STOCKS AND BONDS.

New York, May 16.—There was a decided change for the better at the Stock Exchange today owing to the execution of large buying orders for foreign account. Strange as it may appear the street accepted the sale of nearly five million New York Central treasury stock by J. P. Morgan & Co., as a bull argument. Today the announcement that the Central had sold a large block of stock acted a fillip and nearly everyis just as potent in-doors, if you thing on the list moved up. The grang-get inside the right doors. ers were buoyant in the face of doleful eports concerning the crops. These stocks and the Vanderbilts were the keynote to the market. New York Central rose 3%; Canada Southern 1%; Michigan Central 14: Lake Shore 14: St. Paul 21/8; Burlington and Quincy 21/2; Northwest 3; Rock Island 2. Great Northern preferred, on reports that President Hill had obtained control of the Northern Pacific road, bounded up 11 points. The general list was in-clined to lag until the Vanderbilts and grangers developed activity, and then the shorts, as well as operators who have been looking for a reaction, turned in and bought. Speculation closed strong in tone. Net changes show gains of \a1\%, the latter in New York
