

All the Eastern league games scheduled for yesterday were played and were but a repetition of the victories and defeats of Monday. Each that won or lost on Monday did the same trick yesterday.

Springfield gave a double dose to Toronto by winning a close first game final run in the seventh. Score 8 to 3. and playing all around them in the second. This justly gives Springfield a better cinch for first position than Wilkes-Barre and Providence, which have won two games, or Scranton, which has won one.

Scranton won from Syracuse by a score of 8 and 4; Wilkes-Barre made twice as many runs as Rochester, and Providence beat Buffalo almost as

Mrs. Roderick Jones was seen last evening and denied that she had said anything at the meeting of the ladies' choir Monday night to create discord and offered the following explanation of what was said by her at the rehearsal:

The present female choir, now led by Mrs. Heckel, was originally Mrs. D. P. Thomas' ladies' chorus, which won the prize at Laurel Hill at last year's eisteddfod. 'Mrs. Thomas, not wishing to conduct her choir in the coming Wilkes-Barre elsteddfod, appointed Mrs. Heckel as temporary leader to conduct the choir under the name of Mrs. Thomas. Mrs. Heckel, Mrs. Jones says, is a Choral union advocate, while the ladies in the Thomas choir are all Cymrodorions. After Mrs. Heckel had assumed charge of the singers, she, it is alleged, tried to force the old Cymrodorions out and bring in singers whose sympathies are with the Choral union This and the testy conduct of Mrs. Heckel Monday night, Mrs. Jones avers, led to a scene during which the greatest excitment prevailed. Quiet was at last restored and the deplorable incident drowned in melody. But feelings had ocen hurt and turbulence is the result. Will the choir go to Wilkes-Barre? That is a question. Some say a split is vident, but calmer minds argue that the ladies will keep together till the prize is won.
