HOME TALENT ENTERTAINMENT

Local Thespians Cover Themselves with Glory-Coming Concerts of the Scranton Lyric Club-Great Social Event. Poter Griffith Injured.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, April 17-The entertainment given at Music hall last evening for the benefit of the Leck Cornet band was a success. "The Millionaire Tramp," a comedy-drama in four acts, "The Millionaire was rendered by a company of home talent. A large audience was in at-tendance. The characters were very well taken, especially those of The Tramp, by Frank Ferguson; the villain, by H. B. Sweisport, and the tramp's daughter, by Miss Ionia Robinson. The cast was as follows: Jerry, the outcast, Robert Graham, Gerald Weston, The Millionaire Tramp, Frank Ferguson; James Blackburn, a villain, H. B. Sweisfort; Jack Worthington, Ed Burke; Colonel Lee, W. G. Williams; Mrs. Lee, Ethel Courtright; Sadie. Mamie Fagan; France Lee, the tramp's daughter, Ionia Robinson. Between acts three and four Messrs. Melton and Heston, the home variety team, introduced their celebrated singing and dancing specialty. Lyric Glee Club Concert.

cheerful spirits and the ability to fully enjoy life, come only with a healthy body and mind. The young man who suffers from nerv ous debility, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and the thousand and one derangements of mind and body that result from, unnatural, pernici ous habits usually contracted in outh, through ignorance, is thereby incapac-itated to thoroughly enjoy life. He feels tired, 'spiritless, and drowsy; his sleep is disturbed and does not refresh him as it should; the will power is weakened, morbid fears baunt him and may result in confirmed hypochondria, or melancholia and, finally, in softing of the brain, epilepsy, ("fits"), paralysis, locomotor ataxia and even in dread insanity.

To reach, re-claim and restore such unfortunates to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book of 136 pages, written in plain but chaste language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home-treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of this no-tice with ten cents in stamps, for post-age. Address, World's Dispensary Med-ical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

New York, April 17.—The tendency of stock prices at the opening was downward. General Electric suffered severely, dropping from 33 to 31%. The decline brought in sustaining orders and the stock rallied to 32%. Subsequently reports were circulated to the effect that the anthractic coal presidents were on the eye of resuming presidents were on the eve of resuming negotiations for a settlement of the allot-ment question. This led to a sharp rise in the shares of the roads interested. Jersey Central rose 1½, Reading 1½, Delaware and Hudson 1½, Lackawanna ½, Chicago Gas, Sugar, Kansas and Texas, preferred, Gas, Sugar, Kansas and Texas, preferred, Lake Eric and Western, and the Grangers were conspicuous in the rise. The advanc-ing tendency was checked because of a break in Baltimore and Ohio, caused by the passing of the dividend, which was not generally expected. Later in the day Manhattan suddenly jumped 4% and the whole list improved and closed firm. Speculation closed firm. Net changes show gains of %all4. Manhattan gained show gains of 1/4 al 1/4.
