$5 REWARD!

So many complaints of irregular delivery have reached us, that we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught stealing The Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES.

The two river piers of the Linden street bridge were completed yesterday. The Enterprise dancing class held a largely attended social at Excelsior hall last night. The Keystone Social club, of Providence, will hold its May social in Company H armory on Friday evening, May 3. Joseph Kosko, of Olyphant, was lodged in the county jail yesterday to await trial on a charge of assault and battery. The Bon-Ton Social club, composed of active Turners, will hold their third annual May hop at Turner hall on Friday evening, May 10. Regular services at the Linden Street temple will commence at 7.30 this evening. The subject of the lecture by Rev. J. Feuerlicht will be "Religion and Sacrifice."

C. T. Boland waited a hearing before Alderman Post yesterday afternoon on the charge of assault and battery preferred by William Boland. Martin J. Higland became security in the sum of $500 for C. F. Boland's appearance on trial.

John Tolan was arrested yesterday by Constable Patrick Roach for an assault committed on James Reddington about a month ago. The accused entered bail before Alderman De Lacy in the sum of $300 for his appearance at court. David Lewis, of Hyde Park, died at the Moses Taylor hospital yesterday afternoon. He was seriously burnt in a premature explosion at the Stora shaft a week ago. The remains will be taken to the residence today. Dr. Allan Norton Leete has just acquired a one-tenth interest in 2,300 acres of oil producing territory in southern Kansas. Over fifty yielding wells are down, and more are being drilled. The owners of the other nine-tenths are the millionaire oil operators, Guffey & Galay, of Pittsburg.

The Elm Park Zenth society will hold their meeting Friday evening, April 26, at 7.30 o'clock in the board room of Elm Park church. An interesting programme has been prepared. Mrs. Howell, of the Woman's Christian Temperance union will address the society. There will be readings, solos, recitations and a debate on woman's suffrage. William Stewart and Theodore Myers, affirmative, and William Brandamore and George Walters, negative.

St. Aloysius society of St. Peter's cathedral met last evening, and reports of committees on hall, constitution and by-laws, and visiting were received. For the committee on hall M. H. Griffin was present and addressed the society in a most encouraging manner. A committee consisting of Rev. J. J. Feeley, P. J. Leonard and Frank Conroy was appointed to consult the bishop regarding very important measures, and his response was entirely satisfactory.

At an early hour yesterday morning a seal was found broken on a freight car in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western yards. Special Officer T. Jones investigated and found two men in the car. They could not give a satisfactory account of their presence and were arrested. In yesterday's police court they gave the names of Thomas Lewis, 27 years old, and Thomas Rees, 29 years old, of Carbondale. They were committed to jail for thirty days in default of $10 fine each.

SQUEEZED TO DEATH.

Gankowski Selected a Dangerous Place to Rest. Frank Gankowski, of Elm street, was so seriously crushed between the cars on the Central Railroad of New Jersey yesterday that he died within twenty minutes after the accident.

It appears from the explanations that Gankowski had been picking coal on the Bellevue culm dump, and on his way home rested between two cars, placing the sack of coal on the buffer. While in this position an engine pushed the cars together. Coroner Kelley engaged the following jury yesterday afternoon: D. Walsh, Frank Bonini, John Woelkers, Frank Masters, John F. Moons, and Michael F. Burke. Evidence of identification was taken after which the inquiry was adjourned to Monday night at 7.30 o'clock, at the court house, when the crew of the train will be subpoenaed to give evidence. Gankowski was 27 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock with a high mass of requiem at St. Mary's Polish church, on Prospect avenue. Interment will be made in Minoaka Polish cemetery.

LADIES' NIGHT POPULAR.

Attracted a Large Crowd to the Frothingham to See Allatona.

