has resided on the West Side with her husband for many years and was greatly esteemed. Mrs. Owen was a woman of Christian principles and was a member of the Jackson Street Baptist church, where her husband was chorister. She is survived by three children. Two of them are Robert and Norvin Owen. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when Rev. D. C. Hughes will conduct a service at the residence. Interment will be made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

Debaters in Session. At the meeting of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society last evening in their rooms on South Main avenue an interesting programme was rendered. David J. Davies was chairman and Howard Davis secretary. The principal feature of the evening was a debate. Resolved, That bimetallism is the best financial policy. The affirmative was upheld by E. L. Williams, Evan Jones and Robert E. Williams; negative, Louis Howell, William A. Price and D. H. Williams. The remainder of the evening was devoted to three-minute talks by members on "Current topics in the news." The meeting was well attended.

HER SON IS CONTESTANT

Evan Francis Says That His Mother Was Insane.

LEFT HIM ONLY FIVE DOLLARS

The Will Was Made in 1885 and in 1892 the Woman Was Declared Insane. Evan Wants to Have It Set Aside.

Proceedings have been instituted before Register of Wills Hopkins to have the will of the late Mrs. Rachel Francis Williams, of the North End, set aside on the ground that she was insane when it was made, June 14, 1884. In that will she disposed of her property as follows: To her eldest son, James Francis, she gave a block of three tenement houses in Moosic, together with the land they stand on, and one-half interest in the remainder of her estate, after certain bequests had been paid. The other half of the estate was given to her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Beale, of New York, and her other children, Evan Francis, Mary Jane Thompson, Rachael Ann Colvin and William Francis, she cut off with $5 each.

She Was Adjudged Insane. This will was made some time after the death of her first husband. Later she married a Mr. Williams, and in 1892 by a commission, appointed by the court, she was adjudged insane, and it was further stated in the report of the commission that she had been insane for eight years prior to the inquiry. Mrs. Williams departed this life during the first part of this month, and on April 12 her son, Evan Francis, thinking that his mother left no will, applied for and obtained letters of administration from Register Hopkins. On April 18 the will was admitted to probate. It names Thomas Phillips as executor, but as Mr. Phillips is dead, letters of administration c. t. a. were granted to James Francis.

The present proceedings are for the purpose of having this will set aside on the ground that when Mrs. Williams executed it she was not possessed of sound judgment and understanding. The eight years during which the deceased was legally adjudged to be insane, reached to within a few months of the time the will was made.

Son Is the Contestant. The contestant is Evan Francis, and he is represented by Attorneys Hulslander and Vosburg. Attorney George W. Beale will appear for the will at the hearing which is set down for May 11, before Register Hopkins.

The estate left by Mrs. Williams is valuable and consists of houses and land in this city and Moosic.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS. Electric Cars Collide with Two Wagons. Residents of Minooka Have Begun to Rebuild--Meeting of Board of Trade.

Two collisions between street cars and wagons occurred yesterday afternoon on the South Side line. Motorman William Mose could not stop his conveyance quick enough to avoid banging the hind end of a large wagon, the driver of which negligently turned his horses too close to the track. The car was damaged worse than the wagon, but the passengers were severely shaken up. This occurred on the Cedar avenue bridge.

Where the wagon road crosses the track almost under the trestle of the Meadow Brook bridge, a teamster was on his way with a load of coal. Motorman Quinnan here in sight with his car and the teamster could have cleared the track without half trying. The motorman thought he would get out of the way, but he didn't. The wagon was struck and knocked into the ditch and one of the wheels broken. The teamster became infuriated and threatened to annihilate the crew of the car.

Have Begun to Rebuild. John Gallagher and Thomas Kearney, of Minooka, two men whose houses went up in the conflagration there last August, have let the contracts for the erection of new houses to replace their properties destroyed. Each intends to put up residences that will add to the number of the houses that have recently been built in Minooka. The home of John Lowry, another fire sufferer, is now almost completed and will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks.

Board of Trade Meeting. This evening a meeting of the South Side board of trade will be held at Storr's hall to decide upon the best solution of the street repairing problem; and whatever conclusion the body reaches, the same will be presented to the joint meeting of the West and South Side boards for consideration at Young Men's Christian Association hall tomorrow evening. All members of the board are urgently requested to be present this evening.

Funeral of Frederick Zang. The funeral of Grocer Frederick Zang will take place from the family residence, at Birch street and Pittston avenue, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be made in Pittston Avenue cemetery.

Shorter Paragraphs of News. Mrs. John Brooks, of Elm street, has returned from a visit to Dover, N. J., and New York city.

George A. Pyle, of the Meadow Brook Silk mill, is visiting his parents at Hackettstown, N. J.

A meeting of the parishioners of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church will be held at the church next Monday.
