Serious Runaway Accident on South Main Street-Purchased a Fine Farm. Proposed Benefit for the Leck Cornet Band-Other News.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittston, March 27.-This morning take William Williamson, son of Robert Williamson, of Fear street, narrowly escaped a serious accident. His horse took fright and became unmanageable and shoulders, also spraining one ankle. Slight damage was done to the car, one his residence, window being broken. The car was not Miss Mary the cause of the accident.

Inquest Over Richard Louverick. An inquest was held tonight on the death of Richard Louverick, the boy, who on March 13 was so terribly ourned in an explosion of gas at the Maltby shaft of the Lehigh Valley Conl company, that he died two days afterward. An explosion of gas had occurred and a gang of men were ordered into the mine to make some repairs; Louverick was sent near the scene of the explosion by Fire Boss Jones to clear away a place for a prop. The boy had a naked lamp and he walked into a body of gas and ignited it. Deputy Coroner Perkins held an in-quest and it was adjourned from time to time. Tonight only three of the jurors: John McOwen, Thomas Mangan and James McMannus, appeared at the inquest, and the deputy coroner added M. J. Doyle, of Wilkes-Barre, to form a quorum. The testimony of witnesses was then heard and afterward the jury, in its verdict, said that the deceased came to his death as the result of burns received in an explosion of gas in the Maltby shaft, and Fire Boss Jones was censured for sending the boy with a naked lamp into a place where such a volume of gas had no cumulated, and the Lehigh Valley Coal company was censured for not keeping a supply of safety lamps on hand. The three non-attending jurors were stamped as recreant and unmanly persons for absenting thmselves from the

Run Over by the Cars.

Willie Kelley, 12 years old, a slate picker at the Butler colliery, on his way home from work yesterday attempted to jump on a moving coal train on the Lehigh Valley railroad and he fell under the cars, the wheels of which passed over his left foot and crushed it to a pulp. He is a son of Martin Kelley, of Cork Lane, and was brought in Fitzpatrick's ambulance to the hospital, where the surgeons amputated the foot below the ankle.

INDUSTRIAL TOPICS.

The price of coal in the Hocking valley egion has been advanced 5 cents a ton. A gentleman closely identified with the Olcott-Reading committee says that President Harris has instructions from the committee to insist upon a percentage minimum of the anthracite coal busines of 21.3 per cent.; If he accepts anythin ss than this the committee will wan to know the reason. Evidences of coal have been found in the mountains north of Midlinburg and an effort to find a vein is now being made. The cople living in that locality have raised fund and have engaged prospectors and drilling apparatus. According to a geo-ogist who examined the mountain at dif-ferent points there is a vein of coal some-where about Millinburg.

Philadelphia, March 27.—The newly elected board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad company met this after noon for reorganization. No changes were made in the personnel of the organi-zation and President Roberts was unaniagusly re-elected. The total vote cast at esterday's election for directors was 513.-603, the largest ever polled. Last year the Shipments of bituminous coal over the Huntingdon and Broad Top railroad last week, while not as heavy as during the preceding week, were nevertheless quite large, aggregating 35,788 tons, or 7,948 tons in excess of shipments for the correspond-ing week last year. This brings the total shipments for the year to date to 390,134 tons, against 352,416 tons for the same time present prices means $43,000,000 a year. price for the last ien years they would be a gainer by nearly $13,000,000 a year. It is the clear perception of these facts which Is making the members of the trade mon anxious to agree upon some definite pol-tey. It may not be done this week or next,

The presidents of the eastern bituminou oal roads will hold a meeting at the Penn-givania railroad office in Philadelphia today to endeavor to arrange a pool for the government of the soft coal trade this year. The idea is to allot to each company percentage of the tidewater trade, ne trade not being interfered with. this matter can be settled satisfactorily is proposed to advance freight rates slightly above the rates charged last year, The percentage question, however, will it onsidered firm The Pennsylvania Coal company are about to make an experiment which will be watched with interest by every mine worker. The smothering of mine fires has always been considered a very questionable proceeding and it is the result of a test of this kind that the company is now going to reveal. Twenty years ago fire broke out in their No. 3 mine near Mt. Carmel. The fire got beyond control and all ordinary methods were exhausted. It was not practicable to flood the place so the smothering process was resorted to. The gangways were closed up, all cracks and crevices scaled as nearly air tight as they could be gotten. For twenty years the place has thus been allowed to stand Now they propose to reopen the gangways to see whether the fire is out or still burn-

