ACTION ON J. H. HOUSE'S DEATH Literary and Debating Society Passes Resolutions of Condolence—James R. James is Suddenly Taken Ill. P. O. S. of A. Entertainment.

The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society held a special meeting at 8 o'clock last evening in their rooms on South Main avenue, for the purpose of taking action on the death of John H. House, of South Main avenue. David J. Davies presided. A committee consisting of John R. Edwards, Charles Daniels, W. A. Price, D. J. Davies and George T. Griffiths were appointed to draw up a set of resolutions. Each member of the committee then made a short address enumerating the many excellent qualities of Mr. House. The following resolutions were then submitted and approved:

"The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society, feeling keenly the loss sustained to it as a society in the death of John H. House, Jr., one of the brightest, brainiest and most esteemed of its members:

"Hereby resolves, That, while bowing to the will of a ruling Providence, which has called him from earthly scenes, we express the friendship we felt for the deceased, and the high regard in which we held him for his sterling manhood, gentlemanly qualities and Christian attributes:

"Be it further resolved, That we tender to the parents and immediate relatives of the deceased our sincerest sympathy for them in the hour of their bereavement."

The funeral of Mr. House will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. D. C. Hughes, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, will officiate. Interment will be made at Marcy cemetery in Durysa. He was 22 years of age and a member of Camp 323, Patriotic Order Sons of America, and the Jackson Street Baptist church. He was a young man that led a pure life, being a conscientious and devoted Christian and promoter of all religious work. The above named societies are requested to attend the funeral.

Taken Ill While at Work. James R. James, of 345 North Hyde Park avenue, assistant Fourth ward property assessor for many years, was taken suddenly ill yesterday on North Lincoln avenue. Mr. James owns some dwelling houses on the avenue, and was doing some light repairs there when he became suddenly ill with stomach trouble, which prostrated him for some time. Dr. George B. Reynolds was immediately sent for and administered for his relief. He was removed to his home on North Hyde Park, where a convalescence, and at a late hour last evening he was resting much easier.

An Evening Entertainment. An enjoyable entertainment of Camp 178, Patriotic Order Sons of America, was held last evening in their rooms, at Jenkins' hall. The room was decorated with flowers and patriotic emblems. The evening programme opened with an address by Professor George W. Phillips. Others who participated were: Watkins and Thomas Morgan, vocal solos; E. W. Scott, Fred Ginzler, J. H. Puffer, instrumental music. Daniel Jones and party rendered several selections. After the programme light refreshments were served. The lodge is growing rapidly in membership.

Brief Notes of Interest. Silas Rood was removed his studio to 123 South Main avenue. Mrs. John McAvoy, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting friends on this side. County Detective Eckert, of Luzerne county, is visiting friends in the city. The Republican league of the West Side will hold an important meeting this evening. Miss Kate Stanton, of Philadelphia, is visiting Miss Maggie Carden, of Scranton street. Dr. M. J. Williams, of South Main avenue, has returned from a business trip to Salt Lake City. The first of a series of debates between the Hyde Park Literary society and the Young People's society will be held in the First Welsh Baptist church on May 10. The contest is for the Browning cup. Washington camp, No. 323, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will hold a special meeting this evening in Masonic hall to take action on the death and make arrangements for attending the funeral of the late John H. House. The Ladies Aid society of the Scranton Street Baptist church held an egg social last evening. The tables were elegantly fitted up and the delicacies were served in excellent style. A very large number attended and the supper was much enjoyed. Rev. Thomas A. Bell and Zeno A. Stover, of the Plymouth Congregational church, have been elected as delegates to the semi-annual convention, which will be held at Blossburg on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next. On Thursday Mr. Bell will attend an installation at Arnot. Special services will be conducted in the church this evening.

SCRANTON JUST WINS. They Hold Their Nerves at Critical Periods When the Harrisburgs Failed to Bend Hits—Georgetown Soundly Wallops Old Ell. Billy Barnie's anthracite ball tossers just won from Harrisburg by one score yesterday. The Senators outbatted and made fewer errors than the Scranton men, but the Scrantons kept their nerves at critical periods, and the Harrisburgs failed to bat in runs, and so the game was won by a score of 4 to 2. In the presence of 1,500 persons the Georgetown badly whipped the Yale men in Washington. The crowd went wild. The score was 20 to 5.

