1646 and S Baking Powder

It does more work and finer work than any other. If you do not find it exactly as represented you can return it to your grocer and he will pay you back your money."

nating gas.

tinct for five hours

HER ROSARY BY HER SIDE.

Miss Lizzle Duggan Found Dead in W. J.

Battin's Residence.

gas turned full on. With the excepand had been dead many hours. Dr.

J. L. Wentz was immediately called.

and pronounced that life had been ex-ife to indicate any disturbing element.

sleeves, which were large and flowing, must have caught the stop cock and turned on the gas without her knowlprayers, it is probable that she subse-

Her mother and sister live at Peters-

FIRE IS HIS EVIL GENIUS.

Philip Schneider's Dwelling Reduced to Ashes Yesterday Morning. Seven or eight months ago fire deon Meadow avenue, South Side, and the lives of three of his young children and-one-half-story frame building in the rear of Geigle's planing mill, near Prospect avenue and Locust street.

WILLIAMS NOT GUILTY.

on Saturday.

convicted of having led astray the 15-year-old daughter of James Ward, of KILLARNEY AND THE RHINE.

pany at Davis' Theater.

seen at Davis' theater for three days, beginning this afternoon, in the suc-

The drama is in four acts, has plenty Solld Silver Watches Easily Earned.

taking orders for our fine teas, coffee spices, etc. Hundreds of boys and girls have already got them. Every watch guaranteed. You can have all the time you want in which to make up your club.

For price list and particulars send your name and address with one cent stamp to Smith Brothers, importers and dealers

Dr. Gibbons.

less Crayons in Sepla Tint at Frey's, 421

The mirrors, easels, photographs, etch-ings, engravings, water colors, etc., are on

Buy the Weber

The latest novelty is the "Trilby pin,"

DIED.

CALLENDER.—In Scranton, April 20, 1895.

Rev. Nathan Callender, pastor of the Scott Valley Baptist church, at the home of his son, A. L. Callender, 1423 Dick-son avenue. Funeral Tuesday morning. Services at the house and Scott Valley

CONNELL.—In Scranton, April 19, 1895, Thomas Connell, of 809 Capouse avenue. The remains will be taken to Plymouth on the 1.30 p. m. train Monday for inter

THOMAS.—In Olyphant, April 20, 1895, Henry Thomas, aged 64 years. He was born in Wales and was a veteran of the late war. The funeral will take place Monday at 2 o'clock and will be in charge of Grand Army of the Republic, 414. Interment will be made in Union cemetery, Peckville.

Baptist church.

sold by Turnquest only, 205 Wash, ave.

Lackawanna avenue.

an excellent company.

Toole and his company will be were sacrificed in the flames.

was found beside her on the bed.

this morning at 10 o'clock.

Cleveland Baking Fowder Co., New York, Successor to Cleveland Brothers.

Norrman & Moore FIRE INSURANCE. 120 Wyoming Ave.

FINE SHOES, BD. P. METTLETON,

WASHINGTON AVENUE.

COMMONWEALTH SHOE STore

ACKAWANNA AUNDRY.

Carpets Draperies Wall Paper Window Shades Linoleum Oil Cloth China Mattings Rugs Sweepers Bamboo Porch Shades

WILLIAMS& McANULTY of fire rang out from box 48, at the corner of Prospect avenue and Beech 127 WYOMING AVENUE street. The fire companies responding discovered the flames in a small one-

$5 REWARD!

So many complaints of irregular by Schneider, but he moved out a delivery have reached us, which entirely destroyed. we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught | Verdict Returned in the Insurance Case stealing The Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES.

A. M. Nash has opened a real estate exchange at 425 Spruce street.

Patrick Murphy, secretary of District Assembly No. 49. New York city, will speak Tuesday evening in Music hall on the labor question.

the same place, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs and spend one year "Aristocracy" will be produced at the in the county jail. Frothingham on April 29 by Charles Frohman's company and on April 30 Stuart Robson will be seen at the same place in "The Henrietta." Will Be Produced by Mr. Toole and Com-

A class of about 200 children was confirmed at Holy Rosary church, in the North End, yesterday by Rt. Rev. Bishop O'Hara. The services were very impres-

The coroner's jury inquiring into the manner in which Butcher Lewis Getz, of West Lackawanna avenue, came to his death, will meet tonight at the court house to take further testimony.