New York, March 27.-A member of the anthracite coal committee of five, ap-pointed at the meeting of the anthracit cal presidents on Thursday of last week says that the committee has made proress with the work, but that its labor, were not concluded yesterday. The mat-ter under discussion is of a very delicate character, and the committee has been re quested to observe unusual precautions that no information be given out until the report has been submitted to the pres dents on Thursday. Reports of a special arrangement between the Reading and the Pennsylvania railroad companies may be dismissed as imaginary. It must also be understood that no demand by any company will be tolerated by the coal pre idents as a body. In whatever is done, compromise and a regard to the general interests will be the order of the day. mprovement in anthracite coal prices is discernible. The Philadelphia Inquirer thinks that " Mr. Sioan or Mr. Harris or Mr. Olyphant who have been in the coal business all their lives, were to set about the task saving the coal trade, backed by the re sources that are behind the New Jerse Central party, there would be good rea-son to look for the attainment of satis-factory results. But Mr. Maxwell is new to the coal trade; he came in it in 1887, and he has never known a time when the busi-ness was anything but prosperous. The years since 1887 have all been good. It i significant fact that the experienced men in the trade are not hopeful of a set tlement, and the only way out seems to be through some gigantic speculative operation, such as a combination by nerger or lease of some of the companies Of this there seems to be little prospect in spite of the rumors circulating in Nev York that the Pennsylvania railroad is back of the deal and has obtained a foot-

Bandits Who Hold Up a Train are Promptly Shot Down.

DETECTIVES WERE ON BOARD

And When the Robbers Stopped the Train, the Detectives Took a Part in the Entertainment, with Very Satisfactory Results.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 27.-Two robbers dead and a third mortally wounded are the results of an attempt to hold up the south-bound train on the Cincinnati Southern railroad at 2.30 this morning. The train had just emerged from tunnel No. 9, two miles north of Greengood, Ky., when a white lantern, swinging in the middle of the track, just ahead, brought it to a dead stop. A tall, lank, bearded countryman, perhaps 45 years old, mounted the steps of the engine, and thrusting the barrel of a pistol into the face of Engineer Tom Springfield, ordered him to stand still, which he did, while Fireman Rankin, who was next to the outlaw, observed a discreet silence. Three other men climbed into the baggage car, which they evidently mistook for he express car.

Three road detectives, Thomas Grifin, Will Eddle and Will Altgood, were In the smoking car when the train stopped. Altgood stepped up to see what was going on. As he stepped what was going on. As he stepped down he was ordered to throw up his hands by a man who had a revolver. but instead he pulled his own revolver

The Robbers Vanquished. Eddle and Griffin appeared on the scene and it is believed they brought forthwith opened fire on the Riddles. down two of the robbers, one of whom died instantly, while the other lived till 4 o'clock. A third man was wounded in the breast, perhaps fatally. He clambered upon the tender and refused to the scene, and he, too, was shot and budge until Cumberland Falls was reached. There he was given in charge of the operator. Two of the attacking party escaped.
Officials of the road have had knowledge for some time of a plot to rob the train, and the officers were in readiness. The wounded man claims to be a tramp from Pennsylvania. None of the men were identified, but are mountaineers.

CONNELLTON.

An enjoyable Union Sunday school entertainment was held last Saturday night. Miss Mabel Gregory, Miss Lizzie John and Miss Sarah Richards recited admirably; David Pickrell gave a humorous recitation that was highly appreciated; the Howells family, of Lawrenceville, assisted by friends in this place, supplied good music; T. Da vies, of Duryea, entertained the audience with his comical sayings and doings; Willie Jones, of Minooka, sang a number of pleasing songs, and Richard Thomas, of Duryea, contributed several fine mustcal numbers.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

New York, March 27 .- The anthracite oul situation dominated the stock market today, and the undertone was weaker than for some time past. At the opening Reading was affected by its February statement. The stock opened at 14, dropped to 12½, and railled to 13½. Jersey Central was heavy, breaking 3½: Lackawanna advanced to 163% and fell to 161%; Delaware and Hudson rose to 129 and broke to 126%. Rumors were rife to the effect that the Lackawanna had or would acquire control of the Susquehanna and Western, but the stories were denied by Lackawanna officials. In the Industrials, General Electric was weak, and in the last hour led the decline, falling to 34%. In the last hour the market was at its weakest. Northwest fell 1, St. Paul %, Burlington %, Rock Island %, Chicago Gas %, Louisville and Nashville 1, Manhattan, %, Missouri Pacific 1%, Lend 1%, and Union Pacific %. Speculation closed barely steady in tone. Net changes show osses of 1/4 to 1 per cent, in the general list, but the anthracite coalers closed anywhere from % to 3 per cent. lower. The total sales were 250,000. The range of today's prices for the active stocks of the New York stock market are given below. The ouotations are furnished The Tribune by G. du B.