Story of Scranton's Victory Over the Harrisburg Men. Harrisburg, April 11.—Scranton won from the Harrisburg team today because of the latter's inability to hit the ball at critical times. Ward, the Scranton second baseman, was by far the feature of the game. Brown, the Harrisburg pitcher, was in the box for the Scranton club for seven innings and showed up strong. Clarke's play at first base was of the gilt edge variety. Scranton's runs were made as follows: In the fifth inning Rogers, the first man up for Scranton, hit for a single; Brown knocked a fly to Childs which that player caught. Willis, who was getting a trifle wild, gave Ward his base on four bad balls, advancing Rogers to second. Brady hit for a single, scoring Rogers and advancing Ward to third. Sweeney clarified to Daily, advancing Brady. Clarke hit a hard one to the outfield, scoring both Ward and Brady and giving Scranton three runs. Whitehead, who followed, got his base on balls, but with Clarke died on base by Houle striking out. Scranton made its fourth run in the seventh inning. Ward, the first man up, hit for two bases, went to third on Brady's out from Coyne to Daily and scored on Huston's wild pitch. Sweeney struck out from Eagan to Daily. The battles were: Scranton, Brown, Johnson and Rogers; Harrisburg, Willis, Huston and Roth.

The score by innings is as follows: Scranton.....0 0 0 3 0 10 7-4 Harrisburg.....9 0 0 0 0 2 0 1-3 Earned runs—Harrisburg, 2; Scranton, 1. Two-base hits—Roth, Ward. Struck out by Willis; Huston, 1; Brown, 3. Base on balls—Off Willis, 4; Huston, 1; Brown, 1. Left on bases—Harrisburg, 7; Scranton, 15. Hit by pitcher—Meany, Clarke, Whitehead. Sacrifice hits—Roth, 2; Sweeney, Brown. Stolen bases—Huston, 2; Meany, Eagan, 2; Houle, Rogers, Clarke, Baik, Johnson, Willis, Huston. Time—1:35. Umpire—Hoover.

Georgetown Plays All Around the Big Yale Gladiators. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Washington, April 11.—Georgetown played all around Yale today, winning by the overwhelming score of 29 to 5. The game was attended by 1,500 persons, many of whom witnessed the contest from fancy turnouts and tallies. Yale played Trudeau in the box because in the games against Georgetown at critical times and being unable to bunch their hits, while Georgetown would start banging the ball and keep up a steady fusillade until the bases would be filled, when one of their sluggers would step up to the plate and drive out a home run.

The game was a promise of being close and exciting up to the third inning, when Murphy started the disorientation around old Eli's optic by driving out a home run after McGrath had made a three-bagger. The blue and gray willow widders then struck their usual gait and what happened is best told by the following: Georgetown.....0 3 1 0 3 2 8-20 Yale.....0 2 0 0 0 2 0 6-5 Earned runs—Georgetown, 13; Yale, 2. Two-base hits—Keator, Sullivan, Threese. Base hits—McCarthy, Home, Harley, McCarthy, Murphy, G. Mahoney, Double plays—E. Mahoney, McGrath, Carmody. First base on balls—By Trudeau, 5; by Mahoney, 3. Hit by pitcher—McGrath. Struck out by Mahoney, 12; by Trudeau, 6. Passed balls—Sullivan, Keator, Quimby, E. Mahoney, McGrath, Stolen bases—Time of game—2:15. Umpire—M. Sneedon.

Other Games Played. At Philadelphia—Pennsylvania.....0 1 0 2 0 0 2 0 6-5 Allentown.....0 3 4 0 3 2 4 13 Hits—Pennsylvania, 16; Allentown, 17. Errors—Pennsylvania, 3; Allentown, 2. Batteries—Dickson and Brennan; Devlin, Bakely and Milligan. At Reading—Philadelphia.....0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1-2 Philadelphia.....2 0 1 2 0 2 3 0 1-2 Hits—Reading, 11; Philadelphia, 11. Errors—Schelle, Michael, McCaffery and Smink; Casey and Clemens. At Princeton—Princeton.....0 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 4-7 Boston.....0 3 0 0 4 5 0 2 14 Hits—Princeton, 11; Boston, 11. Errors—Strout, 4; Boston, 2. Batteries—Hilbert, Jaynes, Bradley and Williams; Nicol, Sullivan, Dolan and Ganzel and Bryan. Attendance—570.

