

COMING OF THE MESSIAH

Present Dispensation Is Fast Approaching Its Conclusion.

SERMON OF REV. A. C. GABELLIN

Exodus of Jews to the Holy Land Has Already Begun—The Prophecies of Restoration of Jews to Be Fulfilled—Flocking to Jerusalem.

Rev. A. C. Gabelin, of New York, a Christianized Jew who is working as a missionary among the Jewish element of New York City, preached to a large audience at the Grace Reformed church yesterday morning. He secured the absorbing interest of his audience by the bold manner in which he claimed that the present dispensation is drawing to a close, and that the Jewish dispensation would soon be seen, when the evangelization of the world would be consummated by that nation.

The reverend gentleman based his theme on Psalm, cii, 12 and 13: "Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favor her, yea, the set time, is come. When the Lord shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory." He explained that the terms Zion, Israel or Jerusalem, as expressed in the Old Testament, meant the ancient people of God. The Christian church claimed all the blessed prophecies, but he urged, the Jews had been rejected nationally, and not individually. Jews had been saved from the time that Jesus rose from the dead but, nationally, they had been under the curse and wrath of God for nearly 1900 years. If they were rejected individually it would be an argument against the existence of a living and righteous God.

Cause of their rejection. What had been the cause of their rejection? He replied that it was because they had rejected the Lord Jesus Christ, and when he had expressed himself thus, when addressing an audience of his own nationality, forty or fifty had arisen and left the room. Their angry faces being sufficient indication that they could not listen to the statement of the cause of their rejection.

The cause of their misery was that "He came to his own and his own received him not." They expected him to be a great earthly king, and in this they had been mistaken. Then came the question as to how the Jews had been preserved for so many centuries, and why had not their enemies succeeded in the many ages and generations, in destroying them? Because there was a blessing yet in store for the Jewish nation.

With regard to the coming dispensation the preacher argued that it would be a Jewish dispensation in which the Lord would return to his ancient people and himself, after which the Jews would be the messengers of Christ to all the ends of the world to proclaim their Messiah.

Proof from the Bible. The prophecy that they would be led away captive and "Jerusalem" trodden upon until the time of the Gentile be fulfilled would be complete. He quoted from Isaiah II to prove that a set time was fixed: "Hath God cast away His people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite. * * * God hath not cast away His people which He foreknew. * * * For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be ashamed of my gospel: that the blindness in part is happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved, as it is written, There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob."

The present dispensation was almost at a close, and the time when the Lord would return to fulfill his prophecy was near at hand. There had been a national movement among the Jews for some years to form a colony at Palestine and every steamer which touched that country brought a number of Jewish people who were returning to their own country. There were already 50,000 in the city of Jerusalem and 110,000 in Palestine.

He believed that the Bridegroom was coming to claim his Bride, the Gentiles in almost every part of the world had heard the name of Jesus, and this dispensation was fast coming to an end. The question for them was "Are we ready? God help them to be so."

THIS WEEK IS FOR THE MEN.

Mission at St. Mary's Church in Dunmore Opened Last Evening for the Men With a Sermon by Rev. Father Splinter on the Subject of Repentance.

St. Mary's Catholic church of Dunmore was filled with the men of the parish last night that it was impossible to procure a seat long before the hour at which the ceremonies began. An unusual degree of interest is being taken by the congregation in the zealous work of the missionary fathers who are laboring for the welfare of souls. The women's mission was carried on all of last week and ended successfully yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Rev. Father Dunn delivered the closing sermon.

This week the men and children will be given an opportunity to make the mission and the masses will be held at the same hours as last week. Confessions will be heard for the benefit of the men just the same as the order during the week past. Mission masses will be celebrated each morning at 5 and 8 o'clock. Short instructions will be given after the early mass and a sermon each day will be preached at the conclusion of the 8 o'clock mass. Confessions will commence tomorrow at 3 p. m. and each day for the remainder of the week will be heard at the following hours: In the morning from 6 to 8 o'clock, and from 9 to 12 m. In the afternoon, from 2:30 to 6 and from 7:30 to 10 p. m. A special mission for the children will be held in the morning and afternoon.

Father Splinter's sermon last night was an exceedingly edifying one. He dwelt upon the necessity of keeping the commandments we set ourselves up as enemies of God and then we are in danger of forfeiting the protection that secures us from everlasting death. A deathed repentance is not sincere, because it is forced and only comes when the sinner realizes that death is about to overtake him. Such a repentance, the speaker said, is similar to the act of a drowning man clutching at a straw. The reverend fathers advise the men to avoid during the mission all vain amusements, idle conversations and useless reading and to attend to the great affair of eternal salvation. God alone knows how near we are to eternity. Those who have at any time led people to sin, should repair the past by leading others to God. St. James tells us that he who causes a sinner to be converted shall save his own soul from death, and cover a multitude of sins.

