Some Events of the Day on the West Side of the City Noted.

BEEN MARRIED TWO WEEKS

Miss May Robb and Bert Smith had not announced their marriage--They are Popular Young People--Martha Washington Chapter Social.

The West Side interests of The Tribune have been placed in the hands of Emerson Owen, to whom all news announcements and complaints may be addressed.

Two weeks have passed since Miss May Robb was married to Bert Smith, and this is the first public announcement of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are living with the groom's parents. Both young people are prominent in West Side circles, Miss Robb being active in the Methodist church work.

Masonic Social Affair.

The lady contingent of the local Masonic lodge, known as Martha Washington chapter, No. 3, Order of Eastern Star, held an annual banquet and entertainment last evening in St. David's hall.

About 150 guests were in attendance, many coming from Dunmore and different parts of the city. It was a gala event. The following programme was given, followed by an excellent repast served by the ladies.

At this point in the programme Mrs. Eaton, the outgoing worthy matron, was presented with a handsome pin as a token of the appreciation with which her duties were held by the members of the chapter.

The programme was resumed with a piano solo by Miss Daisy Poole; the Beethoven quartet gave vocal selections and the programme was concluded with a selection by the string club.

Entertainment and Social.

Miss Adele Breakstone was the particular star at last night's entertainment held in the Plymouth Congregational church, under the auspices of Sunday school classes taught by the Misses Lulu James and Jennie Lewis.

The church auditorium was comfortably filled when Miss Peck opened the evening's programme with a piano solo, excellently rendered.

Miss Adele Breakstone then gave a descriptive recitation in line with the Napoleonic craze. An encore resulted in the rendering of "Millie Billee," a tale of the kitchen, with musical accompaniment.

An Agreeable Surprise.

Miss Ella Boyles was honored last evening with a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Long, corner of Washburn street and Sumner avenue.

This afternoon "Ship Ahoy" will be presented for the benefit of the Thirtieth Regiment New Army fund. Tonight the ever popular "Bobolink Girl" is certain to attract a crowded house.

CHAMPION PIGEON SHOT MATCH

TO BE HELD AT SCRANTON, WILKES-BARRE AND CARBONDALE, BETWEEN

H. D. SWARTZ, AND DR. W. F. CARVER,

OF THIS CITY. CHAMPION PIGEON SHOT OF THE WORLD.

The adjoining cut of Mr. H. D. Swartz, who is one of the best amateur wing shots in Northeastern Pennsylvania, shooting under the rules of the American Association, 30 yards rise and 50-yard boundary.

Mr. Swartz shoots three matches with Dr. W. F. Carver, champion pigeon shot of the world.

First Match to take place at the Base Ball Park, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Thursday, April 25.

Second Match at the Scranton Driving Park, Scranton, Pa., Friday, April 26.

Third Match at the Carbondale Base Ball Park, Carbondale, Pa., Saturday, April 27.

The shooting at Wilkes-Barre and Carbondale will commence at 10:30 a. m. and the shooting at Scranton will take place at 2:30 p. m.

Dr. W. F. Carver's record is 99 out of 100, while Mr. Swartz's record is 74 out of 75. Every man who is a lover of shooting should not miss these three matches.

Mr. Swartz is confident of winning at least two out of three. In his last thirty-three pigeons he has shot for practice, he has killed them all.

Probably there is no man better known in the shooting world than the famous Dr. W. F. Carver, who is better known as the "Evil Spirit of the Plains." Dr. Carver has been decorated by Emperors, Kings, Princes and the Governors of Australia. Visited and presented by medals of appreciation from Presidents of the United States, Grant and Hayes.

Dr. Carver earned the title of the "Evil Spirit of the Plains" by being one of the greatest Indian fighters on the frontier. His associates were Buffalo Bill, Texas Jack and Wild Bill.

It is said that these four gentlemen, with their trusty Winchester rifles and their famous horses, could whip a whole band of Indians. Especially for Dr. Carver were the Indians always on the lookout and of him they were constantly in deadly fear.

Each match will be 100 birds per man and will be shot under the American Association rules, 30-yard rise, 50-yard boundary, and from 5 unknown traps set in a segment of a circle 5 yards apart.
