BANQUET OF LITERARY SOCIETY

It Was Held in the Parlors of Fairchild's Hotel - Funeral of Jacob Burnell. Performance Given by the Jeanette Dramatic Club Last Evening.

The members and several friends of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society assembled at 9.30 o'clock last evening in the spacious dining parlors at Fairchild's hotel, where the second annual banquet of the society was held. A preliminary meeting was held in the furnished discussion for the members until the appointed time for the banquet. David J. Davis presided. Joseph Hughes was caterer. Three long tables were set, on which the following menu was served: Blue points, on the half shell, banquet wafers, bouillon olives, celery, white fish, anchory sauce, roast turkey, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, green peas, mashed potatoes, chicken salad, crescent rolls, salted almonds, ice cream, cake, fruit, cheese, crackers and coffee. About two hours were spent in discussing the menu, after which the toast master made the opening address, and the following toasts were responded to: "The Soclety," William A. Price; "Our City," Howard Davis: "The Stage," Emersor D. Owen and J. Myron Evans; Mr.

Owen recited "'Ostler Joe," and Mr Evans "Casey at the Bat"; "Politics," Charles E. Daniels; "Society Prophesy," Charles E. House; "Washington, Robert Williams; "Our Country," Wallace G. Moser. The speeches were given in excellent style and showed a great improvement on the work in the society. Their efforts were greatly applauded. The glee party of the society furnished music during the evening, which was much enjoyed.

Those present were: John R. Edwards, D. J. Davis, Edward W. Thayer, wards, D. J. Davis, Edward W. Thayer, Robert Williams, B. Williams, jr., of Middle Granville; Wallace G. Moser, Charles Bartine E. TEMPERANCE HALL BURNED.

Meeting Place of the Young Men's Total Abstinence Society of Sport Hill Reduced to Ashes This Morning. A bright red blaze reflected against the sky at 2 o'clock this morning society's rooms, where the question box | showed that a fierce fire had burst out and was raging in Dunmore.

Telephone messages from that local ity were received stating that the hall of the Young Men's Total Abstinence and Benevolent society, of Sport Hill, Dunmore borough, was burning, and could not be saved from destruction.

Nothing was learned in reference to the origin of the fire.

SAMUEL GOMPERS HERE.

Says That His Object Is to Arouse the Laboring Men. Samuel Gompers, of New York, expresident of the American Federation of Labor, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon and registered at the Lackawanna Valley house. Mr. Gompers was met at the train by a delegation of labor men and escorted to the hotel. He went to the court house in the aftertoon to hear Attorney T. V. Powderly, likewise an ex-labor leader, address the jury in the opening of the Leonardo Rosa homicide case.

Mr. Gompers will address a labor meeting at the hall over Samter Bros." clothing store this evening. The gentleman was seen at his room yesterday afternoon and asked to define the purpression of the past two years, and he is here to confer with the labor unions with the end in view to bring about a more thorough organization. He will try to create a sentiment in favor of shorter hours of labor and will make it a point to arouse public opinion against the "sweating" system in the tenement workshops of New York. Scranton is a large distributing point, he said, for seab shops of New York, on account of the consumption here of the product of these shops. He will demand among the laboring classes that they look for the union label on all clothing they purchase, and a transfer of trade from the merchants who sell the output of 'sweating' shops. Notwithstanding the report of the committee from the Sam Sloan division of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers that went to New York and are alleged to have investigated the shop of Hackett, Carhart & Co., Mr. Gompers said that this firm has been and threatens to continue to be obnoxious to the labor unions. The gentlemen who went to New York to investigate the matter, be said, were either duped or dishonest, ment of Sterrick's Patch, a locality on the outskirts of Peckville, and across the hills at the notorious "Ridge" in Archbald borough the celebration was along parallel lines, and in both places nearly in murder.