It was "Ladies' Night" at "Allatona" in the Frothingham last night, which accounted for the generous sprinkling of the fair sex in the auditorium. The cast shows a marked improvement at each performance. Last night several pleasing special numbers were introduced. The Lyric club delighted the audience with classic selections in a most finished style after the second and the fourth acts. They sang "Annie Laurie," arranged by Adam Gelbel, and for an encore responded with "Davey Jones," by Malloy. Their second selection was "On the Sea," by Dudley Buck, one of the most inspiring part songs by the greatest of American composers. For an encore they sang "Ave Maria," by Phelps. The Lyric club is by many considered the finest combination of male voice glee clubs heard in Scranton; and to the director, T. J. Davies, Miss. Bae, is due much credit for the high standard acquired by this finished body of vocalists. The Lyric club participate in this evening's programme. The two little Lally children, one of whom dances to a violin accompaniment by the other, were not the least entertaining feature of the programme and will appear in all the remaining performances. They danced in the recent "The Brownies," when that great spectacular production was in this city.

Two young West Side boys who work in the mines, Cath Evans and James McSully, sang together. This afternoon, for the benefit of the regiment, "Ship Ahoy" will be sung by Aborn's Opera company in the Academy of Music.

For tomorrow's matinee of "Allatona" in the Frothingham, the price of admission will be 25 cents for children, and 50 cents for adults to any part of the house. Tonight is "Military Night," and tomorrow is a day named in honor of the Grand Army of the Republic and other patriotic orders.

SCHROEDER GOT CONTRACT. Will Do the Work on New Carbondale Silk Mill. Yesterday morning the trustees of the Carbondale silk mill met in the office of the Hendrick Manufacturing company and opened the bids for the grading, excavating and foundation work for the mill.

The bids were as follows: Conrad Schroeder, $3,450; Collins & Kennedy, $2,845; T. Robinson, $4,475; Bryce & Blair, $3,775; A. B. Herstead, $3,775; Benjamin A. Dose, $4,354. After the meeting Mr. Schroeder was notified by wire that he was awarded the contract. Work will begin at once.

INSPECTION OF QUARTERS. Conducted Yesterday by the Chief of Fire Department. The fire company quarters of the central city, West Side and South Side were inspected yesterday afternoon by the joint fire department committee of councils and Chief Ferber. The party left the city hall in carriages at 2 o'clock and occupied three hours in making the rounds. They later announced that the buildings and apparatus were, without exception, in excellent condition.

The North End and Tenth ward will be visited today.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS. No. 6 engine will be turned out of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western machine shops today. Ticket Agent T. V. Powell, of the Delaware and Hudson depot, is on the sick list. William Widdings is acting as substitute. Indiscriminate cutting continues on the railroads from Chicago. It is claimed that the trouble is caused by the large number of non-union hicks which have been sent to scoundrels, who receive a commission of $2 on each.

One of the new engines ordered by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company from the Dickson Manufacturing was taken on a trial trip yesterday to Washington. The new locomotive is destined for passenger work on the Morris and Essex division, and, with the tender, weighs 10,000 pounds. A prediction has been made that it will make seventy-five miles an hour if necessary. Three engines of the same pattern are in course of erection for the Delaware and Hudson company.

The Pennsylvania railroad line to Atlantic City had a record run on Monday which was made by the special newspaper train from Philadelphia to the popular seaside resort. The actual running time was 55 minutes, the distance being 53.3 miles, and the average speed 70 1/2 per hour. It is claimed that this is the fastest time made between the Delaware and the Atlantic coast, and also the fastest time ever made by a railroad train for the distance. From Window to Abconen 21.5 miles, an average of 31 miles per hour was maintained. The fastest single mile was made in 41 seconds.

Piano for Sale. A high grade 7-13 octave piano. Beautiful mahogany case, repeating action and all modern improvements. No better piano made. Will be sold very cheap. For particulars address Box 227.

Something new and beautiful are the Peerless Water Color Portraits and Pearlless Crayons in Sopa Tint at Frey's, 421 Lackawanna avenue.

DIED. CLIFFORD.—In Scranton, April 25, Harry J., son of James W. and Alice Clifford, aged 11 years and 6 months. Funeral at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

HICK.—In Scranton, T. W. Hick, at his residence, 1012 Crown street, aged 69 years. Funeral service Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the German Presbyterian church, Hickory street. Interment at Pittston Avenue cemetery.

