$5 REWARD!

So many complaints of irregular delivery have reached us, which we have traced to stolen papers, that we now offer $5 reward for information that will lead to the conviction of any person caught stealing The Tribune from the doorsteps of regular subscribers.

CITY NOTES.

News of sports, today and hereafter, on page 7.

One "want" adlet recently printed in The Tribune brought fifty-five responses. Tribune adlets pay.

The "Monday night rehearsal" at the Scranton School of Music will be postponed to Friday night.

One of the features of next Saturday's "Tribune" will be a readable description of street scenes in Constantinople. Miss Tracy Hand, son of Hon. Alfred H. Tracy, of this city.

The St. Charles hotel will reopen tonight with James F. Doyle, formerly of the Valley House, as day clerk, and A. F. Harbinger, formerly of the Hotel de Ville, as night clerk. Peter McDonnell will be head bartender.

The Clerks' association will hold a regular meeting at their hall on Wednesday evening, May 1, at 8 o'clock, when every clerk is urged to be present. Business of the utmost importance will be transacted.

Wednesday the two new buildings at the Hillside home will be opened for inspection, and the members of the poor board will be present to receive public visitors, who may desire to inspect the improvements.

Next Saturday's Tribune will contain the recent reply of Charles Emory Smith to Charles Heber Clark's speech at Harbinger on the financial question. It will pay voters to read and preserve each Saturday's Tribune, for each number will contain articles of timely value on current political issues.

Scranton Clearing House association exchanges during the week were: Monday, $116,816.27; Tuesday, $120,000.52; Wednesday, $120,757.29; Thursday, $141,920.10; Friday, $121,038.41; Saturday, $101,741.71; total, $744,252.71. Clearings for week ended April 28, 1895, $700,845.39.

TONIGHT'S ANNIVERSARY.

Y. M. C. A. Will Celebrate Its Twenty-Seventh Birthday.

This evening the twenty-seventh anniversary of the Young Men's Christian association will be celebrated, when brief historical addresses will be given by Alfred Hand, E. B. Sturges, Colonel F. L. Hitchcock, City Solicitor James H. Torrey, G. F. Reynolds, H. A. Knapp, William J. Hand and A. W. Dickson, who, with William Connell and Colonel H. M. Boies, represent the presidents of the association. A short programme of music will be an additional feature of the evening.

Invitations have been issued to the members requesting their attendance and that of a lady friend at 8 o'clock, when the exercises will be opened.

Dr. Gibbons, New York City, will be in his Scranton office, 641 Wyoming avenue, every Monday from 9 in the morning until 9 in the evening.

NEW COAL DEPOSIT FOUND

Prospecting Party Discovers a Vein in No. 5 Mountain.

BORE HOLE WILL BE DRIVEN

Vein Underlies the Mountains East of No. 5 Meadows—Land Owned by William Connell—Another Search, and More Thorough, Will Be Made.

From trustworthy sources the information comes that a rich vein of coal underlies the mountains east of the "No. 5 Meadows" and that the steps leading toward a development of this deposit will soon begin.

The land as far as the William Brook township line is owned by William Connell. For years it has been a matter of conjecture whether or not these mountains possessed in their interior the elusive mineral, and time and again there have been evidences that would tend to the conclusion that they do. Men versed in the mining of coal have at various times traveled over these mountains and found signs of fine black dirt that resembled the outcropping of some vein of coal.

For the first time with a serious intention, a prospecting party, led by Engineer William Money, traveled along the mountain a few days ago and returned convinced that the place contains a rich deposit of coal. Another and more thorough search will be made in a few days. But from all facts that have been acquired up to date, it is assumed that a bore hole will be driven during the summer to determine the true status.

South Side Supply failing.

The fact has for the past few years been apparent that some of the coal beds of the South Side have approached very close to the condition of being "worked out." For upward of thirty years coal has been mined from the Tunnel mines and the Meadow Brook shaft of William Connell & Co., and the most valuable deposits have been removed.

