the Valley house, and has had no visible means of support. When arrested he would on Sunday. The fact that there was a slightly better demand from outside sources for all classes of stocks added to the nervousness prevailing in bearish circles. In addition the market received better support from London. The announcement that the presidents of the anthracile coal roads had at last agreed to meet in conference to act on the tonnage question also had a stimulating influence. The Reading, it is understood, has modified its demands. A feature of the trading was the increased activity in the low priced issues, especially in bituminous coalers. These issues scored gains of ½ to 2% per cent. The improvement in the higher priced issues ranged from ½ to 3% per cent. Jersey Central leading.
