FOUNDERS' DAY OBSERVANCE

Interesting Services Held at the Scranton Street Baptist Church--Rev. F. P. Doty Assumes Charge of Hampton Street M. E. Church--Other News Notes.

The Founder's day exercises, which were observed yesterday morning and evening in the First Baptist church on Scranton street, were the most interesting which have been held within the history of the church. The room was beautifully decorated. The pulpit was adorned with a large American flag and an array of potted plants and cut flowers formed an embankment around the base of the platform. At 10:30 a. m. the morning service opened with singing of the Doxology. After a short season of prayer and song Rev. T. J. Collins preached an eloquent sermon on the work and object of the Young People's Baptist union. His text was taken from I Peter iii, 15, saying: "Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you." During his discourse, Mr. Collins said: "Our Young People's Baptist union, which was organized in a night but has been the growth of years. Like the now gigantic oak, it has put out deep and firm roots before attaining any great height. Our distinctive principles have necessitated the use of young people's societies in their preparation for the great movement of religion."

"Recently the young people have organized in various parts of the country, and are now strong in numbers. For years they had been neglected and were not able to go out and affiliate with other societies. So the young people's idea was to federate. A number of men, such as Dr. McArthur, Hedson, Ben Griffiths and C. C. Biddling, held a meeting and decided to have an international organization to teach young Baptists. The four following principles were to be involved: Distinct principles, Baptist history, better preparation for home work, and better acquaintance with each other. Their first meeting was at Chicago, July 8, 1891, when 2,900 delegates were present. In 1892 they met at Detroit, Mich., with 4,117 delegates, and in 1893, at Indianapolis with 3,969 delegates. The next meeting will be held at Baltimore, this coming July on the 18, 19, 20 and 21."

The evening programme opened at 7:30 o'clock with a song by the congregation. The Lord's prayer was then recited in concert. Dr. B. G. Beddoe gave a short address with words of salutation. Dr. Beddoe, whose address was "The Young People's Society," expressed his hope that the Young People's society would continue to thrive. A Scripture reading by Vice-President Belden and members of the congregation then followed. The explanation of the method and purpose of the programme was given by Dr. Beddoe, whose address was interesting and received with attention. The next feature was a march and song by the junior department. Miss Ruth Beddoe, a bright, young lady, gave "The History of the Society." The subject "What Juniors Do" was given by Miss Mattie Watkins. Question drill, memory verses and singing followed. Scripture reading was given by Henry Davies, after which John Armstrong read a paper on the "Hope of Society." Rev. T. J. Collins made an address entitled "The Federation of Young Baptist People," showing that it is a movement of strength. On the concluding thoughts of "Our Baptist Heritage," the following talks were given: "Our Suffering," Miss Edith Williams; "Our Gifts," W. D. Morris; and "Our Songs," Miss Lavina Tomlinson. The meeting closed with singing. The exercises were the most successful ever held.

Rev. F. P. Doty's New Pastorate. Rev. F. P. Doty, formerly of Peckville, the new pastor of the Hampton Street Methodist church, assumed his new duties yesterday. At both morning and evening services special music was sung under the direction of Chorister H. C. Hinman, and Mr. Doty preached two thoughtful sermons. The morning theme was "The Resurrection," and the text taken from I Corinthians, xv, 14, saying: "And if Christ be not risen then is our preaching in vain and your faith is also vain." Mr. Doty chose as his theme last evening, "At the Cross." His text was Luke, xxiii, 33: "And when they came to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified Him and the malefactors." During his evening discourse Mr. Doty began with reference to Calvary and its location, with a short account of its use and the methods of the Jews in crucifying. The next point in the sermon was the cause of Christ's being at the cross. Mr. Doty portrayed the ride to Jerusalem, Christ's sacrifice and the depth of the misery which required his death. The closing lines were of Christ's satisfaction at this finished work. The number that greeted Mr. Doty last evening was very large, and all expressed their intention of working with zeal for the benefit of church work and united in giving the new pastor a hearty welcome.

Death of an Old Resident. On Saturday morning Mrs. Jeremiah Seaves, a well known resident of the West Side, died at her home on Luce street after a lingering illness of many months' duration. Deceased has resided on the West Side for more than thirty years and was a woman of kind and loving disposition. Mrs. Seaves was 86 years of age and was born in...

