WANT A SHERIFF'S POSSE

Carbondale Trolley Lines Are Tied Up by Strikers. SWITCHES SPIKED AT NIGHT

Men Are Ugly and Determined—General Manager Aitken Calls on the Sheriff for Protection—Dismissal of Three Men Caused the Trouble.

Carbondale's street car system is practically tied up and the conductors and motormen are on strike. During Saturday night several switches were spiked on the line leading to the Wild West show grounds, and which a heavy traffic was anticipated today.

General Aitken telephoned Sheriff Clemons to send a posse to Carbondale. The difference between the employes and the company has arisen from the discharge of three men, whom the company officials say were removed because of incompetency, but the men assert that it is because a Knights of Labor assembly has been organized among them and these three are the officers.

Posse Will Go Today. Yesterday the situation remained unchanged as far as the service was concerned; the officials and men around the barn manned the cars and infrequent trips were made.

General Aitken's appeal to Sheriff Clemons has resulted in the sheriff ordering his force of deputy sheriffs and bailiffs to go to Carbondale this morning. They will ride over the line and learn the feeling of the motormen and the men who sympathize with them. The outbreak at Lee's crossing, near the Wild West show grounds, where ties were piled on the tracks and switches spiked, is supposed to have been the work of vagabonds, who are attracted by the show.

If the men do not return to work this morning the management will proceed to get men to run the cars. The rumor that the Scranton street car men might go out on a sympathy strike has no foundation in fact. They belong to a different branch of the Knights of Labor; that is, the Scranton men belong to District Assembly No. 16, which has no connection with the Carbondale men who have sworn fealty to present officers of the Knights of Labor.

The company has agents out getting men to fill the strikers' places, and it is said that one man who worked extra for the Scranton Traction company has gone up scabbing. For some time the employes of the Lackawanna Valley Rapid Transit company, which operates Carbondale street car lines and those running between Peckville and Forest City, have been agitating the organization of an assembly of the Knights of Labor. A week ago they organized, thirty-six in number, and assumed the name Gardiner assembly, No. 1229, Knights of Labor. Thomas Gallagher was elected master workman, Martin Gallagher secretary, and William J. Jordan treasurer.

Claims of the Men. A meeting of the assembly was held last Friday evening at Edmunds' hall, Mayfield. Saturday morning when the men went to the power house to take out their cars they learned that notices had been served on the car dispatcher setting forth that the services of the three men, Thomas and Martin Gallagher, and William J. Jordan were no longer required. The men immediately regarded it as a blow at their action and they were reinstated. Superintendent Duncan told the men that the reason for discharging the three was their incompetency. Such an excuse was looked upon by them as too ridiculous for serious consideration and they went on strike without delay. The men claim that those discharged are three of the most capable employes they have and that they will not return to work until they are reinstated. They are impressed that the management intends to forestall any effort to organize a Knights of Labor assembly here and they are determined to do so. They charged committed no other offense than to be elected as officers of Assembly No. 1229. Imbued with the spirit of opposing the company until the management accords them the right to organization as they see fit, the men have taken a bold stand and refuse to return to work until that which they allege is their right is recognized. They have issued the following manifesto:

Company and Enemies of Labor. To the friends of labor: On May 1st the motormen and conductors of the Lackawanna Valley Rapid Transit company organized a union for their mutual benefit. Yesterday the company proved themselves the enemies of labor by discharging three men supposed to be the best workmen in the company for no other reason than that they sanctioned and assisted in the formation of a local assembly of the Knights of Labor. The whole force of thirty-two men, motormen and conductors, excepting two, have renounced this unlawful and unfair act on the part of the company and have asked them to advise him, or make any pledges as to the future action of the Wyoming conference or its authorities. There is, however, one significant paragraph in the bishop's letter which states, "I find, for myself, no difficulty in holding fast to the Methodist church, which has already done so much for temperance, as well as for other good causes. If any other minister or member of this church had compromised his conscience by still staying with this church, he must obey the light he has." Mr. Hogan states that he is not prepared to speak of his plans for the immediate future.

