

WAR ON THE SPEAK EASIES

Judge Gunster Says Court Will Find Some Way to Stop Illegal Traffic.

COUNTY CONSTABLES SCORED

In Discharging Grand Jury Court Referred to Saloonkeepers Who Do Not Intend to Take Out Licenses.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the grand jury, having finished its work, came into court and made a presentation of the remainder of true and ignorant bills, and also several recommendations. Judge Gunster came on the bench in the main court room to receive the jury's report, and when he passed upon the batch of papers, he was about to address the jury when District Attorney Jones walked before the bar and said:

"May it please the court, the constable of the Twelfth ward of this city, in his return stated that he is of the opinion that liquor is sold in that ward without a license, but that he could not collect sufficient evidence to convict the persons whom he suspects. Your honor referred the matter to the district attorney and it was laid before the grand jury, but in the absence of any evidence the bills had to be ignored."

Judge Gunster paused a minute and then spoke as follows to the jury: "I notice in one of the morning papers," meaning The Tribune, "that it is the intention and purpose of several of the persons who have been granted licenses at this term of court, to neglect to take their licenses out and, nevertheless, to continue selling liquor. If that is true it might be well for such persons to understand that inevitably they will find themselves on the road to jail. They will not tolerate such a scheme, and the persons who attempt in this manner to evade the law will, sooner or later, find themselves in the hands of the law."

"If the constables of the county do not do their duty, or if the county detective does not do his duty, this court will, and it may be, checked this afternoon of the statutes. The statutes are not upon the book of this court to be violated."

"If liquor is being sold without a license in the Twelfth ward, or in any other part of this county, the matter will gravitate in the long run before this court, or if any number of liquor sellers who have been granted licenses neglect to take them out and believe that they can do so with impunity, let them understand that the court will be heard from if they apply at the next term of license."

Recommendations of the grand jury were as follows: First—That for the better dispatch of the business and the safety of the many papers necessarily connected therewith, the door between the grand jury room and the office of the district attorney be changed and removed to a point in the same apartment more convenient and direct in communication with the grand jury when in session, and also the introduction of an electric bell to be placed in the district attorney's office with a button within reach of the foreman of the grand jury, both of these changes would greatly facilitate the dispatch of the business and economize time and with much less disturbance and interruption of the jury's deliberations."

Second—We recommend the placing of a telephone in the office of the district attorney. This would undoubtedly greatly facilitate the saving of time and expense to many whose duties call them elsewhere, who have been waiting and restricted here daily."

Third—We respectfully recommend the employment of a regularly appointed interpreter under the jurisdiction of the court. One who is well versed in the English and such other languages as are spoken by the several nationalities called upon to appear in these courts. Our experiences during these sessions teach that the present system of interpreters, furnishing their own interpreters brings before the grand jury and the court individuals possibly in interest or sympathy, hence unreliable, as illustrated during the sessions on pay her $150 a week. She worked two weeks and all she received, she stated, was $1.75, leaving a balance of $148.25. The jury found a verdict in her favor for the full amount of her claim."

The ninth case set down for trial this week is that of John G. Jennings against the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company. Mr. Jennings appeared before court and at his request an attachment was issued for Dr. Carl M. Kelley, of Lehigh, Wayne county. The material witness in the case, Dr. Kelley, has heretofore manifested a contempt for the subpoena of the court and refused to come on here to testify at a former trial of this case until the sheriff went after him. The genial doctor contents that he hasn't time to bother with the courts."

Verdicts by agreement were taken in favor of the defendant in the interpleader suit of George L. Yost against Charles Church. The same disposition was made of the case of D. W. Vaughan against Fred R. Jenkins. Nonalms were ordered in the appeal cases of John Eisenberger vs. John J. Lavis, Garnishes, and of Ignatz Breit vs. the same defendant. A number of cases were continued."

Recital by a Talented Lady. Miss Florence Ham, the brilliant elocutionist, of Homestead, will give a recital on Thursday evening of this week at the Providence Presbyterian church. Miss Ham will give her recital for the benefit of the Child Mission fund, a small band of self-sacrificing young ladies who deserve for their entertainment a large patronage from the well wishers of mission work."

Dinner at Y. W. C. A. Rooms. On Thursday a dinner will be served at the Young Women's Christian association, 236 Washington avenue, from 12 to 2 o'clock, and supper from 6 to 8 o'clock. The reputation of the ladies in serving a good dinner should be an incentive for all of our business men to fill a worthy cause, and at the same time receive value in full. Dinner, 25 cents; supper, 25 cents."

SHORT SESSION WAS HELD

Board of Control Adjourned After Hearing Committee Reports.

ATTORNEY KNAPP APPOINTED

Difference Between Hunt & Connell and the Building Committee Discussed. Rented for School Quarters—List of Delinquent Tax Collectors.

