TESTIMONIAL RECITAL.

liven to Professor Carter at the Elm Park Church.

George B. Carter's testimonial recital at the Elm Park church last night was successful from the initial number to the concluding piece of the concert. Miss Katherine Bloodgood, an eminent contralto of New York, was the star of the evening and created a furore of enthusiasm by the superb tone of her voice, the comprehensive range and the exquisitevibration. Miss Bloodgood sang "O Don Fatalie" from Don Carlos, and in reply to an encore gave a lullaby, "Rock-a-Bye Baby," in which the shading was perfect. Other numbers were equally well rendered.

Mr. Carter was also in splendid form, his best numbers probably being Friedreich's "Fantasie De Concert" and Guilmont's "Religious March." Miss Guthrie sang "Across the Dee" and one of De Kovan's ballads, and was awarded an encore. Richard Thomas gave three selections and acquitted himself with considerable credit. In rendering the solo "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," he retained the lower E flat in an admirable manner. Alfred Wooler sang "The Sailor's Grave" in a very sympathetic manner and replied to an encore by giving "Love, Come with

COMMON

Cases That Were Heard Yesterday Before the Judges.

ACTION AGAINST THE CITY

Brought by Mrs. Fannie Aswell Against the City on Trial Before Judge Moyer. Trespass Suit Growing Out of Alleged Higgs Mining of Coal.

The second week of common pleas court began yesterday morning, Judge Gunster presiding in the main court room, Judge Edwards in No. 2, and Judge Charles A. Mayer, of Lock Haven, Clinton county, in No. 3. The suit of William Brannon against the Metropolitan Life Insurance company was opened in the main court room and a jury sworn, which was directed to return a verdict for the defendant. The case of W. B. Christmas against Michael Reap was called next and a verdict of $4.75 returned for the plaintiff. The appeal suit of Peter Mulligan against Contractor Max Phillips was also one that did not take up much time. The defendant offered no evidence and a verdict of $29.23 was rendered by the jury in favor of the

In No. 3 court room the suit of Mrs. Fannie Aswell against the city of Scranton, was called before Judge Mayer. City Solicitor Torrey appeared for the city and Attorney I. H. Burns for the plaintiff, who lives on Tenth street between Luzerne and Washburn, on the West Side.

Claim of Damages Made. On March 17, 1891, an ordinance providing for the grading of Tenth street was approved by the municipal authorities, and in consequence of the grading Mrs. Aswell alleges that her property has been damaged to the extent of $2,000. An equal number of witnesses on each side testified in regard to the merits of the case. Those for the plaintiff swore that the property was damaged to the full limit of the amount claimed in the suit. The half dozen or more witnesses on behalf of the city on the contrary swore that the property had been enhanced in value. The testimony on both sides was all heard at statement against Miss Hallinan, but adjournment, and by corsent of the counsel and court the jury will go over fronted with Miss Hallinan's emphatic to Hyde Park at 9 o'clock this morning and by personal observation determine the damages.

Before Judge Edwards the trespass suit of Charles P. Hallock against the former, through ex-Senator M. E. Stroud & Chamberlain was still in McDonald, has begun action to recover progress when court adjourned. Attorneys Ward & Horn are in the inter- sustained. est of the plaintiff and Attorneys Patterson & Wilcox for the defendants. Hallock owns a tract of land in Carbondale and he alleges that Stroud & Chamberlain, who are coal operators,. worked the veins of coal so close to his land that a large cave-in occurred and damaged his property at least $1,000. Testimony of practical mine workers and a mining engineer was brought forward by the plaintiff, whose side of the case had not been finished at adjournment. An Ejectment Suit.

The ejectment suit of Margaret Gaynor and others against S. S. Spruks and Louisa Spruks has been settled, and the following are continued: Lazarus Moyer vs. H. R. Richardson, assumpsit; William H. Maxey vs. Hillside Coal and Iron company, ejectment; James M. Everhart vs. George F. Nesbitt and G. Mortimer Lewis, ejectment; Edwin Ferris & Co., vs. A. J. Merrill, sci. fa.; A. E. Burr vs. C. B. Farries, appeal; tion company and the city of Carbondale, trespass; Joseph Chilton vs. city of Carbondale, trespass; Rebecca Flynn vs. George E. Hill, trespass.

JUROR'S WIFE SICK.

Dickinson Case Had to Be Continued for

One Week. United States circuit court opened a o'clock vesterday morning in No. 2 court room in the court house, and the Dickinson case was resumed. The plaintiff went upon the witness stand, and her counsel offered in evidence certain letters written by her from Dan-ville asylum during her incarceration there. Major Warren objected to the reading of the letters, but Judge Acheson ruled that it was proper that they should be read. While Miss Dickinson was reading a letter addressed to her brother, Rev. John Dickinson, at Los Angeles, California, she was interrupted by Judge Acheson. A messenger boy had just then arrived with a telegram announcing the impending death of a wife of one of the jurymen, John J. Greene, a at Mrs. Cushman's on Thursday and Frimerchant, of McCrays, Forest county. day, April 4 and 5. 510 Spruce street, op-The court announced that Mr. Greene posite Court House. would not be restricted from going to the bedside of his dying wife. Counsel on both sides regretted not to have the case go on, but as it is one in which the verdict will depend more spon the combined judgment of jurors. than on legal points, it was decided that it would be better not to go on with a jury of eleven. Court thereupon expressed Jury of Greene but thereupon expressed Jury Greene but the sale could not she tried the MYSTICCURE FOR RHEUcused Juror Greene, but as he could not leave for home until 1.55 p. m., it was agreed to allow Miss Dickinson to finish the reading of her letters. She proceeded and quite frequently was obliged to choke back sobs, and dry the tears that welled up in her eyes. The letter contained strong comments on her incarceration in the asylum. When the witness had concluded court adjourned until next Monday morning at 10 o'clock, when the case will be resumed in the United States court room' in the Federal building.