A GREAT DAY FOR CROOKS

Several Who Followed the Wild West Show Were Run In. DR. O'BRIEN'S FIFTY DOLLARS

He Was Relieved of It, and Several Other Residents Are Losers—Six Fakirs Arrested and Fined.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West show brought to Scranton an innumerable army of pick-pockets and sneak-thieves, who operated with some success. Colonel Cody's aggregation was followed by a small army of these gentlemen, but in the employ of the show is a well-trained detective force, at the head of which is W. H. Hartley, formerly of the Pinkerton corps, who with his staff does much to protect the thousands of spectators from loss.

The pick-pockets do not ply their trade at the show grounds alone, but work on street cars and railway trains, and at depots and street corners, where large crowds collect, waiting for transportation to the grounds.

Dr. J. Emmett O'Brien, of Spruce street, was touched for $50; S. M. Rhodes, a prominent Elmhurst citizen, lost $40, and J. L. McCormack, of Mercereau & Connell, jewelers, lost his pocket-book with a good sum of money in it. Dr. H. C. Comegys, of the West Side, was robbed of his pocket-book, and could not state just how much money he had in it, but a number of smaller losses were reported.

Had to Put Nippers on Him. One pickpocket and six fakirs were arrested. A fellow who gave his name at the central police station as William Murray, of Baltimore, age 37 years, and occupation a peddler, was taken to the police station and was remanded for further hearing. He is charged with attempting, at the Delaware and Hudson depot, to remove from the pockets of the passengers of the West Side, some of his loose cash. Lieutenant John Davis arrested him and Patrolman Sloat took him to the police station. On the way up he attempted to take a pocket knife from the officer, but he fell ignominiously and was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Mike Blewitt, a well-known man about town, was arrested near the show grounds on the charge of raking. When the police took him in tow he exhibited a license to sell jewelry one day for which he paid a dollar to City Treasurer R. G. Brooks. John Giegie, who is a fish huckster, and keeps a small stand on Lackawanna avenue, and Moscow Ryan, of Shanty Hill, were also arrested. They had a tray of cheap collar buttons, and by purchasing one for 25 cents, the poor sucker became entangled in a chain of some valuable (?) jewelry Blewitt had in another case. William Mathewson, from the farming country, bit three times and then complained to the police.

Blewitt Gets a Heavy Fine. At the hearing in police court yesterday morning Blewitt was fined $30; he paid $25 and on promising to give the other half as soon as he got out, he was given his freedom. Giegie was fined $25, which he paid, and when Moscow Ryan made a long speech to Alderman Miller and was discharged; he swore up and down that he had not been identified with Blewitt, that he was going, like a peaceable citizen, to the show and stopped to watch the sucker who had been arrested, and was thus enjoying himself when the police rolled him in.

John Walsh, of Nanticoke, aged 23, was arrested for being along with Peter Moran, of the same place, and James McGroarty, of Wilkes-Barre, who were running a chance game similar to a nuckle-in-the-slot machine. Walsh was let go and Moran was fined $25 with the privilege of changing it to thirty days in the county jail. McGroarty was fined $50. They are still at police headquarters.

"Paddy" Gilbride, of the South Side, whose name frequently appears on the police docket, was arrested by Pat Flaherty, who caught him in the act of stealing artificial flowers from a store on upper Lackawanna avenue. Gilbride was sent up for thirty days. He was charged with being drunk through Raymond court early Saturday morning like a roaring lion, and was taken in by Patrolman Melzer. He was committed for fifteen days.

DOG BETRAYED THEM.

Spotted an Attempted Burglary of a North End Residence.

The barking of a dog probably prevented the house of George W. Lowry, on East Market street, being entered by burglars Saturday night. John Sherman, a neighbor, was awakened by the dog's yelping and saw two men standing in Mr. Lowry's doorway.

The men passed inside and Mr. Sherman called lustily for the police. The two visitors ran away and a later inspection of the premises did not indicate that anything had been stolen. A year ago two men were sentenced for burglarizing the house which has been forcibly entered five times.

