Special to the Secanton Tribune.

Pittsten, April 18 .- One of the first questions to come before the new councils will be that of a more comodious a kit of tools scattered around him, building, in which to transact the muni- ordered his son to go to the hardware cipal affairs of our new city. A very store and buy a new screwdriver. convenient location to erect such a building would be on the unoccupied Belton. "Can's you get at the lock?" space in the rear of the Miners' Savings bank. It would not only aid in beautifying that portion of the city but would have a tendency to draw business to a central portion of the city, and increase the value of property in that vicinity. A new city hall will further the interests of a greater Pittston.

School Board Business. The school board met at Butler Hill school house this evening. Members present were Eagen, Lynett, Langan, band had bruised his finger while ex-McCormick, Abbott, Miles, Bryden and Brennan. In the absence of the regular chairman Mr. Bryden presided. *Increase. The disposition on the part of the leading companies is manifestly to mine all the coal they can sell, and this, regardless of effect, good or bad, on the trade as a whole. How long will this go on? Any agreement that may be made to be effec-tive must, as a good authority points out.

be brought about very shortly, as dealers are everywhere heavily stocked, and a great many of them have made contracts at low rates running for weeks ahead. Practically there is no new business being done at the lately advanced circular, nor at any price; and with the spring season well forward, it is a warranted assumption that no very large demand for anthracite coal can be stimulated for some time to come, agreement or no agreement on the part of the leading companies,
