LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

(Under this heading short letters of in-terest will be published when accompa-nied, for publication, by the writer's amme. The Tribune will not be held re-sponsible for opinions here expressed.)

Against the Jury System.

Editor of The Tribune. Sir: In your editorial of March 10 in re Sir: In your editorial of March 10 in re-lation to capital punkhment, you ask me "What are you going to do about it?" When a marz is going to build a nouse he goes to an architect, not to a tuilor; when he wants a pair of shoes he goes to a shoemaker not to a clearmaker; still, when we are endure to wants he solution. a shoemaker not to a clearmaker; util, when we are going to punch a criminal we get a selection of men who may be proficient in any other line of occupation except law, and as if to excuse the lack of skill, we call them "an intelligent jury." Utilon of its kind in the world. If the principles and good works of the association are approved by you, the question "What is your approval worth" is suggested. In other world, worth " is suggested. In other world, world " is suggested. In other world."

of skill, we call them "an intelligent jury," twelve good and true, etc. Then we get several skilful lawyers to conduct the case and incidentally mubble up what definite views some of the jury may have had and then tell them "not Rentlemen, you are in proper condition to decide this case." Usually the instruc-tions of the judge form the main guide which the jurg follow and decide the case in accordance with the instructions.

In accordance with the instructions. The jury system is antiquated and be-longs to an age when each man was his own lawyer, preacher, carpenter, show-maker and tailor, but not to this day when division of labor is pre-eminent. Great crimes should be judged by a jury of the highest legal talent paid by the state at a given amount per day, to have no other work for the time being, but decision of the case in hand, decision to be at a three-fourths or four-fifths majority. This would stop all legal and emotional gymnastics now in yogue by erfminal gymnastics now in vogue by criminal lawyers, as their colleagues could not be imposed upon so readily as laymen. James Jackson.

Say the Statements Were False.

Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Articles have appeared in nearly all the daily papers purporting to set forth the state of affairs relating to the use of the Bible in the public schools in Waverly borough. The real facts of the case will appear at the time of hearing in court on Saturday morning, but we desire to state that the statements there made are false in nearly every particular. We do not know the sources of information, but so far as can be ascertained, the reporters who visited Waverly on Tuesday con-ferred only with Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Vall on the subject. There is no antagon-ism between the teacher, Mr. Hanyen, and the school board of Waverly borough. Mr. Hanyen is carrying out the instruc-tions of the board as per resolutions of the board passed by vote of four to two, authorizing him to use his own discretion in the matter.

Large audiences gathered at the Frothingham yesterday afternoon and evening to witness the plays produced by the Metropolitan Comedy company. In the afternoon "Fanchon, the Crickett," was produced, and in the evening "Lost in London." Both were received with much