JUDGE WON THE BATTLE

Defeated Mike Duddy After a Hard Fought Contest.

ELEVEN ROUNDS WERE FOUGHT

This Was the Star Feature of the Tournament of the Nonpariel Athletic Club at Weber's rink and Attracted a Large Crowd of Sports.

Steve Judge, of the South Side, defeated Mike Duddy, of Old Forge, in the eleventh round at the boxing tournament in Weber's rink, Taylor, last night. They met in a fifteen-round contest for a purse of $10 a side and half the gate receipts.

Entertainment that was well worth the dollar price of admission was the card furnished by the Nonpariel Athletic club, of Taylor, at Weber's rink last night. In the center of the hall a roped arena, twenty-four feet square, was erected, and there the pugilistic gladiators engaged in the struggle for the mastery. Sports from up and down the valley were among the spectators. The crowd did not total more than 250. The loud checked trouser and festive red tie were very much in evidence. It had been advertised as a tournament under the auspices of the Nonpariels, and such was the fact; but the attraction that drew most of the sports together was the special fifteen-round "fight" between "Mike" Duddy, of Old Forge, and Steve Judge, a brother of Champion James Judge, of South Scranton.

Men Were in Condition. The men have been in training for the past three months and they were in the pink of condition. Delay had kept the entertainment from beginning until 10 o'clock. Then the first event was a three-round bout between Tommy Gardner, a lithe youth from the Excelsior Athletic club, of this city, and Danny Hayes, of Taylor. P. J. Murphy, instructor of the Scranton Athletic club, was the referee.

Hayes was the heavier of the two and some in the audience pitied Gardner, but they had no occasion for their commiseration. The first round was spent in parrying blows, but Gardner got in a few stiff punches on his opponent's forehead, that made the olfactory organ change to the brightness of a July sunbeam. The second round was of the give and take order, but in the third the fireworks opened and Hayes bit the sawdust several times. The latter was thoroughly whipped if not practically knocked out, and the decision of Referee Murphy, in favor of Gardner, was a mere perfunctory task.

Announced as a Friendly Setto. Two members of the club delighted the spectators with what the referee said would be a friendly bout. If friendly meant a hammer and tongs slugging match, then indeed it was quite friendly. They parted in the last round with peeled noses and the claret flowing freely. The sports went out and refreshed themselves in the intermission that followed.

Impatience was shown in the shouts and stamping of feet that awaited the coming of Duddy and Judge. At 11.15 they entered the ring. Duddy tipped black trunks and had his hair shorn; Judge's body was almost bare. Champion James Judge and Richard Eavers acted as seconds for Judge, and Tim Murphy, of Rendham, and Thomas Murray, of Mendon, acted as seconds for Duddy. The latter tipped black trunks and had his hair shorn. The sports went out and refreshed themselves in the intermission that followed.

The first round in Duddy's favor. Duddy's favor and twice Judge clinched to avoid punishment. Blows rained hard and fast and the excitement became so intense that Chief of Police John H. Evans threatened to put an end to the proceedings if better order were not maintained.

The second round was spent in vigorous fighting and Duddy got many smashes on the face, but he delivered hard body blows in return. The punches Duddy received seemed to have no more effect than water rolling off a duck's back, but Duddy got the worst of it.

Judge had a smile on his face since entering the ring, but the confident air left him. The third and fourth round both were pretty well whittled. At the end of the fifth round, if the battle would be decided before many minutes.

Both sparred cautiously in the opening of the fifth, but Duddy rushed his opponent and sent him to the ropes. In this round Duddy drew a first blood and it ended with terrible shouting.

Duddy begins to weaken. The seventh, eighth and ninth rounds were rather tame, but in the tenth the men came together and fought with ferocity. Duddy was weakening, and if time had not saved him he would have gone down to defeat.

When the eleventh round opened

Duddy made a brave attempt to punish Judge, but became very groggy, and the round was about half over when he sank limp and defeated into his corner. He did not resume the scratch and was carried to his corner. The friends of both were in danger of entering into a free fight after the battle was over. The fight lasted just forty-three minutes.

