On Saturday last the Black Diamond Hook and Ladder company purchased a fine team of horses, which they will hereafter use to draw their cumbersome truck to fires. Heretofore the company have been greatly handicapped by being compelled to drag their truck by hand, and were unable to attend fires in the outlying districts. The enterprise shown by the Hookies should be appreciated by the citizens of the Pittstons. The arrangements for the funeral

HONESDALE.

Mrs. Hurley Steinbeck and daughter, Miss Stella, who have been visiting relatives here for a few weeks past, left for Scranton this morning. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jenkins are visit-

At the bottom of the obltuary notices in a recent issue of a county paper appeared an advertisement which began as follows: "Funerals at greatly re-duced prices," etc. If you are thinking of dying or committing suicide, come to Honesdale. It will pay you or your heirs. Colonel E. Call, of Scranton, was in town yesterday.
