IS APPROACHING THE END

Defense Has Rested and Rebuttal Testimony Is Being Heard.

MISS DICKINSON IS RECALLED

Dr. Ludwig Weblau, of This City, Testified as an Expert on Insanity Every Witness for the Defendants Testified That She Acted Insane.

Dr. Oglesby, of the Danville Insane asylum, has been ill for some time and could not be present to testify as a wit-ness in the Anna E. Dickinson trespass case in United States circuit court. His deposition was read to the jury and that ended the defendant's side of the case. Rebuttal testimony was then in order and much of it was taken.

Miss Dickinson herself was on the stand when court adjourned Saturday, but had not finished, and she will be recalled when court resumes at 9 o'clock this morning. It is probable that the case will not go to the jury before tomorrow. Judge Dalley, of counsel for the plaintiff, will address the jury in Miss Dickinson's behalf, and will occupy not more than two hours; and if Judge Acheson permits it, Attorney McLain will also argue, Major Everett Warren will present to the jury the defendants' side.

The story gained considerable circulation that the plaining will address the jury. Judge Dailey stamped it as unand hold the final sessions for the true and added that Miss Dickinson fiscal year of 1894. did not for one moment consider such

Dr. John S. Hellman, having finished on Friday evening his direct testimony, was the first one called to the stand Mr. Schwenk or Mr. Lauer. Saturday morning, and he was subjectof indulging so strongly in alcoholic stimulants that he ordered her to stop and from his professional knowledge cans. of her physical and mental condition.

Thought Her Mind Unsound.

Dr. Meredith, the present superinendent of Danville asylum, was the next witness. He has been connected with the institution as a physician for the past sixteen years. The witness met Miss Dickinson the evening she was brought to Danville and she told him that her room in her own home had been invaded, herself taken by violence to a carriage and spirited away to the train for conveyance to a madhouse. During her stay at Danville Miss Dickinson lavished unusual affection on an aged inmate, "Granny" Mooney, who was afflicted with senile dementia. Miss Dickinson asked for blanks to send telegrams and addressed three to Rev. John Dickinson, San Francisco; Robert E. Pattison, and Attorneys Howe & Hummell. She did not at any time ask to have a telegram sent to the committee on lunacy of the state board of charities.

Dr. Meredith believed that she was suffering from a form of insanity known as paranola. This is a condition of insanity that does not necessold an interest. The new firm name sarily impair the memory or will-power will be Wood, Crumb, McCloskey & Robinson men landed every blow and been offered for probate and accepted by Register Hopkins.

> Major Warren asked the witness Dickinson's case. The witness admitted that any person who acted as she is alleged to have acted was undoubtedly suffering from paranola.

On cross-examination the witness admitted that he could not recall any occasion when Miss Dickenson was ir rational during her incarceration at Danville, nor was she violent or dangerous; but he saw her when she was leaving and she exhibited signs of paranole suffering. She is now in about the same mind as when she was derman Fitzsimmons on a charge of in Danville, and Dr. Meredith believes that she has paranola yet.

After She Left Danville. Dr. Meredith swore he saw Miss

Dickinson in the Broadway theater, New York, in April, 1891, when she lectured on Personal Liberty. She then spoke in a derogatory manner concerning ex-President Benjamin Harrison. Whitelaw Reid, and her sister, Miss Susan E. Dickinson. He thought that she was then affected with paranola. Dr. Ludwig Wehlau, of Mulberry street, this city, was called as an expert on insanity. Major Warren asked him hypothetical questions and the doctor answered that the actions of Miss Dickinson, such as she has been attributed with, would indicate that such a person would be acting, thinking and willing out of his accustomed manner of so doing and would be mentally affected. Insanity is a departure from an individual's normal stand of thinking, feeling and acting. Egotism and aversion to one's former friends are characteristics of paranoic patients. On cross-examination Dr. Wehlau said that if a person is justified in the selfopinionated regard then there is no

Miss Maggie Redigan testified that she saw Miss Dickinson chasing the servants through the streets. Then the deposition of Dr. Oglesby was read. It contained the statement that he examined Miss Dickinson when she was conveyed to the Danville Asylum and he concluded that she was insane.

GIANT GILBERT'S BODY.

Scranton Friends Do Not Know About His Burial Here.

Late last night the body of Colonel William Gilbert, "The Dahomey Giant," had not arrived in this city, nor could it be ascertained when the remains would be brought here.

Gilbert lived here several years ago and was at one time a special policeman in the old Arcade. He was, up to the time of his death, on exhibition in Worth's New York museum and died in that city early Friday morning. His wife announced that burial would be made in Scranton.

Dr. H. N. Dunnell, captain of the First regiment, Uniformed rank, Knights of Pythias, of which organization the deceased was a member, communicated with the New York undertaker, but received no definite reply. The giant's Scranton friends anticipate the arrival of the remains today.

HARRITY FORCE STILL LEADS

It Is an Echo of the Old Postoffice Fight-Kerr Faction Showed Up Strong. O'Boyle Men Frozen Out of the State Convention Delegations.

At Saturday night's meeting of the emocratic county committee in the Central Democratic club rooms was re yealed the extent of the factional fight between the Harrity and Kerr forces The result proved that Charles Rob-inson has not lost his grip on the Harrity reins, but that one out of every three members of the committee is dead drunkenness. One prisoner in every twelve was a female, and of both sexes against him and the lot of the brewer Democrat is not exactly a bed of roses. The call for the meeting was issued Thursday, from which time John J. O'Boyle, leader of the Kerr and anti-Harrity faction, began to sharpen his little axe. That he had succeeded quite well was indicated after Chairman John E. Roche called to order the twenty-nine members or their proxies who responded to roll call. Two appeared later, making thirty-one of the total county membership of thirty-three.

DAVIES & GRIFFIN WIN.

Awarded Within $7,000 of Their Total

The returns made Saturday morning by the arbitrators in the Davies & Griffin litigation against many insurance companies for the recovery of the fire losses in their clothing store on Lackawanna avenue, is overwhelmingly in favor of the clothiers.

The award aggregates nearly $33,000. The amount of insurance claimed was $39,000.

When the companies refused to pay the losses occasioned by the disastrous fire of last June, the firm began suit through Willard, Warren and Knapp. The refusal was made upon the ground of alleged suspicious circumstances, but at the various hearings the companies failed to present evidence in support of the allegation. Since the matter has been submitted to Arbitrators C. S. Woodruff, Charles L. Howley and J. W. Carpenter, the building on Lackawanna avenue has remained in its wrecked condition. It is not believed that the companies will take an appeal, which can be done within twenty days. The losses in proportion to the face value of the policies are as follows: Firemen's Insurance company, of San Francisco, $1,654; Niagara Insurance company, New York City, $413.70; Reumes for the year.