EDWARD BRECKSTEIN DEAD. He Passed Away at St. Luke's Hospital in New York. Edward Breckstein, formerly of this city, and well known as "Nixey" among the employees of Payne's Livery, died yesterday at St. Luke's hospital in New York. He had been ill for some time.

"Nixey's" death was communicated to Knights of Pythias lodge, No. 263, of this city, and of which he was a member. Through Raub's undertaking establishment arrangements were made with the New York hospital to embalm the body and send it to this city. It will be received at Raub's. The announcement of the funeral, which will be under the direction of the Knights of Pythias, will be made later.

NORTH END NOTES. The stones for the foundation walls of Colonel T. D. Lewis' new residence, on Main avenue, are being hauled to the ground. The Father Whitty Temperance society are rehearsing "The Strife," which they will present in St. Mary's hall on Monday evening, May 6. Reese Watkins, for many years chorister of the choir of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, has accepted a similar position in the Puritan Congregational church.

C. J. Davis, leader of the Moody intercollegiate quartette, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Davis, on Warren street. Mr. Davis is well known here, especially in musical circles. He has also been prominently identified with the work of his evangelistic work in a number of places, and ably assisted him during his campaign here last fall. The trustees of the Presbyterian church have invited Miss Florence Ham, of Honolale, to give another of her delightful entertainments in the church next evening, May 27. Miss Ham gave her first recitation here about six weeks ago, and immediately became a favorite by her excellent renditions of the different selections in the programme. The Epworth League of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church has arranged the appended programme for the entertainment which they will give tonight in the Sunday school room. At the close of the entertainment a reception will be given the family of Rev. William Edgar, their new pastor, who has just moved here, during which refreshments will be served by a number of the young ladies. Miss Nellie Dawson will deliver a short address of welcome to him in behalf of the ladies of the church and Charles Connolly for the young men. The programme to be rendered is: Instrumental trio, vocal duet, Miss Mary Davis and Esau Price; recitation, Mrs. W. C. McDonnell; vocal solo, Miss Margaret Vipond; recitation, Miss Ethel Vipond; piano duet, Miss Belle Green and Miss Nellie Benjamin.

FREE FRANCHISE MEASURE It Was Held Up by Members of Common Council.

AN ORDINANCE FOR FENDERS It Was Introduced by Mr. Seaman—Provisions It Contains—Bids Received for City Printing—Street Repair Ordinance Meets a Sudden Death.

An attempt was made in common council last night to railroad through the measure a franchise to the Interstate Telephone company. The resolution granting the franchise was passed under the very noses of the select members a week ago. Many of them did not know what they had voted upon until the details of the scheme appeared exclusively in The Tribune the day following. Last night many of the commoners were laying in wait for the resolution, and after a brief fight succeeded in sending it into committee.

The resolution was read along with other measures passed by the select branch. It given the Interstate company the right to set poles and string wires in any street of the city, but does not provide any recompense to the city. Mr. Neill's motion that the resolution be adopted was motioned by Mr. Gilroy to refer to committee. Mr. Seaman presented an amendment substantially as follows, but which was withdrawn after Mr. Gilroy's amendment to refer was carried: Compelling the company to furnish free telephones to the following: all city officers and city buildings now supplied with telephones; to furnish free police patrol boxes and service; to file an acceptance of the provisions of the amendment with the mayor within thirty days, otherwise the franchise to be null and void; and that a failure to establish a proper telephone service complete its lines within six months of the passage of the resolution shall revoke the permission contained therein.

They Voted to Adopt. The members who voted to adopt the resolution without Mr. Seaman's amendment and without referring to committee are: Reagan, Sweeney, Nealis, Hickey, Battle, Norton and Zelder. An ordinance providing for fenders on street cars was introduced by Mr. Seaman and referred to committee. The ordinance contains the following: "That from and after the approval of this ordinance it shall not be lawful for any railway companies * * * to run any car or cars unless provided with the most modern improved fender or fenders with both front and wheel guards; the same to be at all times attached to the car or cars so as to protect the protection of life and limb. Said fenders and guards to be subject to the approval of the mayor and city engineer, whose duty it shall be to see that the requirements of this ordinance are enforced and complied with. And be it further enacted, that a failure on the part of any of said companies to comply with the provisions of this ordinance within sixty days after the day of its approval, shall subject such company $5 a day for each car operated without said fender or fenders; said fines to be collected as other fines and penalties for violation of city ordinances are collected."

