SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. WEBER

It was due to heart trouble from which she had been a sufferer—funeral of Jerome D. Boyce, of Jackson Street.

Mrs. Sabina Weber, wife of August Weber, of 333 North Summer avenue, was found dead in her chair about 8 o'clock yesterday morning, by her young son, Seaman. Mr. Weber was away from home as he is employed at Port Jervis. His wife has been ill for the past year with a severe heart trouble, and as she experienced pain in laying down, she often spent a great part of the night in her easy chair.

Last evening after the children retired, Mrs. Weber seated herself as usual, and about 9 o'clock was chatting with her friend and neighbor, Mrs. George Kimerin. The latter went home shortly afterward, and Mrs. Weber was not seen again until her son came down stairs and found his mother dead.

An investigation proved that Mrs. Weber had been dead several hours as the body was stiff and cold. A telegram was sent to Mr. Weber and he arrived home yesterday about noon.

During the deceased's last illness, Dr. Allen, who was attending her, stated that she would probably die suddenly, as the condition of her heart was very uncertain. Mrs. Weber was born in Germany, and came to this country with her husband about fourteen years ago. She was 38 years of age, and a woman of admirable qualities. She was a devout member of the Chestnut Street German Presbyterian church, and connected with the Ladies' Aid society. Mrs. Weber was also a member of the First Massachusetts Calvary, and served faithfully during the late war. Considering the fact, the Griffin Post, No. 139, Grand Army of the Republic, attended in full uniform and gave him a soldier's burial.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Jerome D. Boyce, who died at his home, 1313 Jackson street, Sunday morning, were conducted at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. J. J. Smith, of Wyalusing, officiated and preached an eloquent funeral sermon. A delegation of Scranton Typographical union, of which the deceased was a member, attended. Mr. Boyce was a member of the First Massachusetts Calvary, and served faithfully during the late war. Considering the fact, the Griffin Post, No. 139, Grand Army of the Republic, attended in full uniform and gave him a soldier's burial.

Fire on Luzerne Street.

The alarm of fire which sounded from box 32, at the corner of Hampton street and Main avenue, about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon was caused by a slight blaze in the cellar of a two-story building on Luzerne street occupied by Peter Clancy and family. The Franklin and Columbia companies responded and the former put out a stream. The flames were extinguished but not before a considerable portion of the interior was burned. The cause of the fire is supposed to be carelessness in throwing away a lighted match.

Mrs. John English Buried.
