

WORK OF THE CONFERENCE

Bishop's Charge to the Ten Candidates for the Ministry.

DUTIES THAT THEY UNDERTAKE

Abie Address Delivered by Rev. Dr. Pearce of Elm Park Church—Anniversary of the Church Extension Society Celebrated—Prohibition Section.

[Concluded from Page 1.] work in Buffalo and Chicago was also described in a most interesting manner.

CHURCH EXTENSION WORK.

Eloquent Addresses in Support of the Movement. A brilliant galaxy of talent graced the platform tonight to support the all important work of church extension.

The preliminary proceedings included a selection by the Ontario trio party, prayer by Rev. W. H. Hill and Scripture reading by Rev. John H. Race, M. A.

Rev. John B. Sweet gave a brief address on "The Church Building in its Relation to National Problems." The chairman called upon Dr. H. H. Hill, who introduced Professor Ward of Syracuse University.

Rev. Manley S. Hary, in speaking upon the subject, "The Church Building as a Factor in Practical Piety," mentioned several personal experiences where great and personal good had been accomplished by the erection of churches.

Rev. W. H. Hill, who spoke on "The Church Building, a Social Need," said: "While a loneliness oftentimes is to social life, in its push and hurry, what rests in music, yet, after all, companionship is a felt necessity every-where."

Some years ago a judge pronounced a sentence of solitary confinement for life upon a culprit. The poor fated man started to his feet in sobbing words said: "Judge, that is worse than death. Can't you possibly change it to a death sentence?"

Now the church, in the wide sweep of its ministrations, must respond to this imperative demand of our nature, if a response comes at all. It must lay hold of the whole man, it must fit itself down around all of his wants, it must touch him at every side of his life, and it is the mission of the church, not its firm mission by any means, but one of its important and imperative missions, to provide for the social wants of the masses.

The church stands for Christ in the world, to win and save it, and it should aim as Christ did, to be all things to all men. If by all means it might save some, the church cannot specialize to a spiritual end, but in reaching that end it should follow the example of the Master, and design sometimes to use what might be considered as secular means.

Whenever the church has attempted to specialize and confine itself to a single spirit or soul, apart from his mind and body, it has made either fanatics or pharisees of its members, and vastly circumscribed the realms of its imperial victories.

Depives Itself of Power. If the church limits itself simply to the teaching of the science of Christianity, caring but little, if anything, for the intellectual, social and secular side of a man's life, it deprives itself of some of the most attractive and potent instrumentalities, by which to capture and hold the splendid citadel of the soul, and not till the church lays hold of the whole man will she be able to cover the strategic point by which she can command the whole field of restless humanity for Christ.

WANT A GUARANTEE. Drawbaugh Telephone Company Asked to Pledge Itself.

The manufacturers committee of the board of trade had taken another step in the negotiations for locating in this city the manufacturing plant for the Drawbaugh telephones. At a meeting of the committee Thursday afternoon Secretary Atherton was directed to ascertain from the telephone people if they are prepared to make a proper guarantee that the provisions of former agreements with the committee shall be fulfilled.

The company has agreed to buy at a certain price a certain number of telephones manufactured within a given period. It is for a guarantee of this agreement that the committee is now waiting.

JURY COULD NOT AGREE.

Those Called in the Munley Case Discharged by the Court.

The jury in the trespass suit of Mrs. Ann Munley against the city of Scranton, which retired Thursday afternoon to deliberate, reported to court yesterday morning that they were unable to agree and were discharged from further consideration of the case.

The jurors were evenly divided on the question of the intoxication of Munley at the time of the accident and the condition of the sidewalk as to safety.

As yesterday was a legal holiday no cases were tried.

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

At the Academy of Music tonight Mr. and Mrs. Kendal will make their final appearance in this city. Next season they will tour England before opening a new theatre for them. For their farewell performance in this city Mr. and Mrs. Kendal will offer Pinner's play, "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." Pinner, the dramatist, has written many clever and bright plays, but he never knew what a renowned author he was until Mrs. Kendal played the title-role, in his latest dramatic work, "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." Neither did Mrs. Kendal's most earnest well-wishers imagine the almost unlimited scope of her powers as an actress until she essayed the part of Paula Tanqueray.

No brighter soubrette skips about on the American stage today than Florrie West, of Cosgrove and Grant's comedians. She is the beau ideal of soubrettes, pretty, bright, graceful dancer and a charming singer. In the part of Essie Ellwood in the new "Dazzler" she has more than congenial work, and is winning greater triumphs than ever before. She will be seen at the Academy of Music Monday evening in "The Dazzler."

Marion Manola and John Mason will be the attraction at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening in "Friend Fritz." Marion Manola-Mason is known all over the land as a sweet singer and accomplished actress, and John Mason is recognized as one of the foremost leading actors on the stage, so managers feel justified in guaranteeing that "Friend Fritz" next week will be one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season. The sale of seats opens Saturday evening.

Of "Ole's Luck," the play that will be presented at Davis' theater on Monday, for a 3-day engagement, the New York Herald said: "Ole's Luck" was presented for the second time this season, at the People's theater last night, to an audience that completely filled the house. Of the play we will have to repeat what we said the fore-part of the season. It is the best Swedish play that has ever appeared in New York. The company, headed by that clever comedian and singer, Richard T. Brown, is stronger than when first seen here."