SAW BUFFALO BILL. Twelve Thousand Persons Applaud the Big Wild West Show.

When Colonel W. F. Cody took his place Saturday at the head of the grand review of his massive collection of Indians, cow-boys, Mexicans, Cossacks, Gauchos, Arabs, soldiers and detachments of European and American soldiers, he looked upon one of the largest audiences ever collected together at one time in Scranton's history. According to Major Burke, the seating capacity of the Wild West pavilion is in excess of 12,000 persons. At Saturday afternoon's performance every available seat was taken and a number of extra ground chairs were called into requisition. Altogether, the audience numbered about 12,000, a conservative estimate. The night audience was small, because of the severe rain.

The entertainment afforded by Buffalo Bill and his associates in the "congress of rough riders of the world" is an unique and instructive one, faithfully depicting frontier life on the plains as known by our forefathers in the forties, fifties and sixties. It is the most part, of daring feats of horsemanship, exhibitions of remarkable proficiency in the use of firearms and the lasso; individual tests of strength and daring and reproductions of the characteristic outdoor sports of Cossacks, Arabs, gauchos and other tribal races famed for their physical endurance. Probably the most interesting single feature was the military musical drill, in which a detachment of the Seventy United States Cavalry from Fort Riley; one from the Fifth Royal Irish lancers; one of French dragoons and one from the garde cuirassiers of Kaiser Wilhelm, united in a show of the characteristic merits of the various nationalities represented by them. The attack by Indians on the Deadwood mail coach, and its repulse by Buffalo Bill and a band of scouts was a realistic reproduction made even more so by the fact that the original coach, in charge of the original scout and driver, John Nelson, was employed in the performance. Indeed, each of the scores of features was so realistic and full of instruction, in point of variety and magnitude, the Wild West Show was a pleasant surprise to those who had not seen it during the past four years; and the skill with which the enormous attendance was handled without friction or accident by its management was almost an equal merit.

MRS. HOPKINS DEAD. She Was a Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Foote, of Capouse Avenue.

The death of Mrs. Sudler Hopkins, of Dunmore, occurred at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Foote, on Capouse avenue, this city, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The deceased has been ill but a few days, and death was caused by a relapse after an attack of the grip, common under the system and which made its appearance a day or so before her death.

She was the youngest daughter of L. A. Foote, the well-known lawyer, of Green Ridge, and was married three years ago to Sudler Hopkins, son of Dr. E. C. Hopkins, of Dunmore. They were popular young people of Dunmore and Green Ridge social circles. Mrs. Hopkins was a prominent member of the Presbyterian church, and was connected with the different church societies. She had a bright personality, and her cheerful manners won for her a host of friends by whom she will be sadly missed.

The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late home, 220 Drinker street, Dunmore.

RAP AT THE PRESBYTERY.

Mr. Wiswaesser's Old Parishoners Disapprove His Probation.

Resolutions have been passed by the members of the Hickory Street German Presbyterian church disapproving of the action of the Lackawanna presbytery in admitting Rev. C. L. Wiswaesser on probation. The resolutions embody an assertion that Mr. Wiswaesser left the city owing a large number of accounts, among them being one to Philip Weichel, liquor dealer, for $8.50. Several charges of misappropriation of money are also made.

Relative to the charges made against Rev. August Lange, the present pastor, resolutions were adopted by a vote of 161 to 3 requesting the presbytery to reject and annul the charges.

NATIONAL A. O. H. DELEGATES. Convention of Board of Erin Will Open Tomorrow at Tammany Hall, New York. Names of Lackawanna County Delegates.

Delegates representing Lackawanna county will leave for New York from Scranton this afternoon on the 3:50 train to go to the national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of Erin, at Tammany hall, New York, which will be called to order tomorrow morning in Tammany hall, on Fourteenth street.