Michael Boarder keeps a boarding house in Sterrick's Patch and the contingent that he feeds and shelters for hire purchased several kegs of beer Sunday morning and in the evening had become so drunk that a free fight was the natural offshoot. One of the boarders, a burly Hun named Frank Bezeil, backed up by his brother, Joseph Bezell, opened the exercises by pitching into the boarding boss with the leg of a chair. The other boarders sided with the boss and the melee did not end until in the general confusion every window and article of furniture in the house was broken to pieces. Boarder, the boss, attacked savagely the first named Bezeil with a fork and slashed him painfully on the hand with the prongs, lacerating the flesh in a girls and active Turners. Physical Divery serious condition. Bezell was also rector Carl Staiber guided the exer stabbed on the cheek with a knife and received rather serious injuries. In order to escape from being carved to death by his infuriated assailants, he was obliged to plunge headlong through a window and jump a high distance from the porch to the ground. The other brother was very brutally beaten and was lucky to escape with

Number of Arrests Made.

The entire Peckville force of officers with the assistance of several citizens, succeeded in arresting all concerned in the affray, and they were locked up in the town station house. Dr. Grover was called to attend the Bezell brothers and found both very weak from loss of blood. He dressed their wounds and is festive beauty than on the first day of of the opinion that their injuries are by no means dangerous.

COMMENCEMENT EVENING.

Y. M. C. A. Educational Year Closes with an Enjoyable Event.

The second annual commencement of the Young Men's Christian association evening school was attended by a large audience of the students and their friends last night. An excellent attraction had been secured for the programme in the Marcy Male quartette of Brooklyn. The addresses of the evening were delivered by H. M. Rowley, T. J. Foster and H. C. Shafer.

A synopsis of the educational report as presented by Mr. Rowley shows that the total class enrollment in thirteen different branches was 402, and that six teachers had been employed. Certincates were is: ed to hity-nine yo men. President Dickson's prize of $5 in gold was awarded to F. H. Sanger, whose record of attendance at progress reached the highest mark.

At the close of the regular programme General Secretary Mahy announced that ice cream and cake would be served in the dining hall and that Conrad's orchestra, which had opened the programme, would continue to play in the reception room. The audience adjourned to the parlors and reception rooms and had a social time until 10.30

ANNUAL MEETING.

Held by the Congregation of the Grace Reformed Church.

The congregation of the Grace Reformed church held its annual meeting last evening. The vestrymen for the past year were re-elected, namely: G. W. Fritz, S. G. Smith, J. E. Chandler, W. T. Hackett, E. H. Ripple, R. H. Frear, T. E. Lyddon, W. W. Lathrope and A. P. Tuthill.

The pastor, Rev. G. L. Alrich, pre sented a full and interesting report of He will treat these matters fully in his his work during the past year, showing a steady and healthy growth in the membership of the church. Delegates were elected to attend the synodical council to be held in Wilming ton, Del., in October next, and were instructed to invite the council to meet here in October, 1896.

NO ONE WAS TO BLAME.

That Was the Verdict of Coroner's Jury

in Joseph Turk Case.

Now it is Olyphant's turn to move up to the head of the procession. A coroner's jury has returned a verdiet in the case of the Hungarlan, Joseph Turk, was found along the street car track in Dickson borough Friday night, that deserves to go on record. Notwithstanding all the evidence in the case the conclusion of the jury was that the man was killed on the street car tracks. Fourteen or fifteen wit nesses were sworn. The verdict was that he came to his death by being run over by a Scranton Traction company car and that no one was to blame.

BOUTH SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 10, 1894.

Mr. C. W. Campbell—Dear Sir: I have given my boy, Freddie, 7 years old, some of Dr. Campbell's Magic Worm Sugar and Tea, and to my surprise this afternoon about 2 o'clock he passed a tapeworm measuring about 85 feet in length, head and all. I have it in a bottle and any person wishing to see it can do so by calling at my store. I had tried numerous other remedies recommended for taking tapeworms, but all failed. In my estimation Dr. Campbell's is the greatest worm remedy in existence.

Yours very respectfully.
