Sessions of the Wyoming Conference Being Held at Carbondale.

MEETING OF THE PRESBYTERY

Will Begin Monday in the Second Pres byterian Church-Events of the Week. Musical Programmes to Be Rendered Tomorrow in Churches.

Above all other church events of the week the Wyoming conference has absurbed the attention of members of all denominations. To those outside of the Methodist denomination the proceedings at Carbondale have been full of interest as indicating the marvelous growth of the great Methodist connection in one brief year. Not only in numbers, but in wealth, the Wyoming conference has had a singularly prosperous year, and this can be plainly seen by the single instance afforded in the great increase of the special fund for relief of worn-out ministers. William Connell, treasurer of the fund, who expressed hiis delight at the liberality of his fellow members, reported that since the last conference there had either been subscribed or promised the magnificent sum of $40,000 to swell the fund, the interest of which was devoted to cheering and making comfortable the last days of the veterans of the pulpit. The meeting on Thursday night, in support of the Preacher's Aid society, was a memorable one and indicated that the Methodists of the Wyoming conference were in the front in appreciating the circumstances of the aged ministers, and in the determination to fulfil their obligations in meeting the just claims of those who had devoted their lives to the service of God and his church.

Lackawanna Presbytery Meeting. On Monday the meeting of the Lacka wanna Presbytery will convene at the Second Presbyterian church, when the following programme will be observed: Monday, 7.30 p. m., sermon by Moderator Rev. W. H. Swift, Honesdale, Pa.; election of new moderator.

Tuesday, 9 to 12 a. m., devotional exercises (1/2 hour); reading minutes of last meeting; Presbyterial business. 2 to 5 p. m., Presbyterial business, 7.30 p. m., popular meeting, Rev. Dr. John MacIntosh, of Philadelphia, will speak on "Sustentation and Home Mission."

Wednesday, 9 a. m. to 12 m., one hour devotional service, including the reading of the narrative of church's religious life in the Presbytery for the year, also obituary notices and other Presbyterial business 2 to 5 p. m., Presbyterial business, including the election of commissioners to general assembly at Pittsburg, Pa. 7.30 p. m., general rally of Christian Endeavor socleties, at popular meeting on foreign missions, addressed by the celebrated missionary, Rev. Henry H. Jessup, D. and 5. D., of Beirul, Syria.

Other Events of the Week. A surprise party was tendered Rev. T. J. Collins at his residence on Hyde Park avenue on Monday night, when scores of his friends attended upon him to congratulate the reverend gentleman on the seventh anniversary of his pastorate of the First Baptist church, Scranton street. Every room in the house was soon crowded and the guests on made themselves thoroughly at me, Many baskets of refreshments in the city churches tomorrow:

IN THE RELIGIOUS WORLD accompanied the party and they enterdresses were delivered having reference to the success of Mr. Collins' pastorate

bers of his own and other churches, Mrs. Collins, who is a model pastor's wife, was also mentioned in very kind terms and the thanks of the company were extended to her for affable manner in which she had always supported all movements for the benefit of all sections of the community.

The Dutch Gap mission connected with the Providence Welsh Co. gregation Sunday school held a very delightful entertainment on Tuesday evening. This mission is in a very flourishing condition. It was started about a year and a half ago with an average attendance of forty pupils and has now reached eighty, nearly all of whom, previous to the organizing of this school, went to no school. There is also connected with it a large Junior Christian Endeavor society, which meets every Friday evening and its beneficial results are plainly seen.

The most successful entertainment and social ever conducted by the members of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church of Providence was the one which was held last Wednesday evening, when nearly 500 were served with refreshments at the close of an excellent entertainment.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Providence Welsh Congregational church have decided to run an excursion to Lake Ariel on Saturday, June 13. The Literary society of the North Main Avenue Baptist church were entertained at the residence of Charles Henwood, on Main avenue, last Tuesday evening.

The Puritan Congregational church, on Market street, was filled last Monday night, when the combined Sunday school classes of Miss Emma Humph rey and Miss Ida Powell gave an entertainment, followed by a social. programme consisted of tableaux frills, and choruses by the members of the classes, and recitations by Miss Margaret Price and Miss Grace Will-

The annual missionary meeting of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church was held recently, when $184 was given to the treasurer of the church mission fund as the Sunday school's missionary contribution for the year just ended. Various reports were given by the officials, all of which were very satisfactory, there having been an increase in all the departments. The school now numbers 360, of whom 109 are in the primary department and 255 in the intermediate and Bible classes. D. C. Seward has written an admira ble article in the Asbury Herald, giving the history of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal chucreh since June, 1873. The article is brimful of pleasant reminis cences and recollections, Coming Events. The Wyoming district convention will be held at the Asbury church June 4

Green Ridge Presbyterian Churches. The services on Easter Sunday at the Green Ridge Presbyterian church will be of absorbing interest to all who attend. The congregation will welcome the pastor, Rev. N. F. Stahl, who will return on Saturday from an extended tour in Europe. The choir and Bible school, under the leadership of C. F. Whittemore, has prepared a beautiful and interesting service for morning and evening. The music for the morning service will be given by a large chorus choir as follows:

Anthem, "The Angel Has Rolled Away the Stone"...William Conrad and Choir Solo, "Hall Easter Morn," Miss Lida J. Garagon Anthem, "This Is the Day..... Full Chorus Solo, "The Risen Lord," Mrs. C. B. Metzgar

The music for Easter Sunday at th Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church will be fully up to the standard of the quartette, and will be very attractive, At the evening service the quartette will be assisted by Mrs. Boston Willlams in a quintette by Schenecker-one of his best efforts. An Easter song by Holden, sung by Mr. Thomas; a solo of Sullivan, by Miss Dreager; "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," from the Messiah, by Miss Guthrie, will constitute the musical programme. On week from Sunday evening a double quartette will sing "The Story of the Cross" by Dudley Buck, a cantata of great beauty and effectiveness. The Ladies' quartette, interwoven by the words of Jesus as he hung upon the cross sung by the tenor, is only one of the musical features of the work. The additional quartette consists of Mrs. Williams, Mr. Mrs. Brundage, Mrs. Williams, Whittemore and Mr. Biddleman.

In the Spring.

Nearly everybody needs a good medi-cine. The impurities which have accumu-lated in the blood during the cold months must be expelled, or when the mild days come, and the effect of bracing air is lost, the body is liable to be overcome by debil-ity or some serious disease. The re-markable success achieved by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the many words of praise it has received, make it worthy your confidence. We ask you to give this medicine a trial. We are sure it will do you good. Read the testimonials published in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla, all from rella grateful people. They tell the story.