Charles Schneider, 20 years old, of the South Side, was fined $3 in yesterday's po-lice court for calling Patrolman George Jones a vile name. The officer had requested Schneider and others not to block

-The committee on permannent certificates elected at the last session of the city institute, will hold its first examination on the third Saturday of May. Applicants may apply to Professor H. L. Bur-dick, chairman of committee, or Miss Josie Lees, secretary.

The exchanges last week at the Seran ton clearing house were as follows: April 15, $156,821.12; April 16, $132,129.18; April 17. 15, $156,821.13; April 16, $132,139.18; April 17, $141.214.65; April 18, $146.836.78; April 19, $16,029.97; April 20, $108,818.22; total $898.861.02. Clearings for the week ended April

A horse driven by unknown parties ran away on Washington avenue yesterday afternoon and crashed into the horse two-seated carriage of Baker Fred Wald-ner, which stood hitched before the residence of Frank Robling. The wagons were badly damaged. The horses became loosened. Mr. Waldner's animal was caught near Spruce street and was not in-jured; the other ran up Olive street to near Quincy avenue and yas badly cut and bruised.

exhibition today and tomorrow that will be sold at auction Wednesday, Thursday, While making repairs on the steam pipes in the street opposite the Handley row on Wyoming avenue, Michael Brannen, of the South Side, was severely scalded by escap-ing steam which poured out from a broken Friday and Saturday, at Stewart's Art Store, Y. M. C. A. building. It costs you no more to have your work connection. Before Brannon could get out of the trench the steam had almost suf-focated him as well. He was employed as a laborar by the Steam Marketing to jeweler, has the experience, skill and has established a large reputation as first-class a laborer by the Steam Heat company. His right leg and the lower part of his body suffered the worst. Dr. Hayes atwatchmaker and diamond mounter, 205 tended him and the man was taken to nis home. He will be idle for several weeks. and get the best. At Guernsey Bros. .

HORSE AND COW BURNED. They Were the Property of Mr. Wagner of Petersburg. A fire in the Tenth ward at 7 o'clock last night burned the barn of Mr. Wagner on Ash street, near Prescott avenue A horse and a cow were burned to death. It it not known how the fire originated.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

Joseph Hobbs, engineer for the Delaare, Lackawanna and Western company, has occupied his new and hand-some residence in Green Ridge.

Reuben Brown, of Ninth street, engineer on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road, has been very ill at his home since August, Mr. Brown is one of the oldest employes of the com-pany, having served as a railroader for thirty-three years.

"Trilby foot" scarf pins, sterling silver, c. at Turnquest's, 25 Wash. ave.

CONSIGNED

Jury Pinds Leonardo Rosa Guilty of Murder in the Pirst Degree.

ONLY FOUR BALLOTS NEEDED

On the First One the Jury Stood Nine for Murder in the First Degree and Three Against-Prisoner Was Unmoved by the Finding.

At 12.27 yesterday the jury in the case Rosa, who was tried for the murder Miss Lizzle Duggan, an unmarried of Vito Lauisso at Dunmore on February 27, returned a verdict of "guilt of woman about 35 years of age, met a strange death at the residence of W. murder in the first degree." The prisf. Battin, at 724 Olive street, Saturday oner was in the court room when the norning, being asphyxiated by illumverdict was read, and did not seem at all disturbed by it. He leaned over to Miss Duggan was in the best of health one of his attorneys, J. J. H. Hamilton, on Friday and retired at the usual hour. thanked him for the efforts made in his On Saturday morning a nurse called her at 6.30 o'clock, and found the door behalf, and then with firm step walked back to the prisoners' box along with locked and a strong odor of gas pre-Warden Jay, apparently the least convailing in the corridor. Receiving no answer, she informed Mr. Battin, who cerned man in the court room about what had just taken place.

