FOREIGN LABOR AGITATION

West Side Citizen Calls Attention t Neglect of Poor Board to File Bonds-Personal and Other Short Notes.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, April 24.—There has been considerable indiscretion shown on the art of the firms who have been awarded the contracts of our public work The estimates were given at such a low figure that the contractors have been obliged to employ foreign labor to accomplish their work. Lindsay & Van Loon, who have in charge the constructing of the East Side sewer, have considered it proper to employ citizens rather than foreign labor. Alcock & Son, who have in charge the construction of the sewer on the West Side, have from the start shown a perference to American labor. The People's Water company, while laying their new main on North Main street, have employed only as few Americans as was possible to conduct their work, the greater portion of their labor being Italians,

They Must File Bonds. A petition was filed in court yesterday by a prominent West Side citizen calling attention to neglect of the poor directors, L. G. Damon and Lewis S. Gordan, to file bonds as required by law. A rule was granted on the direcors to show cause why they should not be removed. The rule is returnable on May 13. For several years past the poor directors have not been required to give bonds, as the position was not onsidered a monetary office. Messrs, Damon and Gordon will present their bonds to the borough authorities at
