PUNERAL OF DAVID P. IRELAND

Impressive Services Reld at His Home on South Rebecca Avenue-Meeting of Stockholders of West Side Bank. Minor News Notes.

The funeral of the late David P. Ireland, who died at his home on South Rebecca avenue on Friday evening. took place vesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family home. Long before the services, a large number of Mr. Ireland's friends gathered to view the remains as they laid in a handsome black casket. Rev. Thomas A. Bell, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, officiated and preached an eloquent sermon. During his remarks he referred to the deceased's excellent character and genial disposition which had so endeared him to his friends. A sextette under the leadership of .$200 Elias E. Evans rendered several selections. A delegation of Hyde Park $300 lodge, No. 306, Knights of Pythias, and tb. the West Side members of Post 139, 3300 Grand Army of the Republic, were in SCRANTON, NINETEENTH WARD. attendance. Among the floral offerings were the gates ajar, a pillow, two wreaths, shield, star and crescent, and two casket bouquets. After the services the remains were removed to the Washburn Street cemetery, where interment was made. The flower-bearers were George Hill and Joseph Foy. The pall-bearers were: From the Grand Army of the Republic, Thomas Allen, Perry H. Fuller, and Morgan D. Lake; from the Knights of Pythias.

William R. Thomas, John T. Jones, and Edward R. Jones.

Miss M. Louise Williams has resigned her position as teacher at No. 14 school. About a year ago Miss Williams obtained a leave of absence and her place was acceptably filled by David Owens. The latter is a graduate at the high school, and during his period as teacher has won many friends. There is no doubt but that Mr. Owens will be appointed to permanently fill the position. At an early hour yesterday morning Mrs. John English, a well known resident of the West Side, died at her home on Jackson street, after a short illness. Mrs. English was a native of Ireland and has been a resident of this ide for many years. She was 42 years of age and is survived by a husband and four sons. Deceased was a woman of esteemable qualities. The funeral totice will appear later.

The Hyde Park Literary and Debatng society held a meeting last evening. John R. Edwards was chairman. Short political quotations were given by the embers, and an essay was read by D. H. The Epworth league of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church was enter tained at the residence of E. B. Reynolds last evening. The house was well filled and all were well pleased with their reception. Miss Grace Peck aided in the entertaining by reciting in her pleasing style, "The Naughty Girl," while solos were sung by Mrs. M. A. Goodwin and William H. Lanyard. Arthur Teal delighted the audience with one of his pleasing violin solos. After the entertainment refreshments were served the guests by Mrs. Reynolds, assisted by her daughters, Misses lara and Jennie.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Thomas Richardson has filed his bond s constable of the Twentieth ward. Edward Kneller, permanent man of the Century Hose company, has recovered from a severe illness.

The funeral of Mrs. John McGee, of Cedar avenue, will be held at 9 o'clock this morning. A high mass of requiem will be celebrated at St. John's church and interment will be made in Avoca Catholic cemetery

It is expected that something definite will be known in a few days concerning the proposed new silk factory, for which a six acre plot has already been staked out on Cedar avenue, opposite No. 5 switch on the Minooka line of the Scranton Traction company.

An Arabian trinket peddler attempted to assault Miss Agnes Ludden, a young woman who was alone in her father's house in Minooka, yesterday. She was stronger than her assailant, and he fled when he discovered his inability to accomplish his purpose.

A contest for a gold watch for the beneuit of the widow and large family of the late Michael Dunn, of Minooka, was decided last night. Miss Nellie Loughney, of Minooka, won the watch, having collected $283 against Miss Annie Connolly, of Taylor, who turned in $227. The gentlemen who counted the money are: P. F. O'Hara, William J. Burke, Peter Higgins, P. J. Mulherin, Thomas F. Coyne, John Ludden, John P. Gallagher and Thomas King.

CYPHILENE BLOOD POISON

Just Enough Blood and Science to Satisfy Two Blements.

ONE VERY UNJUST DECISION

Henry & Davies, of Eynon street, Results Announced in Fayor of Philip Monahan, Frank Callahan, John Maddigan and Joseph Allen-Several Draws Were Disappointments.

The first annual tournament of the National Athletic club of Scranton in Music Hall last night was attended by an audience which taxed the seating capacity of the house. From a pugilistic standpoint, and financially, the tourney was a success. There was enough blood spilled to satisfy one element, and of clever boxing there was sufficient to meet the approbation of others. If the judges and other officials expected their decision to be hissed they were not disappointed, although in several bouts the an nounced results were received with gen eral satisfaction. In the 115-pound class Joseph Allen, a lad of 16 years, of the Nationals, met Ben Kerr, who was entered as "John Gorman, of the Philadelphia Swimming club." Kerr saved himself by quitting at the end of the second round. He was heavier and older than his opponen and a harder hitter, but Allen used his head and won. Kerr did most of the leading, but was paid back with interest in the counters, Allen hugging to avoid punishment, Star Event of the Tourney. The shortest and fiercest bout of the evening and the one most closely upproaching a knockout was in the 120pound class between Thomas Gardner, of the Excelsiors, and Thomas Monahan, of the Nationals. Gardner rushed the fight at the beginning, and during the middle of the first and only round each tried to mix things up. Science was discarded and each was satisfied to run the chances of severe infighting. At the end of the second minute claret was flowing freely from Monahan's nose and he was nearly out. The gong saved him and he forfeited the fight.

An unjust decision and one that brought forth deserved hisses and groans was that given Philip Monahan, of the Nationals, over Peter Macker, of Olyphant, in the 125-pound class. During the first two rounds Monahan tried rushing tactics, and in the breaks be invariably got the worst of it. He was more cautious in the third round, but did most of the leading, Macker landing short left jabs on the face in the counters. Macker would have smothered his man in two more rounds, and insisted on another round after the decision was given Monahan.

Frank Callahan, of the Excelsiors, did as he pleased with Jack Woods, of the Metropolitans, in the 120-pound glass. Woods stayed three rounds, but there would have been no disappointments if Callahan had been given the decision at the end of the second round.

It Was a Draw. John Barrett, of the Nationals, in his shirtsleeves, cuffs and suspenders went in against Morris Posner in the 140-Bertha, of East Market street, are in pound class. The referee ordered an extra 2-minute round and the result Miss Mame Thomas has resumed her was a draw. Posner acted on the agstudies at the Bloomsburg State Nor- gressive, was the most active and landmal school after paying a brief visit ed the oftener with full arm blows, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barrett got the best of the infighting. John Maddigan, of the Nonparells, Miss Lizzle Willams, of New Haven, might easily have put Eugene Cos-Conn., who was called here about a grove, of the Nationals, to sleep in the week ago by the serious illness of her third round. Maddigan had his man rsted from the beginning second round Cosgrove was bleeding copiously and would have gone down f Maddigan had not let up on him. Coagrove quit just before the end of the third round. The fiercest bout was four rounds at catch-weights between "Jack" Hicks, of Pine Brock, and "Jack" Gilbride, of the South Eide. It was give and take from the beginning. Gilbride was the stronger, but Hicks was the more scientific, and, although on the defensive wore the skin off his opponent's left rits with half-arm body blows and fre quently landed on the face. A fourth and extra round was ordered and the result announced as a draw. The tournament closed with a 3-round exhibition between John L. Mitchell and "Bobby" Allen, in which Mitchell had clearly the best of it. The officials were: Referce, P. J. Murphy, instructor of the Scranton Athletic club; judges, James Judge and Richard Elavers; announcers, W. J. Burns, of Carbondale.