forced open the door and found Miss Duggan lying dead on the bed and the The last scenes in the trial, which was in progress all week, were enacted Saturday morning. After court opened ex-Judge Ward completed his closing tion of her shoes, she was fully dressed address to the jury and was followed by District Attorney John R, Jones, who closed to the jury for the commonwealth. It was a brilliant and exhaus-The death is thought to be purely active effort replete with gems of thought cidental, as there was nothing in her and sentiment so neatly and artistically interwoven and bearing so aptly on the She was an unusually devout woman and punctillous in the discharge of her facts as to make the address in its enreligious duties. The only reasonable explanation given was that Miss Dugtirely a masterful argument to prove that Leonardo Rosa was the man who shed the life blood of his unfortunate gan turned off the gas preparatory to countryman, Vito Lauisso. saying her prayers, and that her Indge Ddwards' Charge. Judge Edwards' charge to the jury was clear, able and impartial. He dedge. Falling asleep while saying her fined the various grades of murder and the manner in which the law makes a quently awoke and fell on the bed, overdistinction between them, then recome by the escaping gas. Her resary viewed the testimony and closed by telling the jurers that their verdict should convey their honest conviction burg, in the Tenth ward, and the reand nothing else. After affirming the mains were taken there on Saturday twenty-eight law points of the defendmorning. Coroner Kelley empanyon, the following jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the following jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the following jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the following jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the following jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the following jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was then the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was the liberate on the case. It was the liberate on the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was the liberate on the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was the liberate on the case for a time the jury: W. A. Raub, F. J. liberate on the case. It was the liberate on the liberate on the case. It was the liberate on as the foreman and then took a ballot as to whether or not they should return the prisoner guilty of murder in the first degree. Nine votes were cast in favor of that proposition and three against.

Later in the day another vote was stroyed the house of Philip Schneider, taken which resulted in ten votes being east for murder in the first degree and two against-After the jurors had reached that stage they retired for the At 1.30 yesterday morning an alarm night, and vesterday morning early another ballot was taken. Ong of the jurors had changed his mind during the night and this ballot stood eleven for murder in the first degree and one against. The case was then argued and discussed at length by the twelve jurors, and at 10.40 the fourth and last The building had lately been occupied ballot was taken. It showed that the jurors were unanimous in their desire. to report a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Receiving the Verdict.

Tipstaffs Ritter and Tierney, who were in charge of the jury, were notified that the jurors were ready to replaced upon the prosecutor, K. W. God-dard.

12.20 all of these were gathered in the court room, and Judge Edwards ness of the fall. Weiss struck on a Michael Langan, of Winton, who was ordered the jurors brought in. They Ritter bringing up the rear carrying the maps and revolver offered in evidence After the jurors were seated Clerk Daniels asked the stereotyped question: "Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed upon a verdict?"

"We have," responded several, and Foreman Snyder handed a sealed envelope to Mr. Daniels, who in turn handed it to Judge Edwards. The tolling of the bell in the court house spire had attracted a large crowd to the court room and the face of Judge Edcessful comedy-drama, "Killarney and wards was eagerly scanned as he read | boarded with John Weisenfluh, on Luthe verdict. No action of his betrayed what the paper contained. He handed of action, and gives Mr. Toole an op-portunity to sing a number of songs in it back to Clerk Daniels, who said: "Gentlemen of the jury: Hearken to a superb manner. He is supported by your verdict as the court hath recorded it. You say in the case of the commonwealth against Leonardo Rosa that you find the defendant guilty of murder Any boy or girl can get a good solid silver stem winding Swiss watch free, by in the first degree. So say you all of

> "We do," they solemnly replied. The Jury Polled.

"Your honor, we ask that the jury be polled," said Attorney John G. Mc-Askie, as he stepped before the court. It was done and as each juror's name was called and he was asked what his In fine teas, coffees, spices, etc., 142 East Genesce street, Syracuse, N. Y. verdict was he replied, "Murder in the first degree." An effort will be made to secure a new trial for Rosa, who was of New York city, will be in his Scranton office, 441 Wyoming avenue, every Monday from 8 in the morning until 9 in the immediately taken back to the county jail by Warden Jay. Not seemingly at all disturbed by the verdict he ate a hearty dinner and was quite as cheer-Something new and beautiful are the Peerless Water Color Portraits and Peerful and happy as usual during the afternoon. Rosa is certainly possessed of remarkble nerve. He was never excited or uneasy during the trial, and Saturday night, while twelve men were out passing upon a matter that meant life or death to him, Rosa was sleeping as peacefully as a child. He lay down on his cot after supper and a few minutes after 7 was asleep. He was still enjoying the great refresher when the done by skilled workmen. Turnquest, the blind door was put on his cell at 9

Judge Edwards commented the jurors for the attention they had given the case and said the verdict, in his opinion, was in accordance with the evi-

