Kentucky for Canada. Superior, Wis., April 30.—It has just come to light that Superior had two distinguished visitors a week ago. They remained in the city all day, drank in a dozen places and in general enjoyed themselves. That night they took the South Shore train and are now in Canada. One of the men was a member o the McCoy family, while the other was a Chapman, allied with the McCoys in the celebrated McCoy-Hatfield feud which kept the green valleys of Ken-tucky red with blood for a score of years. The men were on their way to Canada to get out of the jurisdiction of a Kentucky court which wanted them

On reaching Superior the men made nquiries for William Knight, a well known citizen. Knight was brought up n Kentucky and is related to the Mc-Coys by marriage. McCoy was a man about 40 years old and was a magnificent specimen of manhood, weighing in the neighborhood of 260 pounds. Chapman as not quite so large. The police heard of the presence of McCoy and Chapman, but had no orders to ar rest them.

Fulgham. The quadruple tragedy was the outcome of a feud that started two years ago and grew out of a trivial dispute between the Townsend and the Fulgham families. The trouble smouldered along without breaking out in oper violence until last Friday evening when Murray Fulgham, meeting young Avery Townsend, began to abuse him He finished by administering a beating to the young man with an axe handle. Young Townsend swore out a warrant charging Fulgham with assault and battery with intent to kill. Fulgham at once left the town to avoid arrest and went into Madison county, but his father sent for him and brought him

Young Fulgham was arrested upor his return home and gave bond. This evening he was taken before a magistrate for a hearing, and as the evidence showed the assault to have been unprovoked, a fine of $50 with costs attached was inflicted.

At the conclusion of the court busithe door the Townsend and Fulgham parties came together. There were a few angry words. Then weapons were drawn and the shooting began. In almost an instant the wholesale killing was done, and the four men lay bullet holes. stretched on the pavement.

An Awful Tragedy Results from a Liaison in Kentucky.

MURDER OF ARCHIE D. BROWN

Discovered in Company with Mrs. Gor don-In the Shooting That Follows Both Are Killed-Grief of Governor Brown.

Louisville, Ky., April 30 .- Archie Brown, the governor's son and secre-tary, paid with his life today for a liaison with another man's wife. latter shared the fate of her paramour. the wronged husband shooting them to death in the room in which he had surprised them in their guilt.

Fulton Gordon is the name of the man who so terribly avenged his domestic

The tragedy is one of the most sensa tional in the history of the state, on account of the prominence of the persons involved, and the circumstances surrounding the case. It occurred at 12.35 o'clock in an evil resort kept by a colored woman at 1025 West Madison street. Brown was killed in the room, and Mrs. Gordon was shot as she was leeing from the place. At noon, Brown with Gordon's wife knocked at the front door of Lucy B. Smith's Madison street house. They were admitted by Matie Mattingly, a colored woman, and immediately re-paired to the upstairs front room, which had been previously engaged. Thirty minutes later a tall, dark haired man knocked at the door of the house and was admitted. He engaged the front lower room, saying that a woman would join him there shortly. The man closed all the doors and a few minutes later a commotion was heard above, followed by a succession of pistol shots. Then there was a hurried vement down stairs, and Mrs. Gordon fled from the scene. A few more shots rang out and she fell dead on the porch in the rear yard

Ghastly Work Completed. Gordon left the house immediately. A few moments later Brown's corpse was found in the upstairs room. The following telegram was take

Fulton Gordon at the time of his marriage was one of the best-known men about town. He was then clerk at the Galt House of this city, and had acquaintances in every portion of the country. They eloped about ten years

The coroner held an inquest over the bodies this afternoon and the jury ren-dered a verdict of justificable homicide. It is understood, however, that Gordon will be held for a formal preliminary examination.

Frankfort, Ky., April 30.—The news of the tragic death of Arch Dixon Brown, son of the governor, reached here shortly after 1 o'clock. Governor Brown, who was at the time sitting in his office quietly conversing with Secretary of State Headly and Commissioner of Agriculture McDowell, was completely overcome when apprised of the tragic fate of his son, to whom he was as devoted as it was possible for a father to be. The governor's grief was uncontrollable and he gave way to Secretary Headly left at 3 o'clock for Louisville.
