QUIET UNTIL AFTER EASTER

The Gamut of the Week's Events Sounded in Short Paragraphs—Guests and Entertainers—Personal Mention Reduced to a Compact Compass.

Yesterday's Wilkes-Barre Record says: "One of the principal yearly events of the Young Men's Hebrew association is the Purim ball, which always attracts dancers from far and near and for which the most elaborate preparations are made. Oppenheim's orchestra was hidden behind a bank of palms, and the chandeliers were entwined with evergreen. The committee included Albert Lewis, Martin Freedman, Harry Livingston, Adolph Klein, and Isador Falk. Among the out-of-town attendants were: New York, Samuel Elkins, Moses Wiseman; Scranton, Miss Levy, E. M. Gallen; Philadelphia, Simon Walters; Cincinnati, Solomon Heiser; Pittston, David Heyman; Lehigh, Comperitz; Salamanca, N. V., Miss Brown."

Women base ball enthusiasts will receive with pleasure the assurance of the Scranton Athletic Association that every opportunity possible will be arranged for the fair sex at the park this season. An end section of the grandstand is to be reserved for them and divided from the other portion by a partition. The entrances are to be from the rear, which will be away with the annoyance of having persons pass along the front. All parts of the grounds, bleachers and grandstand are to be well polished and any kind of rowdiness or bad language is not to be tolerated. If the management keeps these promises, the result will be seen in continuous and large audiences of women.

The members of the French Breton dance in the Kirmess were entertained one evening during the week by Miss Florence Silkman, at her home, on North Main avenue. Those present were: Misses Gertrude and Bessie Williams, Grace Silkman, Anna Collins, Blanche Halstead, Alice Evans, Alice and Jennie Ziegler, Bessie Griffin, Florence Silkman, Lizzie Gabriel, and Philippine Trupp, and E. E. Cooper, S. F. James, T. J. Geddes, S. H. Swingle, George R. Jackson, F. H. Widmayer, George M. Mulley, H. A. Smith, Clarence O. Reed, George Silkman.

Wednesday noon in Elm Park church were married Miss Nellie A. Woolsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Woolsey, of Madison avenue, to Schuyler C. Gernon. There were no bridesmaids nor maid of honor. Miss Woolsey was attended in a brown traveling suit and was accompanied to the altar by her father. The groom was attended by his brother, L. B. Gernon. The ushers were John H. Blackwood, Jr., Boringhoff, and Cassius Stackhouse, of this city, and Lafayette Gernon, a brother of the groom, of Boston. After April 15 Mr. and Mrs. Gernon will be at home at No. 215 Vine street.

A company of young West Siders paid a surprise visit Wednesday evening to Miss Edith Davis, niece of Deputy Warden Price, of the county jail. In the party were Misses Celia Lewis, Jennie Lodderick, Gertrude Thomas, Sadie Thomas, Minnie Thomas, Nettie Datsman, Elsie Griffiths, Ida Lewis and Mollie Slantz; Eldridge Dougherty, Will Thomas, George Nichols, William Griffiths, E. H. Evans, Peter Lewis, Ray Williams and Eddie Watkins.

The sixteenth anniversary of Miss Lena Reinhardt was celebrated Thursday evening by an enjoyable party at the home of her parents on Webster avenue. Among those present were: Misses Edna Evans, Lizzie and Emma Casper, Mabel and Clara Speicher, Julia and Christine Zenke, Mattie Ellenwood, Marie Wilde, Bessie Speicher, Flossie Howard, Nellie Thomas, Margaret Davis, Esther Castellan, Tessie Kaufman and Anna Speicher.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hunt, at their residence, corner of Jefferson avenue and Pine street, tendered a reception Thursday evening to the choir of the First Presbyterian church. A dainty lunch was served during the evening, which was interspersed with vocal selections by many of the singers present.

During the next few weeks the choir will be entertained by other well-known people.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered William L. Loveland at his home, 925 Cedar avenue, Wednesday evening. Light refreshments were served at a seasonable hour. Music was furnished by Mrs. W. L. Loveland and Miss Bessie Myers.

WONDERFUL

SOUTH SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 10, 1894. Mr. C. W. Campbell—Dear Sir: I have given my boy, Freddie, 7 years old, some of Dr. Campbell's Magic Worm Sugar and Tea, and to my surprise this afternoon about 3 o'clock he passed tapeworms measuring about 20 feet in length, head and all. I have it in a bottle and any person wishing to see it can do so by calling at my store. I have tried numerous other remedies recommended for taking tapeworms, but all failed. In my estimation Dr. Campbell's is the greatest worm remedy in existence.

Yours very respectfully, FRED HEFFNER, 732 Beech St.