THE PAINTERS OF VENICE.

Sixth and Last Lecture on the History of the Lugoon Republic. The last of Rev. W. Hudson Shaw' illustrated lectures on Venice was devoted to the painters of Venice, be-ginning with Bellini, in whom high moral inspiration and the devotional spirit were united with pure forms and an absence of pietism, and including Carpaccio, Giorgione, Titian, Paul Veronese and concluding with the riotous Tintoretto. The style of each was explained and illustrated; and each school was contrasted with the corresponding great painters of Florence and Flan

WAITE'S COMEDY COMPANY. Opened a Three Days' Engagement at Frothingham Last Night.

Waite's Comedy company opened a three days' engagement at the Frothingham last night when "The Buck-eye" was presented before a large au-dience. It is an interesting comedy drama, and was presented in a most acceptable manner. Miss Carrie Louis sustained one of the leading roles and proved herself a most clever actress She was supported by a good company.

A feature of the evening's entertainment was the selections rendered by the Waite orchestra. Little Ethel May was seen in songs and dances. This afternoon the curtains raiser "Edith's Burg-lar," and a four-act comedy-drama, "Driven From Home," will be pro-duced, and tonight the comedy "Little Wild Cat" is billed as the attraction. Matinee prices are ten cents to any part of the house.

MISS HALLINAN'S GRIEF.

Story Circulated About Her by Miss Kate Mulrooney, Which She Says Is Untrue, Causes Her Engagement of Marriage to Be Broken Off.

Miss Nellie Hallinan, who resides at Green Ridge, where she is employed as a servant, began an action against Miss Kate Mulrooney, of Throop, yesterday, to recover $5,000 damages. The plaintiff alleges that through the instrupossessed of a very much damaged reputation. Miss Nellie Hallinan was loved and courted by a Dunmore young man named Michael Begley, and matters had progressed so far that a day was fixed for the wedding. Then a friend told Begley that his prospective bride was the mother of a four-year-old boy, now living at Philadelphia, and thereon an investigation was begun. The story was traced to Miss Mulrooney, who, it is said, admitted that she made the denial of the story of her motherhood. In the meantime the engagement of marriage between Miss Hallinan and Mr. Begley has been broken off, and $5,000 damages for the injury she has

BIBLE MUST NOT BE READ

Judge Gunster Rules Against Religious Exercises in Schools.

THE CONSTITUTION FORBIDS IT

Public Schools Supported by a Tax Upon All Creeds and No Sect Has More Privilege Than Another, Is the Court's Opinion-The Waverly Case.

In an opinion handed down yesterday morning Judge Gunster overruled the demurrer of the defendants in the equity proceedings brought by Secretary George E. Stevenson and Rev. D. N. Vail, directors of the Waverly bor-ough school district, against Principal Fred C. Hanyon. When the case came up for a hearing as to whether or not a preliminary injunction should be granted to restrain Hanyon from read ing the Bible and conducting religious exercises in the schools of Waverly, a demurrer was filed by the attorneys for the defense; in other words, they maintained that Hanyon was not responsible to a court of equity for his actions, because he was acting with the consent and approbation of a majority of the board, and that the Bible is re cognized by law as a part of the common school curriculum.

The opinion of Judge Gunster, if it sustained the demurrer or answer of the defendants, would have disposed of the case and settled the question of the right of a majority of any school board to include religious exercises as a part of the dally programme in the schools But Judge Gunster's opinion sets forth mentality of Miss Mulrooney she is in very emphatic terms that denominus a husband, and finds herself inational religious exercises and instruction have no place in the system of common school education; that religious exercises and sectarian instruc tion not only are not authorized by any law, common or statutary, but that they are forbidden by the constitution of Pennsylvania, and the fundamental law of the commonwealth.

Supported by General Taxation. It says that the public schools are supported by taxes collected from the public without regard to the creed or denomination of the taxpayer. The general assembly is required by the constitution to provide for the maintenance and support of a thorough and effcient system of public schools, where-in all the children of this commonwealth above the age of six years may be educated, and to appropriate at least $1,000,000 each year for that purpose, and that school directors or controllers of every district are required annually to determine the amount of school tax which shall be levied on their districts, for the ensuing year, which shall, to-gether with such additional sums as the district may be entitled to receive out of the state appropriation and man," whose name is a household word throughout the country, will arrive in necessary to keep the schools of the district in operation not less than five nor more than ten months in the year They are charged with the general supervision over the schools of their respective districts, have the appointment of all the teachers and fixing the amount of teachers' salaries, and are required to direct what branches of learning shall be taught in each school.

Must Observe Spirit of Law. However, these powers given to, and duties imposed upon, school directors and controllers, must necessarily be exstitutional prohibition, and the public welfare requires that they should be rendered and performed within the pirit as well as the letter of the law If it be true, says the opinion, as charged in the bill that Mr. Hanyon is conducting sectarian or denominational religious exercises with the pupils under his charge, whether these exercises be according to the form of the Methodist Episcopal church or of any other church, he ought to discontinue doing so, and it is the duty of the diectors, if the abuse exists, to see to it that it is eradicated at once.