Bezek and Boschino, the men recently convicted of murder in the first degree, were thought to possess remarkable nerve under trying circumstances, but they are not to be compared to Rosa There are many who belive that Rosa had assistance in the work of slaying Lauisso, and if he had there is a belief that he will decide to tell the whole truth about the matter in case he should be called upon to pay the death penalty. The Third Conviction. Rosa is the third man convicted of murder in the first degree in this county. Frank Bezek was the first, and he vas convicted by ex-District Attorney SAMPIJON.—In Duryea, April 20, 1825, Francis Fuller, son of John J. and Ella G. Sampson, aged I years and 9 months. Funeral on Monday, Services will be held at the house in the morning at 11 oclock and interment will take place at Archbald at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Kelly last December. In January Joseph Boschino was arraigned for the murder of Frank Conforti at Dunmore, It was the first case tried by John R. Jones as district attorney, and the result was conviction of murder in the first degree. first degree. In the trial of the Boschino and Rosa cases Mr. Jones has shown great skill as prosecuting attorney. His cases have been thoroughly prepared, no point being overlooked, and his ad-dresses to the jury have won him wide fame as a foremost orates

THE BUTTERFLIES.

Produced by John Drew and Company at Academy. Academy of Music, "The Butterflies," a three-act comedy of the present time by Henry Guy Carleton. Cast:

Coddle, butler to Green...Frank E. Lamb

Mrs. Osslan, mother to Frederick, Mrs. Annie Adams Suzanne Else, daugher to Green, Anna Belmont Mrs. Beverly Stuart-Dodge.

Virinia Buchanan of the commonwealth against Leonardo Mirian, her daughter Maud Adams Mr. Carleton's comedy is delightful in s simplicity and truth. There are no intricacles in the plot. It is just a plain recital of the trials and tribulations of ordinary people, brought about as they might be in real life. Of course characters are somewhat overdrawn, and scenes worked up for dramatic purposes, but these libertles are necessary to make a stage production that will have the necessary dash and go to create interest and attract people to see John Drew, in the role of Frederick Ossian, was very clever, especially in the love scenes with Miss Adams. There are those who assert that Mr. Drew, shorne of his mustache and unable longer to roll his eyes, would find his occupation gone, but the discerning critic sees in him ability as an actor that arises far above what would be required for mere posing, eye rolling and moustache pulling. . There was no two opinions, however,

As Mirian she was sweet and womanly, and so natural that one forgot she was acting. Her work was the most enjoyable of the evening performance; the one that will longest linger in the memory of those who saw "The Butterflies." Other very clever members of the company were Lewis Baker, Harry Harwood, Arthur Byron, Anna Bei-

as to the work of Miss Maud Adams

WEISS' TERRIBLE FALL.

bropped Eighty Feet in the New Hotel Jermyn and Died.

mont and Virginia Buchanan-

Charles Weiss, who had been employed as a carpenter by Contractor Schroeder at the new Hotel Jermyn, ell from the fifth story, where he had been working, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and he whirled downward through space into the cellar beneath, sustaining fatal injuries. The Lackawanna hospital ambulance was summoned and he died at that institution two hours later, without regaining consciousness.

The unfortunate carpenter was assisting in placing a temporary flooring on the fifth story. Heavy planks were being used for that purpose. There were two stout ropes reaching from the floor above to the ground, and one was securely fastened and used by the men as a help in crossing from one beam to the other. The other rope was used in hoisting the planks from the ground. It was not attached to any of the beams above, but was coiled on the Missed the Rope.

Weiss walked to the edge of the temporary planking and reached out to catch the rope for support. He made the fatal mistake of clutching the wrong rope and he lost his balance and heap of broken stone and wood in the were led by Tipstaff Tierney, Tipstaff cellar and the height of his awful tumble was about eighty feet.

Help was quickly at hand and he was removed to the first floor. Drs. Longstreet and Hayes responded and rendered medical assistance. Weiss mur mured faintly and that is all the sign of consciousness exhibited after the fall. At the hospital his injuries were examined and found to be fatal. His left arm was broken and five of his ribs, one of them piercing the left lung. The deceased was 24 years of age and came here from Hoboken. He mortaly wounded.

zerne street. Third Accident on Building.

This is the third accident in the way of falling from the hotel since the work of construction began. The first man was not injured; he struck on an iron rod, which he caught and saved himself from probable death. The second event was the plunge of "Rigger" Jordan, who escaped death, but is now a demented inmate of the insane asylum at the Hillside Home.