BASE BALL TIPS. Next Wednesday the championshipship season opens in the Phillies' case. Lack of team work is the greatest fault noticeable in the Phillies just at present. The Phillies were divided into two teams yesterday and played at Reading and Fortville. George Munson says the pennant race will be between Boston, New York and Philadelphia. When Rustie reported from New York he weighed 230 pounds. He has reduced himself to about 200. Umpire Betts gives this ruling on the foul tip: "The question is, 'Can a base runner steal a base, or can any play be made when a foul tip, which is the third strike, is caught?' Mr. Betts says that no play can be made and any base runner who advances a base must return to the base he occupied before the tip was caught. In returning, however, the runner cannot be put out. The same conditions govern when a foul tip is caught, as in the case of a regular batted foul ball."

JURORS HAVE NOT AGREED In the Case of Miss Ann Munley Against the City of Scranton.

TIPSTAFF WALSH'S OPINION He Believes That a Man Must Lie in the Gutter Before He Could Be Considered Drunk—Case Against the Delaware and Hudson.

Mrs. Ann Munley's suit for $30,000 against the Delaware and Hudson against the city closed before Judge Archibald in the main court room soon after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the jury retired to deliberate upon a verdict. This is the third time the case has been brought up in court. Tipstaff Anthony Walsh was on the stand yesterday morning. He was a postmaster in the Scranton police force at the time Mrs. Munley's husband fell down the air lot on Lackawanna avenue and was killed. Mr. Walsh was examined regarding the opinion he formed as to Munley's sobriety the night of the fatal accident. Judge Archibald desired to know in what state a man needed to be when Mr. Walsh considered him to be drunk and the witness said: "When he lies down and can't walk."

"Then you don't consider a man drunk until he is dead drunk?" asked Judge Archibald. John T. Jones, of lower Lackawanna avenue, a witness in behalf of the city, was wanted to give rebuttal testimony, but he did not put himself in evidence for the sheriff was sent to take him in. Judge Archibald imposed a fine of $50 for contempt of court. Architect F. L. Brown, Contractor John Benore, W. W. Archer, J. F. Hannis and William De Wilde were called before the city rested. The plaintiff called John T. Jones in rebuttal, and arguments were then made by the counsel.

Suit in Ejectment Begun. In the afternoon the case of H. C. Comegys and others against A. B. Russell and Joseph Davenport was called for trial before Judge Gunster. The plaintiff is represented by Attorneys Comegys, Shurtzoff and Willard and the defense by Attorneys H. M. Hannah and S. B. Price. The suit is an ejectment, the land in dispute being a coal tract of four acres lying partly in Scott township and partly in Blakely. A. B. Russell was the owner of the land, and he made a lease of the coal to Davenport for 10 cents a ton royalty. Davenport leased the land to Comegys & Davis, and Russell refused to recognize them, and claimed his lease to Davenport had been forfeited, hence the suit. Only a portion of plaintiff's evidence was in at adjournment.

The case of Spruks Bros. against Charles Mursch was continued yesterday morning before Judge Gunster in court room No. 2 to recover $326.08 on a mechanics' lien. The jury found a verdict for the defendant. The case of the city of Scranton against John Tierney was put on trial in the main court before Judge Archibald. City Solicitor J. H. Torrey represented the plaintiff, and Attorney E. F. Blewitt the defendant. It is a suit for the assessment against Tierney for the paving of Luzerne street and is brought on a municipal sci. lien.

