A GOOD HEALTHY GROWTH

Finishing and Furnishing Fund Amounts to Over $350.

TWO YOUNG BOYS GIVE A SHOW

Proceeds Were Twelve Cents, the Father Gave Eight Cents and the Total Was Contributed to the Fund—Several Projects Are Under Way.

During Monday and yesterday The Tribune received $12.40 for the Finishing and Furnishing fund of the Young Men's Christian association from twenty-seven persons. This amount added to the total $34.45 last acknowledged, brings the present grand total up to $46.85.

Table with columns: Name, Amount. Includes R. D. T., N. S. C., W. S. Harris, Cash, Marshall, Meyer, F. T. E., Carl Ferns, P. Madisson, M. J. O'Hara, R. T. Miller, D. H. T., Charles Johnson, Fred Johnson, A. Mother, L. D. K., Two Boys, J. O. McMichael, Adam, Clerk, Grand total.

Two boys, Charles and Fred Johnson, of Adams avenue, gave an entertainment Monday night and were assisted by several of their young boy and girl friends. An admission of 2 cents was charged, and to the 12 cents thus realized the father added 8 cents, and the total of 20 cents was brought to The Tribune office by the boys yesterday noon.

It is just such efforts that are most appreciated by The Tribune and no matter how small a sum is realized, the young Americans will be given all the credit they deserve.

If you desire, cut this out and send with your contribution to The Tribune. FOR THE Y. M. C. A. Finishing and Furnishing Fund.

Two Large Audiences. Were attracted to the Frothingham Afternoon and Evening. Waite's Comedy company attracted large crowds to the Frothingham yesterday afternoon and evening.

Several projects to procure money for the fund have been started by members and friends of the association. The results will be announced by The Tribune within a few days.

Any person who intends making a contribution should not delay the matter. During the summer will be offered an opportunity time for renovating and repairing the building and its contents, but plans for such work will not be made until the fund is composed of a certain amount.

For the evening performance "Little Wild Cat," a mirth-provoking comedy was given. It is a comedy that gives Miss Carrie Louis a class of work that is peculiarly suited to her.
