HONESDALE.
Thomas McGuire, superintendent of the gas works at this place, received a telegram yesterday containing the sad intelligence that his son, A. B. McGuire, secretary and superintendent of the gas works at Urbana, O., was dead. His age was about 34 years. Mr. McGuire started yesterday afternoon for Urbana and will bring the remains to Port Jervis, where interment will be made.
Samuel J. Foster, of Syracuse, N. Y., is visiting in town.

NEWS OF THIS VICINITY TUNKHANNOCK.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will give an entertainment on Friday evening, April 26.

Miss Jennie Miner, daughter of E. J. Miner, of Lemon, is reported very low with consumption.

Edward Sheehan, a Mehoopany man, contributed $5 to our borough treasury for being drunk and disorderly upon the streets, and was allowed to depart.

Charles Russell, one of Russell Hill's most substantial citizens, was down Thursday.

Anthony Bersch and family, who have resided in Florida for a year or two past, have returned here to remain permanently.

Miss Asenath Armstrong is suffering with a severe attack of erysipelas on the face.

Mrs. S. Tracey Roberts and Mrs. J. W. Berry, of Pittston, were here Thursday.

Louis Steine, the shoe dealer, hangs out a new sign.

B. H. Brown, who has been seriously ill for several days, is reported better.

Rev. S. C. Hodge, pastor of the Presbyterian church, has been chosen as delegate to the general assembly at Pittsburg.

Bicyclers are petitioning the town council to change the borough ordinance, which prohibits riding upon the sidewalks, so that the prohibitory measure shall include only the walks in the main traveled portion of town, viz: on Tioga from Putnam to Pine street; on Warren from the court house to the Lehigh Valley depot; and on Bridge street from Church street to the Lehigh Valley railway crossing.

Appropos of the movement to send seed grain to Nebraska, we think Tunkhannock might furnish some wild oats.

Miss Alice, the 23-year-old daughter of John P. Crawford, of Lake Carey, died yesterday morning of consumption.

The funeral will be held on Sunday, with interment at Clark cemetery. She was a devoted Christian young lady, and enjoyed the esteem of the entire community. She was graduated from the Middletown, N. Y., hospital some time ago as a trained nurse, but her own failing health prevented her from engaging in active service afterward.

Gardening has begun with several enterprising citizens.

The double tenement house on Putnam street recently purchased by Mrs. J. G. Spaulding, is being raised up two or three feet to conform to the height of adjacent buildings.

Mrs. Spaulding, whose home is at Forkston, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. P. R. Borden, and overseeing the work.

S. D. Bacon, who formerly edited the Standard here, but is now proprietor of a hotel at Corning, Ia., is renewing old acquaintances here and at Nicholson.

Miss Lucy Shelp will enter Wilkes-Barre hospital about May 1 as assistant in the cooking department. Other employees in various departments of the institution from this section are Dr. C. W. Prevost, Miss Lizzie Dewey and Miss Lettie Woodhouse.

A bicycle club and wheel carnival are among the things proposed for this place. They could be easily arranged for without doubt.

The Shakespeare club met with Miss Eva Carlin last evening.

The seventeenth annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Wilkes-Barre district of the Presbytery of Lackawanna was a very pleasant occasion. About forty delegates were present, and the meeting was presided over by Mrs. Stites, of Wyoming. Besides reports from officers and delegates, Miss Grace Newton, a returned missionary from Peking, China, delivered a very interesting address. Miss Campbell read a letter from a missionary in Japan, and Mrs. Wells, of Wilkes-Barre, gave an inspiring talk. Music enlivened the sessions, and the home auxiliary gave the visiting members a bountiful lunch at both dinner and tea time. The meeting was a very pleasant and profitable one.

Report comes from Nicholson that Mrs. Floyd Kellogg, who suffered a shock of paralysis several days ago while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Hawke, is better, and hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Constable R. M. Platt returned from Pittston yesterday without Richmond, the detective, who is wanted for detaining Peter Mechie. If he is in that vicinity he is laying low.