Wales. She is survived by the following children; Mrs. John R. Richards, Mrs. Howell Morgan, Mrs. Christopher Heavers and Thomas J. Davies. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, interment in Washburn Street cemetery.

Ball Season Opens. The base ball season opened on the game which was played on Gammon's hill between the Sailors and the Stars, two local clubs, between whom the spirit of rivalry is great. The score was 15 to 9 in favor of the Sailors. The game contained many features and was well played. The personnel of the clubs is as follows: Sailors--Holly, catcher; Butcher, pitcher; Dale, shortstop; Boston, first base; Hughes, second base; Davis, third base; Edwards, left field; Schuster, right field; Jones, center field. Stars--Smith, catcher; Moser, pitcher; Watkins, shortstop; Thomas, first base; Volbach, second base; Edwards, third base; Hughes, left field; Marsh, right field; Young, center field.

Brief Notes of Interest. D. R. Evans, of Jackson street, is ill with influenza. Mrs. J. J. Fellows, of Tenth street, visited relatives at Carbondale yesterday. A young son has arrived to brighten the home of Police Officer Thomas Lowry. Professor H. L. Morgan and Arthur Van Fleet were at Pocono, Pa., on Saturday. Miss Hattie Evans, of North Bromley avenue, is able to be out after a severe illness. Miss Nettie Evans, of Moscow, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Johns, on Scranton avenue. Rev. E. R. Lewis, of this side, preached in the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday. The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society will meet this evening in the Philosophical society rooms. Dr. W. Kessler, of Brandt, is visiting Professor and Mrs. George W. Phillips, on North Summer avenue. W. F. Gibbons occupied the pulpit of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church yesterday morning and evening. Captain and Mrs. Marshall, of Wilkes-Barre, conducted yesterday's services at the Salvation Army barracks. The attendance was large. Rev. D. C. Hughes preached an excellent sermon in the Jackson Street Baptist church last evening on the subject, "Founders' Day."

Lewis Lewis, a well-known resident of Evans court, is suffering from injuries received while at work in the Stairs mine on Thursday. The Scranton club, which will compete at the Wilkes-Barre distaffed in June, met and rehearsed at Fairchild's parlors yesterday afternoon under the leadership of William W. Evans. William Morton, of Bolton, Lancashire, England, brother of the late Thomas Morton, of Frink street, and the late Peter Morton, of Keyser avenue, arrived here on Saturday for a six weeks' visit with relatives. Three well-attended rehearsals of the Scranton United Choral Society were held yesterday in Nears' hall. At noon the basses and tenors sang, and at 3:30 in the afternoon the ladies met and rehearsed. The full evening rehearsal was attended by many prominent movers in musical circles. At a late hour on Saturday evening, William E. James, of Eynon street, died after a three years' illness. Deceased is a native of Wales and his residence was on the West Side for the past twenty-six years. He had many friends. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, interment in the Washburn Street cemetery.

CLOTHES MADE OF PEAT. A New Textile Now Largely Used in France. Underwear is now made in Paris of peat. This sounds like a joke, but there is nothing of the kind in the matter. It has been known for some time that peat has certain antiseptic qualities. A dead body which was buried in peat for over a century was found in a state of perfect preservation. Peat is used in the northern countries of Europe for surgical bandages, and the favorable results obtained by the Russian surgeons with peat bandages have induced the French army department to use it in the French hospitals. It has also been found that peat fibres in combination with other material possess wonderful absorbing properties. This has led Dr. Bassard to use peat fibres for the making of underwear in the place of flannel. The new material has proven very effective, absorbing perspiration and rapidly drying. Dr. Bassard calls his fabric a "real hydraule pump," and pronounces it an excellent preservative of colds. The new textile is already largely used in France.

"HELLFIRE DICK." Why Sir William Orpherts Enjoys That Unique Sobriquet. General Sir William Orpherts, V. C., who presided at the Lucknow dinner last night, says the London Morning Leader, is the possessor of a unique sobriquet. The manner in which he obtained it shows the kind of metal of which the fine old hero is made. At the time he was serving before Lucknow he was a dashing, daring captain. He was told that one of his guns would burst if it were served with another shell like the last. But another shell was necessary, and Orpherts was determined it should be fired. His gunners hesitated, and without another word the captain seized himself aside the gun. "Arrah, ye devils," said he, "will ye fire now?" They did; the gun did not burst; and the captain dismounted amid the cheers of his men. This is how the general is known today as "Hellfire Dick." But why "Dick" instead of "Bill"? That, however, must be asked the soldiers.