The names of those who will go are County Delegate C. T. Boland, County Secretary P. F. McDonnell, of Carbondale; and County Treasurer P. H. McGeever, of Simpson; William Piel, representing Division No. 3, of Carbondale; Dr. T. C. Fitzsimmons, from Division No. 5, of Carbondale; Miles J. McAndrew, of Division No. 4, of Carbondale; John S. McCabe, of Division No. 7, of Scranton; and Thomas F. Donlan, of Division No. 14, of the South Side.

Representatives from every county division of each state of the United States will assemble at the foremost topic that will engage their attention will be the unification of the two bodies of the Ancient Order, and it will be the earnest desire of the delegates from Lackawanna county to take a leading part in this movement. County Delegate Boland has done a good deal locally to unite the two, and he will have his success here to back him up in discussing the matter in the national convention.

The convention will be in session at least four days. National officers will be elected and it is not probable that it will arouse any spirited rivalry. C. T. Boland is strongly spoken of throughout the country as one who the delegates will unanimously place in the national president's chair; in that case Treasurer D. P. Battle, of this city, may not allow his name to be used for re-election.

It is the intention of the Lackawanna delegates to bring the next national convention to Scranton if that city is done by earnest and hard work and opportunity.

The state convention will begin next week, Tuesday, May 21, at Wilkes-Barre, and will last three days.

SCRANTON CLUB CHANGES

Pitcher Fox Is Released and Patchen Will Probably Go. TEAM IS NOW STRENGTHENED

Manager Barrie and the Scranton players left for Toronto on the midnight Lackawanna train last night for Toronto, where they play this afternoon the first of the games away from home. Before leaving, a number of changes were decided upon, several of which will take place at once.

Pitcher Fox has been released and Winkleman has been given a two weeks' vacation, which he will spend at his home in Baltimore. Captain Sweeney will remain in Scranton until Thursday, by which time it is expected his injured shoulder will be improved enough to join the team in Buffalo and help playing shortstop. Patchen was taken along as an extra catcher, but he will probably be sent to Toronto. Pitcher Quarles arrived in the city Friday night and left with the team for Toronto. He had been in Chattanooga, Tenn., where he had been pitching and serving as captain of the club of that city. He came to Scranton much against his will, but Manager Barrie had him bound by contract to report when wanted. The release of Fox and Johnson's injured hand made it necessary for the manager to select a new pitcher, and so on Thursday Manager Barrie decided to bring Quarles here. He has pitched many times for the Chattanooga since the season opened and is in first-class form.

Patience and Carbondale each want Fox. Manager Swift, of the latter club, was here Thursday and negotiated with the Scranton management to secure him. Fox prefers Patienceville, but as Carbondale has offered him the better salary it is probable that he will go with that team.

Catcher Smith, who caught for the New Yorks, and did such good work for the giants on their practice trip south, seems likely to become a Scranton player. But for his broken finger he would have been permanently signed by the New Yorks. At the beginning of the season Manager Barrie would have signed Smith, broken finger and all, but the pay roll was already large, and it was decided unwise to run the risk of having him on their hands, and crippled throughout the season.

Smith and Manager Barrie were in telegraphic communication Friday and Saturday, and came within a very few dollars of an agreement. Yesterday an ultimatum was wired Smith. It is thought that he will accept it, in which case he will report with Captain Sweeney in Buffalo Thursday. If Smith accepts, Patchen will be released and will go to Carbondale, where a catcher's position is ready for him at any time.

Changes in the Field. Catcher Smith, who caught for the New Yorks, and did such good work for the giants on their practice trip south, seems likely to become a Scranton player. But for his broken finger he would have been permanently signed by the New Yorks. At the beginning of the season Manager Barrie would have signed Smith, broken finger and all, but the pay roll was already large, and it was decided unwise to run the risk of having him on their hands, and crippled throughout the season.

When Captain Sweeney takes his place at short on Thursday, Barford will go into right field and Houle will be benched.

All the changes considered, the club will be greatly strengthened and will make a better showing away from home than seemed likely a few days ago. After playing against Toronto, Rochester and Syracuse, conceded to be the three weakest clubs in the league, the club will have been accustomed to New York, Philadelphia and other through points, and the team will be in better trim to meet Springfield, Providence and Wilkes-Barre.
