SCRANTON, MAY 16, 1895.

The American people, from tradition and interest, FAVOR Bimetallism, and the Republican party demands the use of BOTH GOLD AND SILVER AS STANDARD MONEY.

Ivorites in Session.

The eloquent address of Benjamin R. Lewis, delivered as president of last evening's banquet to the Grand Lodge officers of the American Ivorites, uttered the keynote to much that is noblest in the Welsh character.

Tammany Redivivus.

The spectacle of Frederick Smyth stepping from the Recorders' bench in New York to take the active command of a discredited political organization like Tammany Hall is not calculated to reflect credit backward upon his career as a Judge.

The Newspaper of the Future.

In a recent syndicate article a number of leading editors and publishers gave various replies to the question: "What will be the newspaper of the future?"

Secretary Gresham is better; but his foreign policy is probably worse.

The Carnegie company's 10 per cent. advance in wages to its 43,000 employees is one of those luminous facts which stand out against the dull background reached its limit; Colonel Foster Coates, of the New York Commercial Advertiser, is not sure that it is not just beginning. Where eminent doctors disagree, it would ill become a tyro to hazard an opinion.

Consider it on Its Merit.

Senator Grady, of Philadelphia, has received information, it is alleged, that a combination of country members of the legislature has been formed at Harrisburg for the purpose of defeating a number of bills, among which he includes the new Appellate court bill.

Having just won his farewell lawsuit, General Harrison is now free to play a farewell engagement in national politics.

Winter should be formally notified to quit lingering in the lap of spring.

WISE OR OTHERWISE.

Charles F. Adams, of Bridgeport, Conn., who is employed at general carpenter work by the Waterbury Brass company, has just completed a table containing 800 pieces of wood.

IN THE CLOUDS.

"Bourienne," said Napoleon, "I still seem to be interesting to the mortals." "You are, sire, you are," returned his faithful secretary.

INCONSISTENT.

"Men are such inconsistent creatures," sighed Mrs. Witherby. "It was only the other day they were enthusiastic about smashing the machine at the polls, and now I see that they are going to vote by machinery. What won't they do next?"

DISGRACED THE TOWN.

Eastern Man—"And how did my friend Jones do in Kentucky?" "Kentucky Visitor—"Oh, he disgraced our town."

RETRIBUTION.

The girl who lives next door to me is young and persevering. She practices from 6 a. m. till breakfast-time each day.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

Those things which engage us merely by their novelty cannot abstract us for any length of time.—Pierre, Loti.

MONOLOGUE OF A MONOPOLIST.

Let us corner up the sunbeams, Lying all around our path; Give us a trust on wheat and roses, Give us the four the thorns and chaff; Let us find our chiefest pleasure Hoarding bouquets of the day.

TOLD BY THE STARS.

Daily Horoscope Drawn by Ajaxchus, The Tribune Astrologer. Astrological cast: 2.30 a. m. for Thursday, May 16, 1895.

MOON RISES 1.29 A. M.

A child born this day will be of an inquiring mind, but will never be able to determine why certain representatives of the "dear people" in the city councils usually vote for the measures that give it to the "dear people" in the neck.

AGREEMENTS.

Jonahad Almanor, the linguist, could converse in twenty-seven dialects. There is no question that Jonahad would have been a "hummer" on the grand stand during the base ball season.

AGREEMENTS.

Cherish the early straw hat. You will need it later. Accept no favors that have a string attached. Put distance between yourself and the man with a scheme on his day.

NOT FOR LOVE.

From Dorfbarbler. Gertie (who has behaved very rudely to her mamma, to her aunt—Aunt Clara, pray don't go away yet! Aunt (flattered)—I had no idea you were so fond of me, Gertie!
