NEWS OF THIS VICINITY TUNKHANNOCK.

Frank F. Donley, formerly a typo at the New Age office, but lately of Montrose, has gone to Wyandising to accept a position as foreman in the Rocket office. Frank is an honest, industrious, young man and has a good knowledge of the printing business. That he will make his services valuable to the Rocket proprietors we haven't a doubt.

On Saturday the last of the Hawke families moved to Nicholson. With the removal of the stone mill to that place Tunkhannock suffered the material loss of quite a little colony of worthy citizens, which is Nicholson's gain.

Next Sabbath the last missionary services of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school for the conference year will be held, and in consequence they will antedate Easter by joining that festival with it also. An interesting programme will be rendered, and the school will indulge in their usual Easter treat of eggs and cake.

The volume of through passenger traffic on the Lehigh Valley is said to be three times as great as it was a year ago. While the Valley is one of the best and most royally-equipped trunk lines in this section, and is getting its full share of deserved patronage, yet along with the above statement must be considered the fact that a year ago the road was just convalescing from one of the worst strikes in its history, during which its passenger traffic was reduced to a minimum.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoffa visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Barth, over Sunday, while en route to Weatherly, to assume charge of their new drug store recently purchased. It is related that a man boarded a Lehigh Valley train not a thousand miles from Meshoppen station a few days ago, and thrust a legislative pass under the conductor's nose when he came along. The latter thought it was the pastboard, but not the man. "Is that your name?" he queried, eyeing the pretended legislator and pointing to the card. The fellow was slightly related to George Washington, and had to admit that it wasn't. When the conductor placidly slipped the pass into his vest pocket and collected full fare the groom that settled down over the passenger's face put a chill on the whole car, and made the brakeman hustle to turn on the steam heat, but we venture the opinion that it wasn't a fever that the way the owner of the pass felt when the return came in. If there is any grief more pungent than that which comes of having to toe the ballast or pay fare, after having luxuriated in passes for a season, the encyclopedia make no mention of it.

The Ladies' Home Missionary society will make their annual round-up at a meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church today. Various wiseacres are confidently asserting that the judicial contest is practically settled, and that the case will probably not be called up in May. Such prospects are evidently not acquainted with the nature of the contentions, neither do they realize what a plum the attorneys are getting out of it. The goose that lays golden eggs gets to the chopping block only in the story books.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tremayne go to Ashley today to visit relatives. Mrs. James Dunlop has been called to the bedside of her father, James Meeker, who is very ill at his home at Lehman. Noxen township has 240 voters. Elmer Clark, a Lemon township farmer, died of consumption Sunday morning. Mrs. James Dunlop is 50 years of age, and left a family.

Rev. Herbert Pease, of the Lewisburg university, preached at the Eatonville Baptist church Sunday. No regular pastor has served the church since the resignation of Rev. Hatch, but it is said that one will soon be called. Julius H. Winterboth, traveling salesman for a Rochester shoe house, dined with C. F. Potter, another knight of the grip, Saturday.

An order went into effect yesterday morning allowing Lehigh Valley mileage to be used on the Montrose road. Dr. A. B. Woodward, a member of the State Medical Examining board, went to Harrisburg yesterday to be present at the reorganization of the board. The Democratic county committee met in the grand jury room yesterday, pursuant to a call by Chairman Keeler. As the meeting was held for the purpose of electing a new chairman, someone nominated Asa S. Keeler to succeed himself, but the honor was promptly declined. Then somebody else moved that Hon. F. H. Platt be unanimously accorded the position, and the motion prevailed. He was empowered to choose his own secretary, and George W. Peris was selected. That being the extent of the business, the meeting adjourned.

Marriage license was granted yesterday to Herbert Ellenberger and Etta Hough, both of Lake Winola. Rev. C. H. Henry, a native of this county, who has been attending the Drew Theological seminary and doing missionary work in New York city, was calling here yesterday. He expects to be given a charge at the coming conference at Carbondale.

Yesterday was license day, and the ginslingers held the town. All applications were granted, with the exception of the Graves house, at Jenningsville, and the Forkston house, Forkston, against which remonstrances were filed. Considerable testimony in the former case was heard, but it was finally put over until this morning on account of absence of important witnesses. Some witnesses in the other case were also heard, but the matter was still on when court closed for the night.

TORTURED FOR YEARS.

A Fireman's Battle With Rheumatism. How He Conquered the Disease After Years of Misery.

Henry Wagner, assistant engineer at Fire Station No. 5, Cleveland, O., says: "For the past nine years I have suffered greatly. I would be off duty from ten days to two weeks each time, and although I tried many different so-called remedies, could not obtain any relief. When I first heard of the remarkable cures Munyon's Rheumatism Remedy was making I was very skeptical, but just about then I had a very bad attack and concluded to give them a trial. The first bottle relieved me very much, and by the time I had taken the second bottle I was completely cured. I have not had a rheumatic pain since, although I have been wet many times. Now I use Munyon's Remedies in my home and find them excellent."