Coroner Kelley empanelled the following jury: P. H. Gilgallon, B. F. Squiers, M. H. Keogh, Neil McTague, W. J. Williams and Peter Rossar. An inquest will be held Thursday night in the arbitration room at the court house. Relatives had the body removed from the morgue at the Lackawanna hospital and it will be taken to Hoboken for interment. Monday evening, April 22, will be the first pay night of the second series of the first pay night of the second Loan asso-Commonwealth Building and Loan association. Office, 421 Lackawanna ave. Auction sale of fine etchings, engrayings, water colors, etc., April 17, 18, 19, 20 at Stewart's Art Store. Sterling silver "Trilby pin" sold by Turnquest, 205 Washington ave.

All goods will be sold without reserve Art Store, 218 Wyoming avenue.

Creamery or Dairy But-22c per lb.

Philadelphia Print But-25c. per lb.

Each Print stamped

COURSEN'S GREAMERY.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

EXCITING SUNDAY MELEES

Italians Draw Razors and Knives in a Street Car.

PASSENGERS TAKE A HAND their stay here.

Three of the Rioters Arrested-Landlord Jordan Thumped Mrs. Michael Lucas and Rendered Her Unconscious. He Fights with the Police.

There were two serious disturbances kind of favorite with the public on ac-in the city yesterday, either of which count of her jolly nature, which makes might have ended in murder, A woman was violently assaulted by her a natural comedienne. The opera with landlord on the West Side during the which the company will open its enafternoon, and at 10 o'clock last night six Italians took possession of a street car on Adams avenue, and in the fight which followed two revolvers and two razors were drawn upon the crew and passengers. A Dunmore suburban, car inward bound, contained six Italians, slightly intoxicated, and several American male passengers. The Italians were profune and noisy. Near Marion street Con-ductor Messitt ordered them to be quiet. One of the Italians pulled a revolver partly from his pocket, but pushed it back again and then grasped the conductor by the arms. A scuffle ensued, and another Italian who whipped a razor from his pocket and had started or the combatants, was knocked to the floor of the car by a passenger. That was the sequal for a genera fight, in which Motorman O'Donnell Conductor Messitt and three of the American passengers pitted themselves against the others. The names of the Americans were the Messrs, Cook, brothers, of the South Side, and a Mr. March. The Italians were prevented from using their weapons and agreed to behave, after they had got the wors: of the short tussle-

Police Take a Hand.

Conductor Messitt then ran to the county jail, procured a revolver and telephoned to the dispatcher's office From the dispatcher's office the police received word of the trouble. Lieutenant Davis and Patrolmen Slout Mills and May were taken by a car to the switch on Adams avenue, near Olive street, where they met the car in which the rioting occurred. Three of the Italians had got away after the fight, but the remaining three were arrested and locked in the central police station. A five-shot, forty-two-calibre revolver and a razor were taken from wo of the men.

At 1816 Luzerne street, about o'clock, Mrs. Michael Lucas, a Slav, was assaulted by her landlord, James Jordan. The woman was rendered un-conscious, and the landlord was arrested.

Mrs. Lucas had called upon Jordan to expostulate over his demand for rent, which she claimed had been paid. The visit ended in a scuffle, during which Jordan jabbed his fist so viciously into the woman's stomach and abdomen as to knock her senseless. She lay for a half hour in the yard surrounded by scores of her countrymen and women. They threatened the landlord's life and he barricaded his loors against them.

Locked Himself in a Room.

When Patrolmen Peters and Gurrell and Detective Dyer arrived, Jordan had locked hmself in a bedroom and reagainst L. P. Williams, charged with forgery, which was called before Judge Archbald on Friday, a verdict of not guilty was returned and the costs placed upon the prosecutor K W God. It was only after considerathat Jordan was brought to terms. At midnight last night no word of Mrs. Lucas' condition had reached the West Side police station.

> NO MURDER AT PECKVILLE. But Riot and Drunkeness Reigned Su preme All Along the Line. A story to the effect that a murder had been committed at Peckville was widely circulated about the city yesterday. There was no such tragic event, nor was any of the thirsty denizens

Saturday was pay day at all the collieries up the valley from the city line to Peckville and the foreigners, intoxicated with the fine weather as well as the juice of the grape, diverted themselves to the task of raising a perfect pandemonium. In front of nearly every door inhabited by the Huns and Polanders, from one to five empty beer kegs were on exhibition. Cheap Western Rates, via. the Nickel

Plate Road. On the occasion of the Home Seekers' excursion, April 23. For rates and information call on nearest ticket agent, or address F. J. Moore, general agent, No. 23 Exchange street, Buffalo, N. Y. Pillsbury's Flour Mills have a capacity of 17,500 barrels a day.