Mr. Battle's motion prevailed that the bills reported favorably by the auditing committee, excepting the bills of the People's Water company for water in the Twentieth ward, be paid. Mr. Sweeney, Mr. Reagan and Mr. Nealis alleged that several of the bills, which amounted in total to $500, were not legally contracted.

Bids for City Printing. Bids for printing the city advertisements and ordinances for the current fiscal year were received and referred to the printing committee as follows: Truth, 5 cents per line and 25 cents per line on advertising pages; 10 cents per line on local pages; Republican, 4 cents per line, nonpartisan, 5 cents per line on reading pages, 3 cents per line and 20 cents per hundred sheets for ordinances; Times, 15 cents per line for the first three insertions, 5 cents per line thereafter, 8 cents per line and 25 cents per hundred sheets for ordinances; Sunday News, 3 cents per line and 50 cents per hundred sheets for ordinances.

A sudden death met the boards of trade ordinance providing that money for street repairs be expended by the street commissioner instead of by councilmen as at present. Mr. Keller's motion to refer to the judiciary committee was amended by Mr. Morris to lay the ordinance on the table. The amendment was adopted.

A report of the city engineer for the fiscal year 1894 exhaustively treated of the work of his department and was referred to committee. The report contained the following recapitulation of all estimates prepared during the year: Culverts, $2,384.93; grading, $5,057.22; retarding walls, $499.59; sewers, $55,424.47; bridges, $186,142.30; walks, curbing and gutters, $45,912.72; pavements, $169,942.61; total, $456,373.08.

A resolution was introduced directing the city solicitor to confer with the Delaware and Hudson company relative to having the latter's tracks removed from the Wyoming avenue crossing to permit the extending of that thoroughfare northward.

An adjournment was made to next Thursday night, when the select branch will also meet.

THE Slang That Saved Him. From the Washington Star. "My dear," said the apprehensive wife, "I thought you said that you were out of politics this election. Here's your name on the ticket."

"Er—um—you misunderstood me. I didn't say I was out of politics. I simply said that I wasn't in it."

Notice. The contributors of the Lackawanna hospital, of the city of Scranton, Pennsylvania, shall meet on Monday, May 6, between the hours of 6 and 9 o'clock, a. m., and elect directors in accordance with the act of assembly incorporating this hospital, and to transact such other business as may properly come before it.

Fire at Forty 1/2 St. The boiler house of the Forty Fort Coal company, at Forty Fort, was destroyed by the yesterday and one of the cylinder boilers blew up, but nobody was injured.

The Saturday Tribune.

ONE of the secrets of the popularity of the Saturday Tribune is its originality. Unlike the special editions of many other papers, it is not made up largely if not exclusively, of stereotyped features widely syndicated for simultaneous publication. On the contrary, the bulk of the special matter presented in The Saturday Tribune is prepared especially for this paper. That The Saturday Tribune is satisfactorily filling its field is substantially manifested by a steadily growing constituency. No other paper ever printed in the history of Scranton journalism has achieved a fuller measure of success than The Saturday Tribune.

The Saturday Tribune is essentially Scranton's Favorite Newspaper.

BASE BALL AND OTHER SPORTS. ALL the year round The Tribune is in advance in covering events of note in the sporting world. But with the opening of the base ball season it will, as heretofore, give additional attention to this department. Base ball lovers will find the games covered more fully from day to day in The Tribune than they are covered by any other paper printed or sold in Scranton. This paper is the recognized authority in Scranton on base ball and other sports and arrangements have been made that will insure fuller and better reports than ever before. Patrons of the national game will find in The Tribune every day in the week just what they want in the way of detailed reports, which will be supplemented each Saturday with a page of the freshest and most readable sporting news and gossip. Due attention will also be given to all other out-door pastimes.
