PROPOSED APPORTIONMENT

Sweeping Change Made by Senate Congressional Committee.

NO CHANGE IN PHILADELPHIA

Lackawanna and Susquehanna to Be Joined—Work in Senate and House. Flag Bill is Defeated—Governor Hastings' Appointments.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Harrisburg, May 15.—The senate congressional committee today reported a bill making a sweeping change in the congressional districts as now constituted.

Question of Adjournment. The question of final adjournment is one that is just now receiving much attention at the hands of both branches of the legislature.

Another matter that is now receiving considerable attention in the many incidental conferences in the legislative, judicial, senatorial and congressional apportionment measure of this character introduced to date has met violent opposition and the general sentiment is that only a conference committee can settle the differences.

Two important bills were introduced in the house today by Representative McDonald, of Allegheny. One creates a cash fund of $75,000 for the western penitentiary to provide clothing, food, light and fuel, and providing for the reimbursement of the same by charges on counties sending prisoners to the prison.

Flag Bill Defeated. The bill allowing school boards to purchase out of the public funds American flags made of bunting by American workmen, and to float them on the school houses of their respective districts on staffs made of American timber, was defeated on final passage.

The bills relieving real estate agents from the provision of the acts of 1850 and 1861, passed finally. Those measures were offered on the recommendation of the auditor general. They relieve real estate agents from the payment of the brokers' tax, which cost the state more to collect than the amount of revenue derived.