At last night's meeting of the board of control Mr. Webb, of the building committee, brought to the notice of the board differences existing between the committee and the Hunt and Connell company in reference to the contract for heating the new No. 19 school. By motion of Mr. Worcester the building committee and the attorney of the board will consider the matter. The report of the building committee recommended the substitution of a tubular instead of a mazuline furnace for the heating of the high school building. It will represent a saving of 25 per cent. in cost. The recommendation of the committee was adopted.

It was also recommended that speaking tubes be placed in the new No. 27 school, between the principal's room and the other rooms of the building, providing that the cost does not exceed $5, and that a door be placed between the principal's room and his private office. The recommendation was adopted.

Buildings to be Leased. The building committee recommended the leasing of the following places for school purposes for the coming year: No. 1, high school, from Joseph J. Jermyn, $55 per month; No. 1, preparatory department, from J. D. Williams, $44.14 per month; No. 1, primary department, 223 Washington avenue, from C. L. Davidson, at $35 per month; No. 19, high school, Prospect avenue, and Beach street, from St. Paul's Evangelical congregation, at $12 per month; store room, 324 Washington avenue, from G. B. Davidson, at $25 per month. Superintendent Phillips certified that the different quarters that are recommended by the committee are absolutely necessary for school accommodations.

Upon motion of Mr. Worcester it was decided to engage Professor C. B. Derman, at the salary of $50, which is the same as that paid him last year, to give musical instruction for commencing teachers.

Ex-Judge H. A. Knapp was re-elected solicitor of the board for the ensuing year at the same terms as have been paid heretofore.

Tax Collectors Named. City Treasurer Reese G. Brooks sent the following list of tax collectors of delinquent taxes for the year 1894: W. H. Thomas, L. M. Roberts, B. D. Hughes, B. T. Morgan, W. J. Egan, Harry Post, E. M. Verney, J. M. Schafer, C. S. Gelbert, B. T. Jayne, Harry Greenwood, T. W. Davis, P. M. Halstead, George B. Chase, and J. G. Nicholson.

The attorney of the board will investigate yesterday made the rule absolute.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES. The saloonkeepers were more alert yesterday in taking their licenses. Forty-seven of them saw the county treasurer. The bond of J. R. Gilhool in the sum of $250, as trustee of the estate of Mary Fitzpatrick, who has been adjudged a lunatic, was approved yesterday by the court.

George M. Tustin, of Columbia county, and Hugh L. Smyth were yesterday admitted to practice in the courts of Lackawanna county.

Letters of administration were granted to Agnes Peterson in the estate of her husband, Frank Peterson, late of Old Forge; and in the estate of Margaret Lyng, late of Carbondale, letters of administration were granted to Ella Lyng.

In the case of Bell & Hudson, proprietors of the Scranton Times, against the commissioners of this county, in which the former have applied to court for a writ of alternative mandamus, Judge Gunster yesterday made the rule absolute.

The will of Captain Frank P. Amidon, which was drawn up by the late Judge Handley, was yesterday admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to Mrs. F. Amidon, James J. Amidon, and Edith D. Amidon, children of the deceased.

An application for a charter for the Green Hedge Whistman's club has been made to court. The directors for the first year are: James W. Garney, Jr., Henry P. Hitebeck, Charles M. Carr, E. T. Howe, A. W. Handlin, E. G. Stewart and Myron Carr.

Court yesterday refused to reopen the hearing in the application of William Doenknecht for a liquor license at South Main avenue and Luzerne street, in the Fifth ward. Doenknecht's license was refused and his attorney, Caroline Conroy, petitioned court yesterday for a rehearing.

August Haseman was married to Mary Haseman in Binghamton on Oct. 22, 1883, and she has since been living with the residence of one James Howell, violated her marriage vows with an acquaintance named William Smith. She has since been living with the residence of one James Howell, violated her marriage vows with an acquaintance named William Smith.

A petition was filed yesterday in court for the incorporation of the Scranton Training School for Nurses. The object is to prepare persons who may so desire and to fit them to become nurses and competent to administer to and take care of sick people. The subscribers for the charter are: Alfred Hand, James P. Dickson, Thomas D. Davison, C. W. Hooser, J. George Finch and John F. Snyder. The trustees appointed for the first year are: Alfred Hand, James P. Dickson, Rev. J. A. O'Rilly, Thomas D. Davison, William Smith, C. W. Hooser, J. George Finch, John F. Snyder and E. L. Fuiler.

WONDERFUL SOUTH SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 10, 1894.

Mr. C. W. Campbell—Dear Sir: I have given my boy, Freddie, 7 years old, some of your Campbell's Magic Worm Sugar and Tea and to my surprise this afternoon about 3 o'clock he passed a tapeworm measuring about 35 feet in length, head and all. I have it in a bottle and any person wishing to see it can do so by calling at my store. I had tried numerous other remedies recommended for taking tapeworms, but all failed. In my estimation Dr. Campbell's is the greatest worm remedy in existence. Yours very respectfully, FRED HEFFNER, 729 Beach St.

Note—The above is what every body says about this tonic. Manufactured by C. W. Campbell, Lancaster, Pa. Successor to Dr. John Campbell & Son.
