Railroaders Have Determined to Have a New Association Building.

President A. W. Dickson Speaks on the

At a meeting of the executive com mittee of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association held last evening a resolution was adopted favoring the crection or purchase of new rooms, and a committee was appointed to carry on the work of raising sufficient money for the purpose of erecting or purchasing such rooms and for furnishing the This step marks an important era in one of the most important religious auxiliaries of the city. It is well known that for some time the members, who now number 517, have been agitating for more commodious premises, as they are unable to do justice to the work of the association in the limited quarters in which they are placed at present. It has been a matter of some conjecture to explain why the railroad companies interested in the work of the association have not appreciated their responsibilities to provide more convenient premises in re-turn for the noble work of the members, and from which the companies are the greatest benefactors in a pecunlary sense, as they have, upon more than one occasion, admitted.

Remarks of President Dickson. President A. W. Dickson spoke to the point at the anniversary of the central association on Monday night, when be said, "It is difficult to say too much of our railroad department. What zeal and happy service are enlisted under the leadership of Secretary Pearsall in this splendid work for railroad men, and what a blessing it is that this branch of the service has so loyal a supporter in the general manager of one of our railroad companies. The nembership during the year has been fairly boomed-meetings at home and meetings at outside points have been a loy and an inspiration to the grand workers of this most efficient agency. whose influence has been felt 'all along the line."

"The hospital, the sick room, the oundhouse, the shops and the caboose have been witnesses of faithful service, and could testify to the saving power of the Gospel of the Blessed God. Some of these days, we doubt not, the railroad men will be made glad, with building especially fitted for their use and enjoyment, where service will be a cheerful pleasure, and where efficient work will have its reward in grand results." Last night the following members of he executive committee were present: William Frink, chairman: E. R. Crothamel, treasurer; A. H. Masters, corre sponding secretary; G. G. Mahy, C. J. Ganzemuller, M. V. Neeley, F. W. Pearsall, M. F. Case, W. F. Curry, W. A. Berry, F. H. Belden and E. W. Francis. After some discussion the following resolutions were drafted and passed unanimously:

To Work for a New Building.

That a building and furnishing com mittee, of which our chairman shall be a member, be appointed to secure funds for the purpose of erecting or purchasing a building to accommodate our rapidly growing association and to

The Saturday Tribune.

NE of the secrets of the great and growing popularity of the Saturday Tribune is its originality. Unlike the special editions of many other papers, it is not made up largely if not exclusively, of stereotyped features widely syndicated for simultaneous publication. On the contrary, the bulk of the special matter presented in The Saturday Tribune is prepared especially for this paper. That The Saturday Tribune is satisfactorily filling its field is substantially manifested by a steadily growing constituency. No other paper ever printed in the history of Scranton dournalism has achieved a fuller measure of success than The Saturday Tribune

LL the year round The Trib-A une is in advance in cover-ing events of note in the sporting world. But with the opening of the base ball season it will, as heretofore, give additional attention to this department. Base ball lovers will find the games covered more fully from day to day in The Tribune than they are covered by any other paper printed or sold in Scranton. This paper is the recognized authority in Scranton on base ball and other sports and arrangements have been made that will insure fuller and better reports than ever before. Patrons of the national game will find in The Tribune every day in the week just what they want in the way of detailed reports, which will be supplemented each Saturday with a page of the freshest and most readable sporting news and gossip. Due attention will also be given to all other out-door pastimes.

OFFICERS SLAUGHTERED.

Belcher Family Kill a Constable and Mortally Wound Two of His Posse. Pittsburg, Tex., April 30.-In a remote ection of Titus county, twenty miles north of here, yesterday, Constable Olier attempted to arrest a man named Belcher for some minor offense. Belcher resisted and in the sheeting which followed Constable Oliver was shot through the hand. Oliver withdrew and secured reinforcements in the persons of three men named Cooper, Frye and Ritchie. Returning to make the arrest. Belcher and the male members f his family ambushed the party at Black's bridge, on White Oak river, just at dusk, pouring a heavy fusilade into the posse from rifles and revolvers, mowing down the entire party.

Latest reports from the scene of the ambuscade state that Oliver and Cooper were instantly killed and Frye and Ritchie fell mortally wounded Belchers mounted their horses and fled, leaving the dead and dving officers in the road where they fell. Armed posses are on their trail, but it is not believed the Belchers will be captured alive They are desperate men and further bloodshed is looked for.

the candle. Most of them have decided that it is not. If any expedition is to recover Mr. Peary it should start in July, for the Greenland coast is then open to naviga tion and the great explorer at that eason can be recovered intact. Mrs. Peary is doing her best to get up relief expedition, and has behaved throughout as a loyal and devoted wife For her sake it is likely that the necessary funds may be got together. Peary's original plan was to cross Melville Bay in his whaleboats, but there was a woman in the party and the idea was abandoned.