Have you ever seen the "Trilby pin?" Furnquest keeps them at 205 Wash, ave. * Etchings, water colors, etc., framed and unframed, at a great sacrifice. Stewart's Art Store, Y. M. C. A. building.

HASLAGHER'S MILLINERY

We will have a special sale all week of Ladies' Misses' and Children's Trimmed Hats,

ALL NEW AND LATEST STYLES

Others may copy our methods, but they cannot offer the same values, styles or assortment to to select from. We deal in Millinery exclusively and on an extensive scale, and by carefully making an investment we are certain you will say that the place to buy Millinery is at

HASLACHER'S -: MILLINERY

H. LANGFELD, Successor, 324 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

BEST SETS OF TEETH, $8.00 Including the painless extracting of teeth by an entirely new process.

S. C. SNYDER, D. D. S., 221 SPRUCE STREET.

WEEK OF COMIC OPERA. THE EASTER RUSH

Aborn Company Will Open a Week's Engagement Tonight. The Milton Aborn Opera company, which opens a week's engagement at the Academy of Music tonight, has a repertoire of forty-seven operas. They will produce their best works during Miss Louisa Moore, prima donna so-prano, is the youngest operatic prima donna in America. Although but 18 yearsold, she sings the leading soprano roles of the operas with rare cleverness. She possesses a fine voice and makes a pretty picture on the stage. Miss Sylvester Cornish is the biggest her invaluable in comedy roles. She is which the company will open its engagement tonight is "The Tar and Tartar."

CLOVER

TIMOTHY

LAWN GRASS,

ONION SETS

FLOWER SEED

All Fresh.

A WHITE

for 5 Cents

Every Day, Nor

VEGETABLE SEED

Bulk and Package.

SCRANTON

CASH STORE

F. P. PRICE, Agent.

Imported China Cup and Saucer

Is Something You Don't See

A Full Size, Decorated,

You to See These Goods P

C. S. WOOLWORTH

319 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

THE CELEBRATED

205 Washington Av. Scranton.Pa.

Green and Gold Store Frant

China Cuspidore,

For 25c.

Won't It

Pay

Every Store. We Have Them, However,

Highest Grade Goods and

HUNGARIAN GRASS

OUR TRIMMED HATS SEEDS

MILLINERY

Deserve more than passing notice, for we have a large selection to choose from.

us now turn our attention to the future, and in doing so we invite you to inspect a few leading specials which we shall place on sale

56 dozen Hair Braid and Milan

Straw Hats and Bonnets at 49c.:

a choice selection in shapes in chips and fancy braid Hats, lo

during the coming week:

black and colors, at 79c.

LACES

75 pieces of Silk Lace, the latest design, at 15 cents per yard for this week only. FOR INFANTS

We have the largest line of Infants' Caps and also long and short Coats.

CAPES

Velvet Capes at Silk Capes at . Cloth Double Cape at

SEPARATE SKIRTS

A Fine Black Cheviot at $2.98 Fancy Figured Mohair at

SOMETHING NEW

The Adjustable Skirt, which can also be used for an Opera Cape. Silk Waists in all colors at $2.99

J. BOLZ, WYOMING AVE NEXT TO THE DIME BANK:

SUCCESS BY ACCIDENT.

There has been no accident about ours. It is simply the natural result of energy, due preparation, anticipation and action along the most progressive lines of modern merchandising. We make a diagnosis of the condition of business and the wants of our patrons, prescribing for them the Best and Most Stylish Garments At the least possible prices. No! Not chance! Our success is but the natural result of a more intelligent service and a greater effort in your behalf. We also feel that when you want jewelry you'll go to a jeweler, and when you want bicycles you'll go to bicycle agents --- and when you want clothing you should go to a clothier.

If we haven't the best line of Ten Dollar Suits --- single and double-breasted sacks and cutaways --- in town, you needn't buy of us.

Have Removed

To Their New Store

320 LACKAWANNA AVE

J. LAWRENCE STELLE,

MUSIC DEALER,

REMOVED TO 303 SPRUCE STREET, SCRANTON.

Sheet Music, Music Folies and Small Musical Instruments at Greatly Reduced Prices.