PUNERAL OF PATRICK O'BRIEN

Requiem Mass Celebrated in St. Patrick' Church - Benjamin Jenkins and Laborer Injured in Bellevue Mine-Lecture of John Proud.

A very large funeral was that of Patrick O'Brien, of Meridian street, which occurred yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from the family home. The funeral cortege moved to St. Patrick's church, where Rev. D. A Dunne celebrated a solemn high mass of requiem. Father Dunne spoke eloquently and with feeling in reference to the young man's

The flowers consisted of a cross, an chor, star and crescent, and a pillow. The latter was inscribed "St. Brendan, No. 243, Y. M. I." and was presented by the members of that order, who attended in a body. Other delegations were: Division No. 7, Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Bellevue Mine Accidental fund. Undertaker Regan in terred the remains in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The flower-bearers were: Thomas McAndrew, John Gal agher, Thomas McMooney and Edward Walsh; pall-bearer, Thomas Mcean, John Jones, Thomas Gilbride, Injured in the Mines.

While at work in the Bellevue mines Thursday afternoon, Benjamin Jenkins, a resident of Bellevue street, was psinfully injured by a fall of top coal. Mr. Jenkins and his laborer had about finished their work for the day, when a plece of rock which had become loosened fell unexpectedly. The men were thrown down by its force and both received very painful bruises. Mr. Jen-kins and his laborer were removed to their homes. The latter resides on the South Side. They received medical at-

John Proud Lectures.

The members and friends of Lackawanna council. No. 1133. Royal Arcanum, were given a treat last evening at Harl Garl hall, on North Main avenue, in the shape of a lecture delivered by John Proud, a member of that order. Twenty-five Vears a Sufferer.

Complete Recovery-A Simple Remedy. From the Advance Argus, Greenville, Mercer Co., Pa.

With feelings of uncertainty Mrs. Wilt began the use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, but today it has no better friend than she. Mrs. Wilt is well known here, for she has lived for years within a few miles of Greenville. The following let-ter, addressed to Dr. Kennedy, will be ineresting reading for many a sick per-

"Dear Sir: For twenty-five years I have been troubled with sick and nervous head-aches, so bad that much of the time I was utterly prostrated. I tried many medi-cines, but they falled to do me any good. Last spring my son was using Favorite Remedy, and he insisted on my trying it. I did so, and used less than a bottle, and foundsit was just the medicine I needed, for I have not had a headache since. for I have not had a headache since.

It also benefited me in other ways, for my health was poor, and it acted as a tonic. I hope this letter will reach the eye of some poor sufferer, for I know if they will only try Favorite Remedy they will be thankful for it. Yours truly, Mrs. Lizzle C. Wilt, Greenville, Penn."

Such a mark of commendation proves the great value of the medicine.

Entertained with a Banquet-

At the conclusion of the concert the members of the club and a number of friends were entertained with a banquet served in the fine banquet room of the church. The menu was fine, and the delicacies were served by the ladies of the Class of Bereans, who had undertaken all the arrangements of the feast. After ample justice had been done to the bountiful spread the remainder of the evening was passed in the enjoyment of brief speeches, when various toasts were responded to, William Connell courteously discharging the duties

The toastmaster, in opening the proceedings, said that he had been asked to make a speech in which it was essential that wit should predominate and as the Irish were renowned for their wit his name would indicate that he was of that nation, but, unfortunately for them, that evening, his father was a Scotchman. Most people were fortunate in having one feast at pastor of the Hickory Street Presbya time, but they had that evening a feast in the other rooms by the Wyoming boys and girls, followed by a feast by the ladies of their church, and were in anticipation of another from the gentlemen who were announced to speak. In apologizing for the absence of Mayor Connell, who was in New York city, and who was announced to speak on "The Electric City," he referred to the fact that it was in Scranton that the idea of utilizing electricas a motive power for t cars and Scranton was street the first city in the States where the idea had been put into practical

The same remark applied to lighting the city by electricity and for this they were greatly indebted to the genius of their fellow citizen, E. B. Sturges. The city had been named the 'Electric City" by Dr. Spencer in an address made upon a public occasion, and had become widely known by the title ever since. In his opinion, he ventured to say that Scranton was the greatest town in the United States, but what it had been, or what it is, could not be compared with what it would be in the future.

Dr. Sprague on Co-education. Rev. W. H. Pearce, who was called upon to speak on "Co-education," gracefully referred to the unexpected at tendance of Dr. Sprague, of Wyoming seminary, and requested him to take his place. Dr. Sprague complied, and in an interesting manner pointed out the advantages of the co-education of young men and young women.

"Woman's Suffrage" was discussed by John Russell in a practical manner. after which Rev. James McLeod spoke with sound advice in the making of their career. The other speakers were Captain W. A. May, "Relation of College Training to Business;" T. H. Dale, "Does It Pay;" Professor Phillips, "The Girls;" Mr. Knelle, "Relation of Glee Clubs to the College," and Mr. Thorpe, "Choice of a Bride."

CIGARS

BY THE BOX

AT LESS THAN THE COST TO MANUFACTURE

We give below what the Cigars are actually worth and also what we will sell them for during the next week or ten days. There is no humbug about this sale. We would be glad to have the purchaser take them to any reliable manufacturer and have him examine the stock and the class of work and see if he would want to match them at the price at which we are selling them. The cheapest Cigars in the lot are good, sound goods, well made and good smokers. There is not a brand in the lot that is made from low grade Tobacco, and most of them are either clear Havana or seed and Havana filler and Sumatra wrapper. But a trial will soon tell any smoker what the goods are:
