POSITIVE TRAINMEN.

They Were Suro They Did Not Kill Butcher Lewis Getz.

Further testimony was taken before Coroner J. A. Kelley at the arbitration room in the court house last night in the case of Butcher Lewis Getz, whose mangled body was found on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks near the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company store on the morning of Sunday, April 14. The evidence of the crew of a freight train that passed the spot where the body was found and on the track where the body laid, was heard, but none of them could throw any light on the case. The engineer was positive that his engine did not will Getz.

The next train that passed was the express that leaves for New York at 1.55 a. m. It is drawn by two engines, and the crew of the "helper" was sworn. The engineer and fireman, both, were sure that Getz was not killed by the train of which their locomotive was a

BUILDINGS

Board of Control Decides to Erect Two of Them.

BOTH TO BE ON THE WEST SIDE

One in Fourteenth Ward to Take the Place of No. 18 School and the Other in Annexed Portion of the Fifteenth Ward.

At a meeting of the board of control held last evening it was decided to purchase plots of ground in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth wards, and to erect a school building on each. Chairman W. J. Welsh, of the building committee, presented a report ecommending the purchase of four lots in the Fifteenth ward, annexed district, at Locust avenue and Birch street, having together a frontage of 140 feet and a depth of 137 feet, for the sum of $3,000. They also recommended, as the new site for a building in the Fourteenth ward to take the place of old No. 16 school, the lots described in the propositions secured from J. R. Farr and Mrs. Millie Acker. Mr. Farr offered to sell his property on Chestnut street, occupied a present by himself, for the sum of $5.0. The property has a frontage of 75 feet and a depth of 165 feet. Mrs. Acker made an offer to sell lot No. 31 of the William Merrifield plot, adjoining Mr. Farr's property, for the sum of $9,000. The frontage of the property is 44 feet, 4 inches, the depth being 230 feet. In its report the committee recom mended that the propositions made by Mr. Farr and Mrs. Acker be accepted and the joint property purchased for the sum of $14,500. It also recommended the purchase of the property in the Fifteenth ward.

Advantages of the Property. In supporting the adoption of the recommendation T. J. Jennings explained the advantages of the Chestnut street property and said that it would give an opening from that street to Fairview avenue. In reply to F. L. Wormser, Mr. Welsh said that it was expected that the sum of $5,000 would be realized for the sale of old No. 16 school property on Chestnut street. The recommendation of the committee with regard to the purchase of the property at Locust avenue and Birch street was adopted without a dissenting vote, but when the meeting was divided on the recommendation to purchase the Chestnut street plots it was found that James A. Evans, John Devaney, W. S. Watrous and O. B. Schriefer were against the adoption of the recommendation.

The committee then presented their report with regard to the new buildngs and recommended that a school building comprising twelve rooms be erected at a cost of $3,000 per room in place of the old No. 13 school in the Fifteenth ward, and a similar building in place of the No. 16 school in the Fourteenth ward on Chestnut street. Considerable discusson ensued with reference to the proposed school in the Bellevue district, Fifteenth ward. Herman Notz, in criticising the committee's report, said that more substantial reasons should be given before they decided to erect a 12-room building, as with the excellent accommodation already provided in Hyde Park he could not bring himself to think that such a spacious building was necessary. Wanted a Limit Pixed. W. S. Watrous also objected to the osal to specify the proposed cost by the amount of $3,000 per room, and suggested that a limit of $30,000 be laced on each building. People made it their interest to get as much money as they possibly could out of the district and it behooved them to be more strict in defining the total cost of the building. They were told that the high school would cost but $150,000, but in all probability it would reach $225,000. F. L. Wormser also expressed himself strongly against the recommenda tion and urged that an eight-room school would be ample. Mr. Notz made a second speech, in which he submitted statistics tending to prove that "it was a sort of disease among members to get as large a building as they could" and also that while a total of $425,000 was spent by the board in the city, but $5,000 was expended in the South Side. Upon the principle that the South Side had been neglected he objected to the proposal to erect a twelve-room school. After many members had taken part in the discussion it was resolved to approve of the new school building on Chestnut street, but to refer the recom-

Fifteenth ward to the teachers' com-Struggle Over Architects. The building committee also recommended that they be empowered to secure architects' plans for the proposed building, but upon the motion of F. L. Wormser it was decided to make the appointment forthwith. Chairman Weish thereupon proposed John A. Duckworth to prepare plans for the mendation as to the building in the Bellevue school and the motion was oarried. T. J. Jennings proposed Mr. Davies, of the firm of Von Storch & Davis, to prepare plans for the Chestnut street school. As an amendment Mr. Watrous moved that F. L. Brown, of the firm of Brown & Morris, be appointed. Thirteen voted for the amendment (F. L. Brown), and five for the original moion (Davies). Some of the members who had voted against the amendment requested that their votes be changed. This caused Mr. Wormser to rise and propose that the meeting reconsider the vote on the amendment, when F. S. Barker asked the object of the motion. Mr. Wormser replied that it was to prevent the matter being reconsidered at another time. This explanation nad the effect of causing a number of members to leave the room, who urged others to follow them, so as to reduce the attendance below the quorum Eleven members, however, remained, who all voted against the amendmnt and the matter was thus disposed of. A letter was read from principals of hools renewing their application of last year for an increase of salaries.

The communication was referred to the finance and teachers' committees. As to Collection of Taxes.

A communication was also submitted from Judge Knapp, solicitor to the board, recommending the adoption of the act of assembly of 1889, under which cities of the third class would possess more effective powers for the collec-tion of taxes. Under the present sys-tem there was a considerable annual loss. The letter was received and placed on file for further consideration. An important communication , was also placed before the meeting from the Harrisburg school district, calling ating independent districts. Under the provision of the bill the councils would were termed "cumbrous and ineffi-cient." The teachers' cimmittee was requested to report upon the matter at the next meeting of the board.

ABORN'S OPERA COMPANY. Produced The Tar and the Tarter in an Excellent Manner. Aborn's Opera company opened vecks' engagement at the Academy of Music last night, producing "The Tap and the Tartar" before a large audience. There was not a vacant seat in with great favor. It was well mounted and staged. Milton Aborn is a natural comedian and possesses what most comedians lack, a very good voice. His work last night promptly won for him the regard of his audience. Warren D. Lombard was excellent as the flery Arab ohieftain and Frank Wooley and Louis Fitz Roy distinguished themselves in comedy roles. Miss Louise Moore, the young prima donna of the company, possesses a sweet, well trained voice and is charmingly natural on the stage. Miss Maude D'Arey, Miss Sylvester Cornish and Joseph W. Smith were others whose good work caused them to find favor with the audience.

Tonight the company will produce 'Ship Ahoy," and on Friday afternoon the same opera will be given as a benefit for the new armory fund. Mr. Burgunder will donate the house and the company their service to help along that worthy movement.

GYMNASTIC EXHIBITION.

Forthcoming Annual Drill by the Ladie: of the Scranton Y. W. C. A. The annual exhibition of the Young Women's Christian association will occur Friday evening, Msy 3, in Young Men's Christian association hall. It will be one of the those times when gentlemen are admitted and may feel themselves cordially invited to witness some of the exercises of that feature of the Young Women's Christian asso-ciation work. The gentlemen do much toward helping this good organization along, and they may feel assured that it pays when they see the results of the efforts the physical director has put forth in educating and training the muscles, nerves and wills of so many of their daughters, sisters and wives.

The programme is to be one of the nost varied they have yet had, and is being rehearsed with great enthusiasm by the participants. Besides all wear ng the usual bloomer costume, for special numbers there will be special and complete change of dress by the Ittle "tots," as well as the older ones. It is hoped no one in Scranton can say she has never seen a class of women in gymnastics, and for 35 cents admission, she may have this privilege.

MISS LOOMIS' GUARDIAN.

Reasons Why It Was Nocessary to Appoint One.

Two weeks ago Attorney A. D. Dean applied to the court for an order directing the executors of the estate of the late Judge Handley to pay to F. E. Loomis the sum of $500. Mr. Loomis' entered Thomas was sentenced on the daughter, Miss M. Estella Loomis, is one of the young people being educated was directed to pay a fine of $500 and at the expense of the late Judge Handley. She is now at school at Fort Plain, N. Y.

Before Judge Handley died he paid and the executors of the estate refu.ed Miss Helen Potts on Madison avenue, to pay the remaining $500 without order | was sent to the Huntingdon Reformavides that these young people shall con- plice, William Walsh, was sent to the completed and then that they shall re- shall have arrived at the age of 15, ceive $500.

When the attention of the court was said that they could not do anything for trial. until a guardian for Miss Loomis had been appointed. Application was therement of Mr. Dean as guardian, and he filed a bond in the sum of $5,000 for the faithful execution of his trust.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

Owing to the increasing business the Delaware and Hudson shops at Carbondale will be enlarged. Some of the curves on the Gravity just beyond Shepherd's Crook, are to be straightened, which will shorten the distance somewhat, and improve the road in every respect. The Dickson Manufacturing company has completed the first locomotive in connection with the order for the Morris and Essex division of the Delaware. Lackawanna and Western railroad.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western locomotive, No. 4-the Garret Bogart-has been overhauled and makes an excellent appearance. Mr. Bogart's monogram is tastefully painted on the fireman's cab.

The report has been circulated that the Delaware and Hudson has discontinued the sale of clerical tickets at half rate to persons actively engaged in ministerial work. This, the authoritles of the Delaware and Hudson desire to have denied, as the courtesy is still extended to persons who were formerly entitled to the same.

It is reported that the Ontario and Western officials during the coming summer will make some decided changes for the better at Hancock Junction. Among the principal improvements contemplated will be a new and more commodious depot of more modern design, which will be located near the west end of the Scranton branch Y.