J. Willis Conant's organ recital on Saturday afternoon was enjoyed by a large congregation. The clever organist showed the same exquisite taste in his selection and style of playing as were highly appreciated at the previous recitals. George Du Bois, Dimmick sang "Thalberg's 'O Jesus, Thou Art Standing'" and Sheppard's "Shadows of Evening."

Miss Rachel Thomas, the newly-appointed secretary of the Young Women's Christian association, will arrive in the city today, and enter upon her duties immediately. The committee have labored conscientiously in making a final selection, and are confident that they have secured in Miss Thomas a secretary who will be capable of conducting the work in many directions and maintain the organization in the admirable condition in which it was left by Miss Maquerry. Miss Thomas has had considerable experience in New York city.

At an election of officers held at the Providence Methodist Episcopal church Sunday school yesterday afternoon the following were elected for the ensuing year: Superintendent, C. W. Dawson; first assistant, Henry Hemmeling; second assistant, Miss Lulu Hughes; secretary, W. D. Appleman; assistant secretary, Charles H. Constantine; treasurer, Miss Mamie Beers; librarian, Miss Anna Mully; assistants, Miss Gertrude Kennedy, Charles W. Connolly and George M. Mulley; chorister, W. D. Watkins; pianist, Miss Amy Decker; superintendent of primary work, Miss Mattie Sullivan; and of the Sunday school, Miss Mamie Lewis. The annual meeting of the school will be held on Sunday, when reports will be submitted by the various officers.

Presiding Elder Eckman administered holy communion at the Elm Park church yesterday morning. The annual missionary day "was observed by the Sunday school in the afternoon, when an interesting review of lessons during the past quarter was given by Miss Fields and others interested in the work. The handsome collection of $415 was made up yesterday in the school, bringing the total for the year to $700. The attendance of scholars yesterday was 735. The official board of the church will meet this evening at 7:15 o'clock. On Wednesday evening the fourth quarterly conference of the church will be held, when every member is requested to be present. On Friday evening the Wyoming Glee club will hold a concert in the lecture room under the auspices of Mr. Lee's Sunday school class.

Rev. James McLeod, of the First Presbyterian church, exchanged pulpits with his brother, Rev. Thomas McLeod, of the Clinton Street Presbyterian church, Brooklyn, N. Y. The reverend gentleman's sermon at the First Presbyterian church, yesterday morning, elicited favorable comments for its breadth of thought and pungent remarks on the topic treated. His theme, "Why This Waste?" referring to the alabaster box of ointment which had been broken by the woman to anoint the Head of Christ. His deductions from the text were eminently practical. He pointed out that many people could not appreciate a room of works of art for the reason that they had no market value. Some men would die for principle, but other men would call for principle. Another point he urged was that practically all acts of sacrifice recorded in the Bible were accomplished by women, and this was because they listened to the heart, which was the great reservoir of power, and if men would listen to the dictates of the heart they would accomplish more good.

Mister Editor:
Dear sir, this 10 cts is for the fund and I wish it was more to help because I couldn't like now last year because this winter I studied in the classes. I am a poor boy but I can spare 10 cts the same as the other fellows the rich men ought to give more than they do. Yours truly,

"S. M. Y." may not be a finished scholar, but the editor of The Tribune is satisfied that the young man's heart is in the right spot, and if he continues in the Young Men's Christian association educational classes he will come out with credit.

Now, the letter of "S. M. Y." offers a forceful and practical illustration of why the association should be helped. It is just that class of boys who are

GIBBONS MAKES ANSWER.

In the Lackawanna Township Supervisorship Contest Charges Are Made Against Contestant Charles H. Gaul.

Twelve days ago Attorney Charles E. Oliver filed papers in court instituting a contest against the election of Michael Gibbons as supervisor of Lackawanna township. The contest was begun at the instance of Charles H. Gaul, one of the defeated candidates.

Allegations of wholesale fraud were made in the affidavit presented by Gaul to the court. The election returns represented that Gibbons received a total of 422 votes against 309 computed for Gaul. The latter alleged that if Gibbons had been credited with only the votes that were cast for him that he would not have received more than 200 votes, and also that if himself had been credited with all that were cast for him, he would have received a total of more than 550 votes, which would elect him to the office. Other specifications of fraud were set forth at length in the petition.

The answer of Gibbons was filed in the clerk of the court's office Saturday by his attorney, P. W. Stokes. It is a direct contradiction of the charges of fraud alleged in the petition of Gaul and also presents that the different election boards accredited Gaul with more votes than he received. Briefly, in substance, it declares that a contest will result in making Gaul's vote lower and the respondent's total larger; it alleges that fraud was committed and avers that Gaul was the beneficiary.