Less than a year ago all the machinery and appliances for removing the mineral from the Stafford shaft were taken out. The output of the Meadow Brook shaft and the Tunnel mines has been somewhat reduced, and it is expected that the mine will be closed.

Outside of the property of Mr. Connell there is absolutely very little to fall back upon, and the serious question has arisen, as to where the men now employed in the mines will find employment, when the deposit gives out. The mines, during the periods of depression, were the only industries that could be relied upon.

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Tramps Are with Us Again and They Are Very Bold Ones at That—Funeral of Patrick E. Roach—Other South Side News in Briefer Form.

Lieutenant Zang's attention is respectfully addressed to the fact that within the past few days a swarm of gentlemen of leisure have taken up quarters in the fields below the South steel mill, at a safe distance from the city, by which they are thus enabled to steer away from the jurisdiction of the Scranton police. But although these tramps have taken up quarters outside the limits, their operations spread through the Twentieth ward and already much complaint has been heard from the people regarding the boldness of the requests for food. At one back door at 8 o'clock yesterday morning the women of the house were greeted by a peremptory demand for victuals, and when the rent did not get paid, mild your eye, he threatened to become obnoxious. Fortunately this woman had not far to go to untie the bulldog. Let the tramps be forced to earn their bread by sweating over the stone pile with bracelets on their ankles.

Funeral Announcement.

The remains of the late Patrick E. Roach will at 9:30 this morning be removed from the family residence, 1409 Clinton avenue, to St. John's church, where a high mass of requiem will be celebrated. Interment will be made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

The members of Branch 85, Catholic Mutual Benefit association, met at Dr. Manley's hall at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon and made arrangements for attending the funeral of their late brother.

Members will assemble at 8:30 this morning at the hall.

Building Room Is On.

This evening the South Scranton Building and Loan association will meet at Mother's hotel for the transaction of important business. It is the regular day night and the officers will be busy accommodating all subscribers who desire to make loans. This is regarded as an evidence that the building boom will be unusually active this evening. It is so, to the John's association, is compelled to refuse the requests of borrowers.

A Malicious Rumor.

In connection with the accounts of the fatal accident to John Noonan, it has been falsely circulated that the unfortunate man was a victim of a quarrel that took place at James F. Best's hotel, on Cedar avenue. Neighbors of Mr. Best and men who know the reputation of his hotel for peace and quiet, all agree that the first fight has yet to occur there. Noonan had been casually into Mr. Best's place the day before his death, but he received no liquor and remained only the length of time it required to enter and depart. Moreover, his fall occurred almost three-quarters of a mile away from the Roaring Brook hotel.

Shorter Paragraphs of News.

A meeting of the parishioners of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church will be held this evening.

The funeral of Frank Genkowski, of Elm street, was held Saturday morning with a high mass of requiem at St. Mary's church, on Prospect avenue. Interment was made in Minooka Polish cemetery.

Five employees at the South works were overcome by heat on Saturday. Ten applications for membership were made at the meeting of Columbus council, Young Men's Institute, yesterday.

BENJAMIN HUGHES IMPROVED.

Dr. Allen Makes a Very Favorable Report as to His Condition.

Dr. Allen, who has been in constant attendance on Mine Superintendent Benjamin Hughes, made a very favorable report last evening, and states that there is a decided improvement in Mr. Hughes's condition.

Numerous inquiries were addressed on Saturday and during yesterday on the West Side, and considerable relief was felt when the announcement was made that Mr. Hughes was on a fair way to recovery.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS.

A large number attended the men's testimony meeting at the association rooms yesterday afternoon, when some of the most successful gatherings of the season was held.

Brakeman John McDevitt was buried yesterday afternoon amid every sign of universal respect and sympathy with the widow in her heavy affliction. Interment was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

A serious catastrophe was averted on Friday at Tripp's crossing by the prompt action of Gatekeeper Kenny. A runaway team rushed down the hill from Cemetery street as a coal train approached the crossing. The gates were down and the spectators anticipated that the team would run up the lane and on the tracks in front of the approaching train. Kenny, however, raised the gates in time for the team to clear the locomotive, and was instrumental in saving gates and horses.

