

Yesterday was another large and mellow base ball day both locally and lege games and a walk-over for Scranton at Carbondale.

"Long Tom" Flannaghan, the tal sycamore, who last year did such cleve work for Scranton, was pounded a over the upper region of the Lacks wanna valley for fifteen runs, whill the Carbondallans only secured a lonel; tally. It was easy, very easy.

CARBONDALE MUST LEARN.

Score of 15 to 1. Carbondale enshrouded itself in sackcloth and ashes after yesterday's game in that city with "Billy Barnie's Scran ton electricians. Marty Swift had been half forgiven for losing Tuesday's game in Wilkes-Barre by 29 to 9, but to have the envied men from Scranton cominto their city and with two hundred howling cranks behind them show Frank Fox's pets right over into the mud hole-well, 15 to i, is a bitter pill to

A special train on the Ontario and Western road left Scranton with a goodly number of the "well, wells" and some other reason than the recognized privilege of yelling their lungs out. The Carbondales had refused to allow Veteran Gaffney to adjudicate, and there was trembling and trepidation followan Olyphant unknown, would umpire Whatever dire motives the unknown may have had, he found no opportunity to put them to use. But nothing could stop Scranton win-

The first crack at the ball was made by Hess for two bases, and the Carbondale rooters went crazy. But, like the cat, Hess came back. He didn't reach third. In the sixth inning the score was 5-1. During the old, lucky seventh Scranton knocked out ten runs and also Flannaghan. Swift then placed his round-bodied self in the box, but Barnie's men were merciful and likewise tired and were satisfied with no tallies in the two last innings.
Brown pitched for Scranton and held abroad. Good weather permitted all the enemy down to 4 hits. Of Flan-the National games scheduled, four col-naghan and Swift 16 hits were secured.

The First Triple Play. A triple play, so rare in base ball, was the feature of the Washington-Boston game Tuesday. It was made in the ninth inning by Boston when it looked as if Washington was about to increase McGuire reaching first on Collins' error. base on balls by Cartwright and an error of Tucker, which gave Crooks a life at first, Maul hit a grounder to Pitcher Wilson, who threw to Warner at the plate, forcing McGuire out-Warner threw to Tucker on first in time to cut off Maul and Tucker returned the ball to Warner, who touched Cartwright, who had attempted to come home. It was all done so quickly and all right under the noses of the crowd that it was some moments before the play was understood.

Umpire Lynch Resigns.

Umpire Lynch resigned from the National league Tuesday. He fined Third Baseman Davis, of the New Yorks, last week and a big kick was made about it President Young upheld Lynch in his official action, but ordered him to Baltimore, although he had been scheduled to umpire the three New York-Brooklyn games. Lynch took offense at the transfer and resigned. For years he has been considered one of the hest umpires in the country.

Allen T. Nye, of New York, calls the Herald's attention to the fact that the Syracuse team last year played three games against the Scrantons in one day, won them all, made 33 runs, 17 hits, accepted 115 fielding chances and made but one error. He claims that it is the best one day's professional record ever made by a team.

BASE BALL NOTES.

McLaughlin, with Wilkes-Barre last year, has signed to pitch for Carbondale. Paul Radford has steadily refused to go with Toronto, and now Manager Barnle is figuring to get him on his Scranton team. -Philadelphia Times.

The players of the Carbondale team are in hard luck, Tom Flanaghan reported with his neck swathed in a allk handkerchief. A small colony of bolls is Tom's affliction. George Staltz broke a linger on his right hand, and has been unable to participate in practice. Martin McQuald's brother died in Chicago, and the left fielder went at once to that city,

And so Lynch, the most competent um pire on the league staff—a man who has safely withstood the rigors of a halfdozen league campaigns whose integrity has never been assailed, whose judgment was as sound and as correct as that of any Daniel since the paimy days of Gaffney, and whose deportment was a model for the other members of the staff, has been turned down, and practically at the behest of a magnate who has not yet warmed his sent around the league board. And he has been turned down simply and solely be-cause he had the courage to enforce the rules which the magnates themselves had framed. If the magnates themselves have no more respect for the rules of their own making than to see an honest man perse cuted for seeing that they were observed how can they hope to command the respect of either players or spectators?-Philadelphia Press.

The presidents have been four months working on the questions in dispute, and yet have not attempted an adjustment on the above lines, which are perfectly familiar to them. The fact that they have not done so is, I believe, almost conclusive proof that the main point at issue with them has been to force the Reading to a lower basis. But they are now about con-vinced that we will no longer allow our in-terests to suffer, and this conviction will robably lead to the adoption of a busi of existing troubles."

The anthracite coal tonnage transported over the Reading railroad for the week ended April 29 aggregated 215.22 tons, a decrease of 11.99 tons, compared with the corresponding week last year, but an increase over the week ended April 13, 1895. The tonnage is, however, about equal to the Reading's proportion of the total, and shows that the company is adhering to the nagreement to restrict the month's production. For the fiscal year to date the Reading's tonnage amounts to 4.778.45 tons an increase over the same period last year of 561.836 tons.

An official of the Reading railroad, referring to Monday's coal conference and the reflectation of the receivers not to submit questions in dispute to arbitration, tells the Stockholder that that position had been assumed, not so much because the court might not sanction it as because there is nothing in the situation so far which could justiy be submitted to arbitration by the Reading company. Not a single company, outside of the Reading, he added, had stated the minimum per-
