J. Scott Inglis

428 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

Couldn't Afford It.
From the Washington Star.
"This is the way to get rich, young man," said the old broker, as he took his lunch of crackers and milk.
"You mean that is the way you do after you are rich," answered the younger man. "If I were to eat such stuff as that for lunch everybody would think I was broke, and wouldn't have a thing to do with me."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup seems sent as a special provision to the little folks. Pleasant to take, perfectly harmless, and absolutely sure to give instant relief in all cases of cold or lung trouble.

TALES OF TWO PITTSBORO

News of Interest to Readers Up and Down the Valley.

THE BASKET BALL STANDING

The Game to Be Played Off at Kingston.
Funeral of John Sartia--Reception to Miss Cate Is Largely Attended--Other Notes.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittsboro, April 22.--The Pittsboro Young Men's Christian Association Basket Ball team and the team of Young Men's Christian Association of Kingston will play off the game which was decided a tie tomorrow, Tuesday, evening at Kingston. The standing of the league is as follows: Scranton played, 6; won, 3; lost, 3. Pittsboro, played, 6; won, 2; lost, 2; games, 1; contested, 1. Wilkes-Barre, played, 6; won, 3; lost, 2; contested, 1. Kingston, played, 6; won, 3; lost, 2; games, 1.
The game played at this place by the Wilkes-Barre team and in which they refused to finish, and was decided by the referee in favor of the Pittsboro team, has been contested. The teams will meet at a future date and vie for the supremacy.

A Pleasant Surprise.

A very pleasant surprise reception was given this evening by Mr. and Mrs.
J. L. Cate, at their home, on Luzerne avenue, to Miss Anna Cate, their daughter, who has just returned from an extended trip through California.
A large number of friends were present, among whom were the members of the Wake Robin club, who entertained the guests with an excellent literary and musical programme. Miss Cate interested her friends by relating incidents of her trip, which were very interesting and of a very pleasing nature. A collation was served, after which the many guests retired to their homes.

Other Notes of Interest.

The funeral of John Sartia, whose death occurred Saturday night from injuries received by being shot in the back of the head at Yatesville on Thursday evening, will take place from the family residence, in Yatesville, tomorrow, Tuesday, afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Market Street cemetery.

The death of William Bohn, of Church Hill, occurred this morning at 6 o'clock at the family home. The deceased had for a number of years been employed as gate-keeper at the crossing of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western at the Junction. He was a member of Branch No. 72, Emerald Society.

Carbondale.

A grand opening was given by Henry Vogelbacher this evening at his new hotel, on Carroll street. Henry's many friends are highly delighted with the pleasing manner in which they were treated.

Rev. G. C. Lyman and family are removing from Wyoming to the Methodist parsonage, on Broad street.

Rev. J. B. Sumner and family have removed to Nanticoke.

Miss Nellie Brown, daughter of George W. Brown, is seriously ill of typhoid fever.

OLYPHANT.

The funeral of Henry Thomas, whose death occurred on Saturday, was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The members of the W. W. Waters Post, Grand Army of the Republic, Odd Fellows' lodge and the Olyphant drum corps were in attendance. A brief service was held at the house, after which the remains were conveyed to the Union cemetery for burial.

James Carney, of Archbald, was seen on our streets Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Edwards and Mrs. Charles H. Pritchard were the guests of friends at Wilkes-Barre Saturday.

Miss Nellie Kelly, of Scranton, visited here Sunday.

The funeral of George, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Patten, who met with such a terrible and sudden death on Sunday last, will take place this afternoon from the family residence on Delaware street at 2:30 o'clock. The pupils of the Central school will be in attendance. Rev. J. R. Ellis, of the Blackley Baptist church, will conduct the services. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery.

chard, of Lackawanna street.

"How to Cure All Skin Diseases."

Simply apply "Swayne's Ointment." No internal medicine required. Cures face, hands, nose, etc., leaving the skin clear, white and healthy. Its great healing and curative powers are possessed by no other remedy. Ask your druggist for Swayne's Ointment.

HONESDALE.

The funeral of the late Otto Weaver took place from the National hotel, of which he was proprietor, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and was one of the largest ever seen in Wayne county.

The services at the hotel were conducted by Rev. William Swift, of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. William Schmidt, of the German Lutheran church. The singing was by the choir of the German church. The body of Mr. Weaver was laid in a white casket and the hearse was drawn by four white horses. The pall-bearers were Charles McArdle, Fred La Point, J. C.
Pittman, William Taylor, Charles Guckenberger and Millard Sherwood. The flower bearers were Fletcher Bunnell, Frank Wasman, Jake Reif, Henry Wasman and Ben Loris. There were a large number of floral designs given by friends. The long line of carriages wended their way to the German cemtery, where the body was laid to rest.

Rev. William H. Swift pronounced the last words and the Liederkreis sang an appropriate selection.

By the will of Otto Weaver his wife and brother, John H. Weaver, were made executors of his estate and H. Z.
Russell guardian of his boy, William.

M. H. Dale and George Lancaster, of Scranton, were in Honesdale yesterday confering with the town council relative to paving Main street with vitrified brick. It is proposed to first pave Main street for one block in the center of the town from the corner of Eighth to Ninth streets. Honesdale is a fine town in nearly every respect except its streets. Paving the streets, Main street especially, would be the greatest improvement that could be made. It is an absolute necessity and must come sooner or later. Let it come now.