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

This evening at the Frothingham Bronson Howard's "Aristocracy" will be produced by one of Frothingham's companies. This drama is in its strong and ambitious moral purpose, epigrammatic force and literary polish of its dialogue, and intensity of interest, the most worthy dramatic effort of Mr. Howard's career as a playwright. The scene in the third act between the California millionaire, his beautiful wife and the aristocratic Austrian prince, is undoubtedly one of the most powerful that has ever been presented on the American stage. It is a great climax that one can see is inevitably impending. All the leading roles are admirably portrayed, while the less important ones are presented with a degree of excellence and care that has rarely been equalled on any stage.

Bubb's Comedy company opens a week's engagement at the Academy of Music tonight, when "A Kentucky Home" will be presented. Beginning tomorrow there will be a matinee each afternoon. Excursion prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents; matinee prices, 10 cents to all parts of the house. The Salem, Mass. News says of the company: "It is the best company of the kind that ever played in Salem, presenting stronger pieces than others that have been here, and the choice of plays is more competent hands. 'A Kentucky Home' was presented Monday night, and some decidedly clever bits of acting were introduced, while the whole action of the piece was smooth. The specialties alone are worth the price of admission, even if there was no play behind them and the great orchestra was not a feature."

A week of opera will be inaugurated at Davis' theater this afternoon by the Robinson Opera company, which includes such well known artists as Frank Deshon, Charles Meyer, John Young, Harry Dickson, Lizzy Gonzalez, Laura Russell, Mattie Reeves, Harry Nelson and Frank French. The operas that will be presented during the week are: Monday, "La Mascotte"; Tuesday, "Himes of Normandy"; Wednesday, "Himes of Normandy"; Thursday, "La Mascotte"; Friday, "Chimes of Normandy"; Saturday, "H. M. S. Pinafore"; Miss Gonzalez, who created such a good impression amongst Scranton theatergoers last season, by special request, will sing "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," on Wednesday.

Bronson Howard's famous comedy, "Henrietta," will be presented at the Frothingham next Tuesday by Stuart Robinson, Mrs. Robinson and a notable company. The widow's tangle in the "Henrietta" was at first strenuously objected to by Mr. Robinson, at the trial reading of the play, but at Mr. Bronson Howard's instigation Mr. Robinson consented to try it. The first night such a yell of delight went up from the audience at the expression of pain on the widow's face, as she struck the floor, that Mr. Robinson decided to continue the feature. Mrs. Stuart Robinson, formerly Miss May Waldron, was the original Lady Tremaine, when the "Henrietta" was first produced. She now takes the part of the widow, Mrs. O'pdyke, in the play, in the face of the fact that her predecessor had to give it up because of the very violent fall in the third act.

Mr. George Denies It.

A. H. George, of North Rebecca avenue, says The Tribune incorrectly reported his speech made Wednesday night at the meeting held in the interest of the roads to the Young Men's Christian association hall. Mr. George denies that he condemned wealthy Americans who spent their money abroad, that he compared the grunting of Jefferson and Rebecca avenues, that he said contractors are dishonest, or that the appointment of contract inspectors was throwing money away.

DECISION IN RAUB WILL CASE

Register Hopkines Refuses to Admit Nuncupative Will.

MRS. SNOVER'S CLAIM FAILS

Complicated Evidence Tendered by the Various Parties—Claims of Relatives Discussed—Cost of the Proceedings to Be Paid Out of the Estate.

A decision was rendered Saturday by Register of Wills Williams S. Hopkine in the proceedings in the estate of the late John W. Raub, of the West Side, whose personal property was claimed by Mrs. Henrietta J. Snover, in consequence of a nuncupative will, which she claimed was in her favor by the deceased upon his deathbed.

Raub was a bachelor and had acquired property valued at from $10,000 to $15,000. He was an illegitimate son and under the law he could not make a will to dispose of his property. The law of Pennsylvania provides that the estate of one of illegitimate birth reverts to the state, unless there should be either a brother or sister alive also illegitimate; in such case the latter is the legal heir.