Mrs. J. Wood Platt and daughter, Ruth, are visiting the former's parents at Kingston.

Relief in Six Hours.

FOREST CITY.
The board of trade held a meeting in the basement of Davis' Opera House last evening.

We call the attention of the high constable to the fact that the body of a dead hound has reposed for several weeks in a ditch just above the Hillside Iron and Coal company's office and in the rear of Mrs. S. Menhennett's property.

Near the deceased canine are the remains of a hen, and both are odoriferous. Where are the district inspectors appointed by a certain board of health that was formed in Forest City borough some months ago? Diphtheria, epizootic, scarlet fever and typhoid are lingering in the atmosphere, and various kinds of diseased poultry and animals that have outlived their usefulness fester on the boulevards. Somebody had better wake up or the undertakers will be over-worked one of these days.

George Davis, of Hicksville, Long Island, is visiting at the home of his brother, W. J. Davis, of J. D. Stone, recently appointed pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, at this place, will preach here, both morning and evening, on

There is but ONE and only One

True Blood Purifier

Prominently

In the Public Eye

Today and that One is

Hood's Sarsaparilla

These letters tell of Wonderful Cures by Purified Blood.

The world has never seen such marvelous cures accomplished by any medicine but Hood's Sarsaparilla. The secret of its success is that it is the best blood purifier ever produced. It is king over all forms of scrofula, salt rheum and all other blood diseases. It is the only medicine of which can be said: IT CURES by making pure, rich red blood. Read these letters:

Saved Her Sight

Another Wonder Performed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
"My little girl Hazel is now four years old. Two years ago she had the grip. After recovery her eyes grew inflamed and suppurated. For over 7 months she had to have her eyes bandaged and stay in a dark room. The family doctor and an oculist did everything possible. She did not improve and even grew worse. At last after six months he gave us the discouraging opinion that the cornea of one eye was destroyed.

And Sight Entirely Gone.

That it was doubtful if she would ever be able to see any with the other, as the sight was rapidly being destroyed in that also.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Purifies

Do not be induced to buy any other. Insist upon having Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We thought her doomed to permanent blindness. She suffered intense pain and kept her head buried in the pillows most of the time. It might be admitted to the room she would cry as if burned with a hot iron. As she was badly run down we thought before continuing the treatment we would try to build up her system and renew her strength. We began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She began to

Improve Rapidly

and by the time she had finished taking the first bottle we were able to remove the bandages and found that she could bear the light and that the sight was returning, much to our delight. She took several bottles and then was as well as ever. It is now a year since, and her eyes

Are Permanently Cured.

She can see perfectly, has had no signs of any further trouble and is in every respect perfectly healthy. We have great faith in Hood's Sarsaparilla." W. H. BURRENFIELD, 1496 Hastings St., Detroit, Mich.

Salt Rheum Cured.

"Three winters ago salt rheum broke out on my hands and became very troublesome, making large sores. I saw several doctors and tried various remedies, but all failed to afford much relief. A few months ago I commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and the trouble has entirely disappeared." Mrs. H. W. BUSHNELL, Lyon Brook, Oxford, New York.

Blood Poison.

"I became poisoned with ivy. It would break out on me, spring and fall. I had doctors but was not relieved. It would break out into sores and pimples on me and form scabs. It had not been for a neighbor recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla to me I do not think I would be alive today. I used two bottles last fall and three to his spring and it has cured me." FRANCIS A. PAYETTE, Mishawaka, Ind.

A Baby Boy Cured.

"I have used several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla for my little boy, three years of age, who has been troubled with eczema very badly. It has entirely cured him, therefore I recommend it to all mothers who have children suffering from eczema." MRS. PETER A. JOHNSON, Cranbury Station, New Jersey.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. It possesses curative powers.