Support our council in this movement.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a very pretty wedding took place on Main street. Miss Alma O., daughter of A. F. Voigt, was united in marriage to Harry A. Greter, of this place. Rev.
William H. Swift performing the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of cream landowne, with pearl trimmings, and carried bride roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Lizzie Gelbert, of Scranton, wore cream mull and chiffon; Miss Sadie Fuerth, pink silk; Theresa Gelbert, Scranton, cream mull. The flower girls were Martha Voigt and Sadie Freeman. The groomsmen were G. P. Sommers, George Smith, Honesdale, and Fred Gelbert, Scranton. The out-of-town guests were Victor Greter, of Chicago, father of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gelbert and Mr. and Mrs.
Daniel Gelbert, of Scranton. A wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs.
Greter will live on East street.

While working in the cemetery yesterday morning James Hayward had a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Hayward is 78 years old. Yesterday morning he went to his work as usual. Some time after Mr. Thomas, superintendent of the German cemetery, heard cries for help, and going to the adjoining cemetery found Mr. Hayward in an exhausted condition. He was taken to his home, and it was found that his entire left side was paralyzed.

rose, formerly of this county, will go to Lenoir, North Carolina, next week, where the former has a position as lumber inspector for the Wilson Lumber company.

S. Judson Stark, who is a descendant of the Marcy and Hardings, of pioneer stock, is looking up old records preparatory to writing up his family history. The record goes back to 1772-73, the time when all this section was held under a royal survey. Mr.
Stark came into possession, a few days since, through Hiram Marcy, of Nicholson township, of the old compass, drafting tools and other instruments used by Zebulon Marcy in laying out the township of Putnam, embracing what is now Tunkhannock township and a portion of Lemon, Washington and Eaton. The compass was made for one of William Penn's surveyors, William Poyntelle by name, under whom Marcy learned surveying. Mr. Stark also has an old iron tobacco box carried by Marcy, and which he saved his life when fired upon by a British Tory, just before the Wyoming massacre. The British were massing Tories up in New York state preparatory to making a raid down this way, and sweeping the valley. Marcy and one or two other men were sent up this way to scout around and watch for the invaders.

While stopping at Slocum spring, on the site of the present Tunkhannock tannery, they were espied by Adam Workman, a Tory living a short distance away. Workman's wife told Adam to shoot, and he did so, the bullet striking the tobacco box and glancing harmlessly off. Marcy returned the fire, mortally wounding Workman.
These and other incidents of revolutionary days, recalled by those old relics, go to make up an intensely interesting page in local history.

Messrs. W. E. Little, E. J. Jordan and Charles E. Terry were attorneys in the suit of Blackmar vs. Hopkins at Meshoppen yesterday. Hopkins had leased a stone quarry of Blackmar, and the latter sued for royalties on stone he dug him from the product of the quarry. The defendant claimed to have fulfilled his part of the contract, and the matter was finally settled by an equitable division of the property.

Deputy Sheriff G. A. Miller went to Meshoppen yesterday and levied on the hotel fixture and other personal property of F. E. Cogswell, proprietor of the Riverside hotel.

Miss Ella Boardman will visit Scranton friends this week.

W. N. Reynolds, quartermaster of J.
W. Reynolds post, No. 88, Grand Army of the Republic, issues the following notice, by order of department encampment: "Any old soldier who has been dropped from the post roll for non-payment of dues may be reinstated by making written request for same, provided a majority of the members present vote therefor. They will be charged $1 upon reinstatement."

days' quarterly meeting service at Prospect, Sunday.

Some four years ago John Wolfe, a native of Hessen, Germany, died here and was buried by Tunkhannock lodge, Knights of Pythias, of which he was a member. Later his son, Johnnie, was sent to Bingen-on-the-Rhine by the lodge, where he was schooled by a relative and afterward apprenticed to a barber. He writes now that he will sail for America again next fall. The Knights have been very generous to the family, sending another son to Rochester, where he is obtaining an education.

sensations that combine to make up the torment of any itching disease of the skin are instantly relieved and permanently cured by Doan's Ointment. Take no substitute. Doan's never fails.

HALLSTEAD.

The many friends of Mrs. N. D. B.
Chase will be greatly grieved to learn that she died on Sunday of consumption, at her home in Easton. The remains will be brought to this place on Wednesday for interment. She leaves a husband, three sons and one brother.

The "Old Fashioned Husking Bee," under the auspices of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, of the Baptist church, which was given in the Railroad Young Men's Christian association hall on Saturday evening, was excellent and worth coming many miles to see. The play will be repeated in the same hall this (Tuesday) evening.
All those who did not attend on Saturday evening should go tonight, as it is a first-class entertainment.

At a meeting of the borough council held on Friday evening, E. R. W. is invited to the tea.

Messrs. Walter Stanley and F. Lincoln Reynolds are erecting a new cottage at LaPlume, for Mrs. Charles Howe.

Some of our streets are a sight not fit to see. Rubbish of all description is thrown down anywhere. Why not have a little more pride and put such trash where it would be less conspicuous so that our streets would present a much neater appearance? The walk on Main street, above the borough building, has been torn up since last fall. It would
