PLYMOUTH CHURCH ROLL-CALL

interesting Exercises and Many Bright and Timely Addresses-Mr. Watkins and Family Returns to Wales. Funeral of Patrick McGiuty.

The members of the Plymouth Conregational church, accompanied by veral of their friends, assembled at 8 o'clock last evening in that church to respond to the thirteenth annual rollcall of members. The pastor, Rev. Thomas A. Bell, presided. He opened the meeting with an address of welcome, expressing his gratitude for the privilege of being present, and closed by hoping for future success. The secretary, Miss Lizzie A. Evans, then called the roll, the response being very large. The heads of the various deartments made short addresses. The following deacons of the church addressed the meeting: Thomas Eynon, ex-Deacon W. G. Thomas, of West Pittston; Richard Owens, Elias E. Evans, Samuel Saville, and A. B. Eynon. The board of discipline was represented by Zeno A. Stover in a short address. W. J. Morgan, chairman of the board of trustees, then spoke on the general

T. W. Phillips spoke as chairman of the choir committee. Miss Della P. Evans gave a lengthy talk on what the mission schools have done in the church. Miss Evans has been recognized as a leader in mission work of this kind for many years. The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was represented by Miss Margaret Davies in a short talk. The auditors' report was given by Evan F. Davies. Mrs. Thomas H. Allen, chairman of the Ladies' Aid society, also spoke. Home and foreign missionary work was discussed by Mrs. D. R.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Mrs. Baldwin's Prophecy Caused Trouble at the Mills-Many Young Women Did Not Go to Work-Notes'and Personals.

Mrs. Kittie Baldwin is alleged, in one of her exhibitions of pre-science at Wilkes-Barre, to have prophesied the explosion of boilers on Monday, April , at one of the mills on the South Side. The matter was gossiped about all last week among the employes of the differ-ent mills, and from the levity with which it had been discussed, it was not anticipated that any noticeable number of the employes would take fright and emain at home. The story was that Mrs. Baldwin predicted the blowing up of a silk mill, attended with a frightful loss of life; and that the force of the concussion would work havor in steel mill adjoining. This created the impression that it was the Sauquoit Silk mill that she had in mind.

In the Sauquoit mill there are about 1,200 employes and yesterday 450 of them did not come to work. At the Meadow Brook Silk mill 275 hands are employed and seventy-three of them were so frightened that they did not ome to work. At Harvey's Silk mill, at the Lackawanna Knitting mills and the Scranton Button factory, where a large number of young women are employed, Mrs. Baldwin's rumored prophecy kept many of them away. Superintendent Davis, of the Sauquois mill, said yesterday that the nine boilers used to generate steam are so regulated as to preclude any possibility of an explosion.

A Case of Sweet Charity. On Pittston avenue, near Palm treet, lives a man named O'Malley, who moved here a short time ago from Pittston. He is blessed with a wife and family of eight children, and through illness has not been able to work and provide for them. Dr. Manley was summoned yesterday and found the man in a critical condition. He prescribed for him and notified Poor Director John Gibbons of the destitute condition of the family. There is barely enough in the house to keep the children from starving and absolutely nothing to nourish the sick man. Mr. Gibbons will provide temporary relief.

Shorter Paragraphs. Christian Hauser, of Hickory street, is seriously ill.

Mrs. Patrick Connors, of Cedar avenue, is dangerously ill. The entertainment at the Cedar Ave- Matthews Bros., Scranton. nue church will take place this even Thomas Tighe, of Pittston avenue, around again after a severe attack of the grip.

The Scranton Saengerrunde will compete at the Allentown Saengerfest, which will be held in June. A meeting of the South Scranton Building and Loan association was held last night and the remainder of the shares of stock sold. Conrad Beckerly, of Birch street, has returned home from Trenton, N. J., where he had been called upon to perform the sad duty of attending the funeral of his mother.

NORTH END NOTES.

Miss Mary C. Powell, a popular young lady of the North End, has accepted position in the office of Alderman L. N. Roberts, in the Griffin building.

Mrs. Henry Protheroe, of Oak street, died at her home Sunday evening about 8 o'clock after over a year's illness of heart disease. She was born in Merthyr Tydvil, South Wales, on March 6, thyr Tydvil, South Wales, on March 6, 1843, and was married when 21 years of age to Henry Protheroe. After living burning oil in the market. about four years in Wales they came to this country and resided for about a year in Johnstown, after which they removed to this city. Mrs. Protheroe was a prominent member of the Welsh Baptist church, where the funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Washburn Street cemetery. She i survived by her husband and seven children, Mrs. Craddo Morris, Mrs. Joseph Birtley, Mrs. Edward D. Jones Miss Mattle and David, Evan and Henry Protheroe.

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

Elita Proctor Otis will appear at the Academy of Music on Thursday evening as Nancy Sykes, in a grand production of "Oliver Twist." In support of Miss Otis, Charles Barron, the finished character actor, will be seen in his much admired portrayal of Bill Sykes. This is by no means a new part with Mr. Barron, he having successfully played it many times in the past fifteen years. W. A. Mestayer, the manager of the company, will be seen in the small part of Bumble, the London Parish Beadle. H. G. Carleton plays Fa-gin. The rest of the cast is exceptionally well placed, and especial attention has been paid to the scenic equipment of the piece. In every detail there has been no expense spared to make this production of "Oliver Twist" one of dramatic importance.

The advance sale of seats for the limited engagement of C. B. Jefferson, Klaw & Erlanger's magnificent roduction of Palmer Cox's "Brownles" at the Frothingham Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week, with a matinee Saturday, is now on. The demand all day yesterday was extraordinary, and indications point to the greatest business that has been done at the Frothingham. The management ad-vises that all seats be secured well in advance, in order that no one who desires to witness this most remarkable spectacle will be disappointed. Scranton will be the only city in Pennsylvania in which it is to appear, and in order to bring it here Arthur Frothingham guaranteed the management $3,500, which is something unusual in theatricals.

But few people, even of those in-timately connected with the profession know that E. H. Sothern, the comedian, who appears here in his new comedy, "Captain Letterblair," Friday night at the Academy of Music, is a painter of more than ordinary merit, and has ex-hibited at the Royal English Academy. Much of his spare time is still spent at his easel, but his aversion to what he terms, "unprofessional advertising," leads him to leave the pictures unsigned. Judges of artistic work are always attracted by them, and his greatest praise for them comes from professional painters, who, by the way, he esteems his warmest friends. It is also a fact, but little known, that but few of the plays Mr. Sethern produces have not been bettered by scenes, and dialogues from his own pen before they are presented to the public. In a num ber of ways Mr. Sothern is remarkable, and modesty is one of them.

WONDERFUL

BOUTE SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 10, 1894.
Mr. C. W. Campbell—Dear Sir: I have given my boy, Freddia, 7 years old, some of Dr. Campbell's Magic Worm Bugar and Tea, and to my surprise this afternoon about 2 o'clock he passed a tapeworm measuring about 35 feet in length, head and all. I have it in a bottle and any person wishing to see it can do so by calling at my store. I had tried numerous other remedies recommended for taking tapeworms, but all failed. In my estimation Dr. Campbell's is the greatest worm remedy in existence.

Yours very resmectfully,
