SCRANTON, APRIL 13, 1895.

THE SCRANTON OF TODAY.

Come and inspect our city. Elevation above the tide, 740 feet. Extremely healthy. Estimated population, 1895, 103,000.

The Republican party will plant its banner bravely on the platform of genuine bimetalism. It does not need and it cannot afford to coddle the sophisms of the single gold standardists.

The Recent Silver Debate.

Our respect for the address of Hon. Charles Emory Smith has been measurably increased by the perusal of what is generally called his strong plea for "honest" money, delivered in the hall of the Pennsylvania house of representatives last Wednesday night.

The arguments of Mr. Clark were well-massed and formidable. They could not easily be overturned in fair attack, because for every statement made he supplied the proof, not only certified to by official statistics but also apparently identified by many men within the circle of their own experience.

Although political exigency has apparently forced Mr. Smith into assuming a vastly different attitude from that assumed by Mr. Clark, the fact is that when, in a serious strain, toward the close of his brilliant address Mr. Smith declared that the restoration of bimetalism was absolutely essential to the recovery of depressed values, he planted himself fairly and squarely on the ground of Mr. Clark's own platform.

driven into an international bimetallic agreement if we in America will only sit patient for a time and watch the progress of foreign events. Mr. Clark, upon the other hand, pronounces boldly in favor of aggressive action, not first at London or Berlin, but first at Washington.

Mr. Smith says this aggressive course is impossible, that it is fraught with danger, that we cannot afford to try it. How does he know? How does anybody know when the thing has never yet been attempted?

The venerable editor of the Troy Times, Hon. John M. Francis, does not stand on ceremony in castigating Speaker Hamilton Fish for his betrayal at Albany of the cause of municipal reform.

Car Fenders That Fend.

Attention is directed to the communication, on another page, to Secretary Atherton from the mayor of Baltimore, in reference to the safety car fenders in use in that city. That letter, read in connection with the report of the special commission which first investigated the subject for that city, would appear to furnish abundant proof that fenders are now manufactured which "will fend."

It has been suggested that inasmuch as the charter of the People's Street Railway company antedated the incorporation of Scranton as a city, the municipal councils of Scranton would have no legal right to require the cars of the Scranton Traction company, lessee of the People's Street railway, to be equipped with fenders.

We invite the attention of local councilmen to the correspondence on another page, and suggest that it opens the way to a safe and expeditious solution of the problem of street car accidents in this city.

The Boston Standard, the recently-established American Protective association paper, already complains that merchants will not advertise in it, but it says it will, if necessary, get along without advertisers. But can it get along without readers?

A Few Words of Justice.

The Tribune agrees thoroughly with the sentiments expressed elsewhere on this page by Mr. Edward A. Niven, of Wilkes-Barre, concerning certain phases of the ending of the recent suit of Miss Anna Dickinson. It believes, with Mr. Niven, that the intelligent people of Scranton will profoundly regret the succession of circumstances which has compelled Miss Susan Dickinson to appear in a court of justice to answer before the law for a course of conduct involving infinite self-sacrifice, patience and a spirit of tolerance and affectionate regard to which we think it no more than fair to say few sisters and probably no brother would have been found adequate.

While it would be improper in us, before the case's final conclusion, to say aught concerning the sanity or lack of sanity of the distinguished plaintiff, who, in either view, receives, whether or not she desires, the sympathy of the people, we deem it a duty to express in this public fashion not simply the confidence of an overwhelming majority of intelligent Scrantonians in Miss Susan Dickinson, but also their intensified respect for her, and their appreciation of the modest heroism and loyalty which she has exhibited under these severe trials. We think this expression is due to her, notwithstanding that she TOLD BY THE STARS.

Daily Horoscope drawn by Jacobus, The Tribune Astrologer. Astrolabe cast: 1:30 a. m. for Saturday, April 12, 1895.

A child born this day will marvel that ossified intellect should so frequently predominate in ward politics. He will also be of the opinion that so long as the state board of pardons is in existence it will be impossible to squelch the Bellevue dead line gang.

Never imagine that greatness hath no flaws. Even Charles Emory Smith appears to have been hypnotized by the "honest money" logic man.

Unwittingly Right. From the Cincinnati Tribune. Mrs. Smallwort—I don't know what has come over my husband. He seems to be suffering from an attack of pessimism.

IN paint the best is the cheapest. Don't be misled by trying what is said to be "just as good," but when you paint insist upon having a genuine brand of Strictly Pure White Lead.

It costs no more per gallon than cheap paints, and lasts many times as long. Look out for the brands of White Lead offered you; any of the following are sure:

"Atlantic," "Beymer-Bauman," "Jewett," "Davis-Chambers," "Falmestock," "Armstrong & McKelvey."

Useful and Ornamental Goods.

LADIES' DESKS. CABINETS. BOOKCASES. LADIES' DRESSING TABLES. TEA TABLES AND LIBRARY TABLES, BRASS AND ONYX TABLES AND CABINETS (OF A GUARANTEED QUALITY).

Hill & Connell.

131 AND 133 WASHINGTON AVE.

AYLESWORTH'S MEAT MARKET.

The Finest in the City. The latest improved furnishings and apparatus for keeping meat, butter and eggs.

AN UNFORTUNATE CASE.

From the Philadelphia Times. It is within the memory of the present generation that Miss Anna Dickinson was the most popular and was regarded as one of the most eloquent of women on the forum in this or any other country.

SONG OF THE SEASON.

For The Tribune. "Tom asks me to go tonight, to the show, Says Ma, 'And I'm almost wild! I must answer his note— And I have no coat.' No new spring coat! Poor child!
