MRS. PRINK'S LIGHT SENTENCE

Ames Robinson Admitted That He Had Transgressed and Escaped Lightly. Sanford Was Very Bold-Meadville Injunction Case Before the Court.

Mrs. Nell Frink, of Montrose, the woman who pleaded guilty to the charge of sending obscene letters through the mails, was yesterday called up before Judge Buffington for sentence in the United States district court. In imposing sentence Judge Buffington said that at the selicitation of her counsel on the ground of her mental condition he had decided to make the sentence a nominal one. He directed her to pay a fine of $25 and costs.

Amos Robinson, who was charged with selling liquor on Lackawanna avenue, in this city, without paying the internal revenue fee, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and After getting the letter containing the money order Sokitels went to Pittston and had it cashed. Postmaster John H. Mullen, of Pittston, and Postmaster M. F. Corcoran, of Duryea, testified that Sokitels was the man who obtained the money and letter, but nevertheless Sokitels went on the stand and entered a general denial. The remainder of the day was taken up by the Meadville injunction case. Only one case remains to be tried in the district court, that of the government against George Fox, charged with unlawfully taking a valuable letter from a postoffice. Today sentences will be imosed on those convected during the

It has transpired that the real name of the person who was convicted on Wednesday as W. J. Sanford, for using the mails to defraud, is Walter Sanford Deming. He was born in Vermont of well-to-do parents and he has a brother who is now a man of much prominence ears in Beston.

appeared in vesterday's issue. When M. F. Garney left the General Phinney Engine company a short time ago he took home with him his cap, which the members of the company claim belong to them. As he has steadily refused to give it up, suit has been begun in Alderman Bailey's court to ompel him to do so.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church will hold a basket social tonight for the benefit of the Rose Sickler fund. Miss Sickler, who was a member of this society for the last three years, has been engaged in missionary work in the Chinese empire, and is supported by this society. One of the best entertalnments ever held in this place was the one given last evening in the Sunday school rooms of the Presbyterian church under the auspices of the Guild Mission ban. The rooms were well filled by 8 o'clock, when Howell Gabriel announced the first number on the programme, the duet, "Till We Meet Again," by the Misses Elizabeth and Catherine Gabriel, who were heartly applauded. Miss Florence Ham. of Honesdale, then recited "The Street Musicians," and was encored. Mrs. Lizzie Hughes-Brundage delighted her old friends here by singing "Good Night, Beloved," and as an encore sang When the Heart is Young." Ham then recited "The Naughty Girl." and was twice encored. In the ab sence of Mrs. Mary J. Boston-Will-tams the solo "Fiddle and I" was omitted and the entertainment closed by Miss Ham reciting "Bobby Shafto" by Homer Green, of her native town. At the close of the entertainment light rereshments were served by Miss Lillian Pearson, Miss Elizabeth Gabriel, Miss Charlotte Brady, Miss Elsle McDonald, Miss Alice Eckerley, Miss Mar garet Eckerley, Miss Alice Zlegler.