GOVERNOR HERE TODAY Comes to Attend the Opening Performance of Allatona.

PLANS FOR HIS RECEPTION Will Be Accompanied by the Members of His Staff--Hard Work That Has Been Done Preparing for the Great Armory Benefit This Week.

Governor Hastings and Mrs. Hastings and the governor's staff and suite will reach this city on this afternoon's 5 o'clock Bloomsburg train and will attend tonight's initial performance of "Allatona" in the Frothingham. The play is a military drama and will be given each night during the week and on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons for the benefit of the Thirteenth regiment.

Governor Hastings and party will be met at the station by the regiment, a platoon of policemen and a number of citizens and escorted to the Wyoming house. It had been intended to tender the governor a large reception, but this plan has been rendered impossible owing to the brevity of his visit. He will leave tomorrow morning in time to reach Harrisburg at noon. At a late hour last night no reply had been received here to a telegram sent to Harrisburg and asking who would accompany the governor. It is known, however, that the party will include Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Lyon, Adjutant General Stewart, Deputy Secretary of Internal Affairs Isaac Brown, Colonel Harry Hall, of Pittsburg, and Colonel McCain, of Philadelphia. The lieutenant governor and his wife will be entertained at the home of ex-Lieutenant Governor Watres, and Secretary Brown will be the guest of ex-County Treasurer J. W. Powell. A telegram was received yesterday at the Wyoming engaging rooms for twelve persons, which would indicate that the party will number at least fifteen. The guests will occupy boxes, and between two of the acts the governor will make a brief speech. Mrs. Hastings will be accompanied by Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Thomas Dickson and Mrs. R. W. Archibald. The night will be called "Governor's Night."

Tomorrow night will be "Veterans' Night," and in anticipation of the event an enthusiastic meeting of veterans was held Saturday night in the armory, when addresses were made by ex-Judge Knapp, ex-Captain Hines and others. Considerable enthusiasm was aroused and steps were taken to insure a crowded house tomorrow night. Wednesday will be "Firemen's Day." Active and ex-firemen have for weeks been bestirring themselves and the indications are that the result will be another full house. Joseph Clark, of Philadelphia, who has introduced and secured the passage of all the important firemen's bills in the legislature in recent years, is expected to be present.

NORTH END NOTES. A substantial flag-stone walk has been laid in front of the Spencer store on Green Ridge street. Miss Charlotte Lane, of Honesdale, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. Hendwood, of Main avenue. Contracts have been given out for the laying of crosswalks on the Green Ridge side of the river. The members of Celestial Lodge of Odd Fellows will meet on Saturday evening on eight candidates tonight. Rev. R. S. Jones, D. D., of Edna avenue, occupied the pulpit of the Spring Brook Congregational church yesterday.

Rev. W. F. Davis, of the Welsh Baptist church, occupied the pulpit of the Welsh Baptist church in Edwardsdale yesterday. Carliadawn Lodge, No. 3, of the American Order of True Iovites, will conduct a picnic in Frear's grove on August 5 and 6. A company known as the Chinchilla Ice company has leased the reservoir of the Providence Water company at Chinchilla, for the purpose of cutting and using the ice on it, which they intend to sell this summer. They have also had a number of new wagons built for the purpose of distributing it. The matter of paving North Main avenue, from Barker street to Providence road, and Carbon street to Bond avenue, is again being advocated. William Chappell, president of the North End board of trade, has decided to call a meeting of the board in the near future for reorganization, that the paving question may be brought before the public in the right light. The opposite claim that sewers should first be laid. The Providence Methodist Episcopal church was well filled both yesterday morning and last night, when Rev. William Edgar, late of Carbondale, but who has recently been appointed pastor of this church, preached his first sermon. In the evening the choir, under the direction of W. D. Watkins, rendered the anthem "Lord be Merciful" in an admirable manner. Miss Mary Davis singing the solo. Rev. Mr. Edgar took for his text the eight verse of the fifth chapter of St. Matthew, "Blessed are those in heart for they shall see God." His sermon was an eloquent effort.