This was the first case of its kind occurring in Lackawanna county. After Raub's death an application was made by Mrs. Helen Clark, of Benton, for letters of administration; she claimed to be a cousin of the deceased and was represented by Attorney H. M. Hannah. Under the law of Pennsylvania, the law of the state, also applied for letters of administration, and Attorney Frank T. Okell was present in the interest of Mrs. Snover. The latter was not interested in which of the two would be appointed, but intended to establish her right to the personal property, which is quite valuable. Register Hopkine, after reserving the matter for consideration for a few days, appointed A. R. Raub administrator.

Not more than two weeks afterward the register received a letter from Harriet W. Raub, of Muscatine, Ia., stating forth the fact that her husband, John W. Raub, was illegitimate, and that she was the daughter of the deceased and also of illegitimate birth. His son, John, came to Scranton, invested with power of attorney by his father and was prepared to prove his title to the estate of the deceased.

Mrs. Snover, through her attorney, furnished evidence to Register Hopkine to prove that Raub wished to her his personal property. She tried to prove this by showing that on his death bed Raub made use of this expression: "I will give my property to Het, and if I get well Het's going to give it back to me."

The nuncupative will was refused to be admitted to probate and the costs of the proceedings are ordered to be paid out of the estate of the deceased.

ABORN COMPANY'S SUCCESS.

Week's Engagement at Popular Prices in the Academy.

The Aborn Opera company closed a week's engagement in the Academy of Music Saturday, when "Pirates of Penzance" was presented in the afternoon, and "Said Pasha" in the evening. The company played at popular prices and furnished excellent satisfaction. Mr. Aborn, in the leading comedy roles, contributing largely to the company's success.

About the "Ship Ahoy" matinee, the proceeds of which will be applied toward the Thirteenth regiment armory fund, the following letter was received by Manager Burgard: Headquarters Thirteenth Regiment, Third Brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania.

Scranton, Pa., April 28, 1895. Mr. H. M. Burgard, Scranton, Pa. Dear Sir:—In behalf of our executive committee of the Armory association I desire to thank you sincerely and heartily for your contribution to our armory fund, and as it may not be possible for me to meet Mr. Milton Aborn during the short time he may remain in this city to thank him in person, I would ask that you thank him for us. We appreciate both yours and his kindness and good will, and assure you that it will not be forgotten. Very truly yours, E. H. Ripple, President Thirteenth Regiment Armory Association.

COLONEL LEWIS VERY ILL.

His Condition Reported to Be Very Critical Last Night.

Reports received at an early hour this morning from the North End indicated that Colonel T. D. Lewis was in a critical state at his residence, on the corner of Main avenue and Putnam street.

He lost consciousness yesterday afternoon and was unable to take any nourishment during the greater part of the day.

ANXIOUS TO GET AWAY.

Certain Fifth Warders Desire to Belong to the Eighteenth.

Each branch of council has passed a resolution recommending the annexation to the Eighteenth ward of that strip of the Fifth ward that is included between the east side of Morland street and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks.

Saturday City Solicitor Torrey filed in court a petition for the appointment of a board of commissioners to make a report on the feasibility of the transfer of the strip from one ward to the other.

are somewhat cramped for room, and have decided to offer a few goods at less than cost to reduce stock.

OUR

experience has been that if you want to close out a stock of goods quick the only way to do it is to cut the price to about one-half the regular rates. A small reduction has very little effect upon trade. It takes a decidedly noticeable cut to get them to move as quickly as desired. This we have made on a number of lines, including

SARDINES, PICKLES, CATSUPS, TABLE SAUCE, CANNED GOODS, TOILET PAPER, PIE PREPARATIONS, BAKING POWDER, STOVE POLISH, CLOTHES BASKETS, AMMONIA, BROOMS, Etc., Etc.

We have brought these goods to the front for a few days until stock is sufficiently reduced, when we will probably have to go back to our regular rates.