Rules for new trial were granted in the cases of Murray against the borough of Wilton, and of Slowther against Harvey. Judge Simonon Presiding. John Benore was the first witness called for the plaintiff in the case of Hughes against Delaware and Hudson Canal company. He testified to having had occasion to pass this crossing on an average of once a day, and in his opinion the crossing was a very dangerous one. Ex-Judge W. J. Lewis was sworn and testified to the same condition of things as the preceding witness. W. P. Boland has occasion to cross this crossing about twice a week and in his opinion it is a very dangerous crossing. E. F. Blewitt also testified that it is a very dangerous crossing.

After the plaintiffs closed their case, Judge Jessup moved for a compulsory nonsuit on the ground that the decedent contributed to his own death. Judge Simonon was of opinion that there are certain facts which must go to a jury. The defendants then opened their case and called Henry Frey, the photographer. He testified to having taken photographs of the locality where the accident occurred. Mr. Crittenden, of Wilkes-Barre, the engineer in charge of the engine, the night of the accident, was sworn. The case will be resumed this morning.

IN LOCAL THEATERS. Aside from the importance of Mr. and Mrs. Kendall's farewell engagement at the Academy of Music Saturday evening, the prominence the play has attained is bound to draw an audience limited in numbers only by the capacity of the house. The announcement of a production in this city of "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," the most widely advertised play that has been known in years, is one that of itself would be an attraction sufficient to crowd another theater to the doors without the appearance of the distinguished couple who play the parts. Many logistic criticisms have appeared in the newspapers concerning Mrs. Kendall's interpretation of the role of Paula Tanqueray in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," and we are justified in anticipating an impersonation that will please those of her admirers who have associated this

ONE LUNG. There are many persons alive and well to-day with only one useful lung. The consumptive should not despair. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda strengthens the vital organs and supplies healthy tissue to take the place of tissue that is diseased. Highway Robbers Caught. Squad of West Side Police Clean Up a Trio of Young Highwaymen at Mid-night. Lieutenant Williams and a squad from the West Side police station went to Keyser Valley at midnight and captured William and John McNicholas, brothers, who had been concerned in the highway robbery last Saturday. The officers went to the house where the young men lived and took them in tow to the West Side police station. A colored man named John Doe, suspected of knowing more than he pretended about the robbery, was also captured. Alderman Fitzsimmons will give them a hearing this morning.

When Italy was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria. THE BUTTONS OF HIS COAT. Barber Russell, Colored, of Spruce Street, Was Betrayed by his Flashiness. Fashion plate magazines do not contain pictures that represent truer correctness in the representations of elegance of style than the living picture that adorns the promenade when on Sunday afternoons Barber J. B. Percy Russell, of Spruce street, goes out for a stroll. Mr. Russell is a gentleman of color and shines in colored society circles. One evening not long ago, after his father and shave exercise of the day was over, Mr. Russell hid himself to a social event which was attended by the cream de la creme of the colored 400, and he was dressed to the top loofiness of gray hair. The first of the party for home going, it chanced that Mrs. Frank Thomas, wife of a coachman, residing in the rear of 339 Adams avenue, was unattended by the customary escort, and with a heart beating in lustrous throbs of gallantry he vouchsafed his attention to the lady to see her safely home and was with her when she accepted.

Eventually the gate was reached and Mrs. Thomas was about to enter her home, but she turned, and Percy tarried to hear from her the expression of thanks that invariably attends and precedes the parting of a reviver. Mrs. Thomas is fair to look upon and Percy was loath to tear his gaze away. Thus commencing at the gate the stillness of the night was broken by the noise of an opening window in the upstairs of the Thomas household and in sepulchral tones broke out on the moonlight the query: "Who da?"

Mrs. Thomas hurried into the house and the barber sped on. But the husband, whose belated wife worried him, recognized in her male escort the colored Spruce street barber, and some time afterward he made violent threats, which caused Mr. Russell to appear before Alderman Fitzsimmons Wednesday and swear out a warrant for Coachman Thomas' arrest. A hearing took place in the afternoon and the alderman wanted to know how Thomas recognized the barber. He was informed that Russell had on a top coat of spring style, garnished with pearl buttons as large as saucers, each one consecrating like the glints of brightness from a fixed star, and in this way was discovered. As Coachman Thomas had threatened to vicerate the barber with a razor the alderman was bound to require him to provide bonds guaranteeing to keep the peace.