A large number gathered in the Park Place Methodist Episcopal church last night, when the new pastor, Rev. G. T. Price, late of Avoca, preached an excellent sermon on the subject of "Conversion," using for his text the words found in the third verse of the thirteenth chapter of St. Matthew, "Except you will become as little children, you cannot enter the kingdom of heaven." He used as an illustration and comparison the attitude of a young child to its earthly father, in that it has absolute faith in its father's power, and always trusts him for everything that it may need.

JAMES GINLEY INJURED. Electric Car Ran Into His Carriage on Penn Avenue.

A collision between a Providence car and a horse and buggy created considerable excitement at Penn avenue and Spruce street at 11 o'clock last night. The buggy was smashed, the horse ran away and the driver was stunned. After all this had happened, the motorist insisted that he hadn't struck anything. The car was in charge of Conductor Phillip McGinley and Motorman J. Ryan. It stopped on Penn avenue just before reaching Spruce street and was bound, but was started while James Ginley was driving eastward along the cross street. The car plunged into the rear wheels of the buggy. The snapping frightened the horse, which jumped forward, the wheels of the vehicle crashing into the curbing and poles on the corner. Ginley was thrown or dragged to the ground and rendered unconscious. The horse became detached and ran to Cusick's stable, on Washington avenue, where it is owned. Ginley was taken into Ryan's drug store for repairs.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS. Death of Grocer Frederick Zang--Putting New Floor in William Connell House--Pastor Race Assumes Charge of His New Parish.

Frederick Zang, the grocer, died at his home on Pittston avenue and Birch street Saturday evening, and had been ill only since Tuesday of asthma, which a day or two prior to his death became aggravated by an attack of pneumonia. Mr. Zang was born in Germany on Oct. 18, 1835, and was therefore approaching 60 years of age. He had been a resident of the South Side thirty-five years and was classed among the most prominent and enterprising of citizens. He conducted a grocery store for fifteen years and succeeded well at the business. A widow and ten children, eight sons and two daughters, survive him. One of the sons, Charles, lives in Chicago and a telegram has been sent to him, and before he answers the time of the funeral cannot be definitely stated. Notice of it will appear tomorrow.

Other Quarters for a Week. Today a force of repairers will set to work to put in a concrete floor in the carriage room of the William Connell house company, and until the job is finished the temporary quarters of the company's equipments will be at the mule barn of William Connell & Co., about a block away. This will prevent the William Connells from responding to alarms with their usual alacrity, but this short inconvenience will be compensated afterward by the improvements, which are greatly needed.

Pastor Race's Initial Sermon. Rev. J. L. Race, the new pastor of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, greeted his congregation for the first time yesterday morning; but in the evening the sacred edifice was overcrowded in the earnestness of the members of the parish to hear their pastor's sermon, masterly and brilliant, on the subject of prayer. Rev. Mr. Race is domiciled for the present with the family of D. J. Clearwater, of Pear street.

Shorter Paragraphs of News. Fred Jones, of Pittston avenue, is indisposed with an attack of lagrippe. Improvements are progressing rapidly on the Hickory Street Baptist church. The Annie Kenney, of Pear street, will spend the next few days in New York City visiting. M. J. Dempsey's condition was better last evening, and it is hoped that his recovery is certain and speedy. Michael Barrett, of Prospect avenue, has accepted a position as clerk in the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company's store. David Lewis, of Pear street, had a thrilling experience a few days ago in Storr's shaft in the North End. He lost his way and in groping through the old workings ran into a large body of gas that his lamp ignited. He was forced to crawl from the old workings, burned as he was, until he got onto a gangway where some of the employees saw him, and he was taken out and sent to the Moses Taylor hospital. He will recover.

Visited and presented by medals of appreciation from Presidents of the United States, Grant and Hayes. Dr. Carver earned the title of the "Evil Spirit of the Plains" by being one of the greatest Indian fighters on the frontier. His associates were Buffalo Bill, Texas Jack and Wild Bill. It is said that these four gentlemen, with their truly Winchester rifles and mounted on their famous horses, could whip a whole band of Indians. Especially for Dr. Carver were the Indians always on the lookout and of him they were constantly in deadly fear. Each match will be 100 birds per man and will be shot under the American Association rules, 30-yard rise, 50-yard boundary, and from 5 unknown traps set in a segment of a circle 5 yards apart.
